Q. IV. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, the twenty-two following:—

(1.) JAMES ALLEN (B), son of the Rev. James

Allen; who finished his course at Bramley, August 30th, 1873, at the close of the fifty-first year of his life, and the twenty-seventh of his ministry. He was born at Uttoxeter, and educated at Kingswood School; and was converted to God in the year 1840, in the town of Sheffield, under a sermon by the late Rev. John Henley. Twelve months afterwards he began to preach the truth that had "made him free." In 1844 he was recommended for the office of the Christian ministry, and after two years spent at Didsbury, he entered upon his work under a deep and even oppressive sense of its importance. In all his Circuits the Lord gave him fruit of his labour, and the esteem and confidence of his colleagues and the people. Intelligence, love, purity of life, sympathy with the suffering, unwearied attention to the poor, singleness of aim, forgetfulness of self, and an all but unvarying Christian cheerfulness, characterized him throughout. He took great interest in the spiritual well-being of the young, and was very successful in conducting Bible and theological classes. He was an able theologian, and a wise and always profitable preacher. During his last illness, though oppressed with weakness, and deprived of the joy of his accustomed labour, he was sustained by the conviction that, through grace, "some better thing" was prepared for him, and found rest in submission to the Divine will. For some weeks before his death he slept almost continuously, but more than once broke out in ejaculations of prayer and praise. A few days before the closing scene, he awoke with a cheerful smile, and raising his hands with considerable energy, exclaimed, "Praise, praise Him for ever—for ever!" When the end came, he was ready; and, with no trace of suffering left, breathed his sanctified spirit into the hands of God.

(2.) William Seed; who was born at Scorton, in the Garstang Circuit, September 15th, 1838, and died at Brightlingsea, in the Colchester Circuit, September 23rd, 1873. In early life he was the subject of gracious impressions, which were fostered by the example and influence of his godly mother, and the instruction received in the Sabbath-school of his native village. When twelve years of age he obtained the pardoning love of God, and at once began to meet in class; and the great change which he experienced in youth was manifested throughout his after life. At the Conference of 1860, he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry. Having passed through a course of training at Richmond, he laboured with diligence and success in the several Circuits to which he was appointed during his brief ministerial career. His preaching was instructive and profitable, showing that careful thought had been employed in the preparation of his sermons. As a pastor and friend he was greatly beloved, especially by those who knew him intimately. He was naturally of an even temperament, and his Christian character was uniformly consistent. He was a faithful and valued colleague: trusting others, he was trusted in return. On the last Sabbath but one before his death, though in great physical weakness, he preached with remarkable impressiveness. His mortal illness was brief, but very severe: during an interval of consciousness, not long before his departure, he testified to his having experienced a glorious manifestation of the presence of God to his soul. Speaking to his sorrowing wife on the value of sanctified affliction, he said, "I have learned more in this week's affliction than during all my life before, and shall be the better for it as long as I live." His sudden removal in the prime of his days, and in the midst of his usefulness, occasioned deep and wide-spread sorrow. He finished his earthly course in the twelfth year of his ministry.

(3.) Robert Henry Hare; who was the youngest son of the late Rev. Edward Hare. He was born in Liverpool, March, 1816, and died at Dunstable, in October, 1873. The confidence of his dying father was, in the case of Robert Henry, from earliest life clearly fulfilled: addressing his wife, who was kneeling at his side, he said, "God will be yours,—a Father to the dear children. Give my love to them: I only care for their souls." Characterized from boyhood by great seriousness of mind, he was, at the age of twelve, and whilst a scholar at Woodhouse Grove, induced to give himself to God and His people. At the age of twenty he was received on probation for the ministry, and appointed to Hornsea. For a period of thirty-five years he maintained a blameless reputation, his character being ever in accordance with the principles and precepts of Christianity. In temperament he was exceedingly sensitive. By reading, study, and careful observation he diligently sought to acquire material wherewith to discharge with efficiency the duties to which his life was consecrated. His preaching was chiefly expository. He was judicious in the selection of texts, and anxious to give their meaning with clearness and force to his congregation. In the treatment of his subjects he was methodical and Scriptural; and his appeals to his hearers were frequently most impressive. As a colleague and Superintendent he was genial, prudent, and impartial, and hence greatly beloved. For the work of the Christian pastor his gentleness of spirit, his sympathy, his courteous manners, and withal his unfeigned love for the cause of God, eminently qualified him. Scarcely had he entered, amid great searchings of heart and in earnest hope of being more than ever useful, upon a second year's labour in the Dunstable Circuit, when an inscrutable Providence permitted him to be fatally afflicted. From the commencement to the end of his illness his sufferings were very acute, but great was the sustaining power of Divine grace. While the issue was still uncertain, he said, "I only wish to live that I may be increasingly ambitious to do more for my Saviour;" and again, "I cast aside every rag of self-righteousness, and take Jesus only. God knows how much I long for holiness and rest in Christ." Exceedingly comprehensive and impressive were the views of Scriptural holiness given him during the last few days of his life, and his whole spirit seemed eager to realise that "perfect love" to which it is the privilege of believers in Christ to attain. In strong paroxysms of pain he breathed the words,—

> "With me in the fire remain,
> 'Till like burnish'd gold I shine,
> Meet, through consecrated pain,
> To see the Face Divine."

On the morning of October 11th, 1873, resting thus assuredly in Christ, he entered the "inheritance of the saints in light," in the fifty-eighth year of his age, and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(4.) JOHN STABLES RIDSDALE; who was born at Ribstone-Little, Yorkshire, on July 2nd, 1817. He was descended from an old Methodist family, and grew up under religious influences. From childhood he was the subject of deep conviction, and at the age of fifteen he obtained the "knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins." A few years later, in 1839, he was admitted as a student at Abney House. His piety was sincere, humble, earnest, and consistent; and was constantly nurtured by habits of strict self-scrutiny and private devotion. In his conduct towards others, honesty and manliness, the result of an unflinching fidelity to right principles, were ever manifest; yet these stronger qualities were so combined with Christian gentleness and love as to secure not only the respect, but also the affection and confidence of those who knew him. His acquaintance with the Christian scheme was comprehensive and thorough; and his theological views were held with a firmness and tenacity that knew no wavering. The doctrines so surely believed by him, were preached with great fidelity and power; whilst the duties and obligations of religion were enforced by motives the most solemn and weighty, and by a singular closeness and conclusiveness of reasoning. His sermons were carefully prepared and effectively delivered, and often very searching in their character. In dealing with the conscience, and in the application of Divine truth to the daily business of life, he had few equals. He was an "able minister of the New Testament," "a workman that needed not to be ashamed." As a colleague he was frank and generous, and was both trusted and beloved by those who were associated with him in the ministry. His health, enfeebled for many years, completely failed during his superintendency of the Weston-super-Mare Circuit; and in July, 1873, anxious to be near his children, he removed to Walsall. Here his sufferings became great, and his prostration extreme; but, amidst all, he reposed his faith in the Divine wisdom and goodness. "My only hope," he said, "is in the Atonement of Christ." When unable to speak connectedly, his mind was evidently engaged in the great theme of his ministry. On Sunday, November 2nd, 1873, he entered upon the rest and blessedness of Paradise, in the fifty-seventh year of his age, and the thirty-fourth of his ministry.

(5.) MATTHEW CRANSWICK; who was born at Ingmanthorpe, Yorkshire, March 10th, 1799. He was favoured with eminently pious parents, under whose godly teaching he early became the subject of deep religious impressions. At the age of fourteen he received the Divine assurance that God for Christ's sake had forgiven his sins, which assurance he retained uninterruptedly throughout his life. In 1829 he was appointed by the Conference to Cape-Breton, in British North America, where his ministry was signally owned of God in the conversion of sinners and the establishment of Methodism; and where his memory is still precious to very many who are the fruit of his zealous and indefatigable labours. After his return to this country he occupied several important Circuits, in which he was exceedingly useful, especially amongst the young. He was distinguished for great simplicity and transparency of character, and for deep attachment to the doctrines and polity of Wesleyan-Methodism. As a preacher he was earnest and evangelical; as a pastor diligent and sympathizing; and as a Superintendent considerate and faithful. For several years prior to his death he was unable, through bodily infirmity, to take the work of a Circuit, or even preach occasionally; but, as opportunity permitted, he sought to support the varied agencies employed for the spiritual benefit of those around him. In his last illness his confidence in Christ was strong, and his hope of heaven bright. He died in great peace, at Eastbourne, on December 6th, 1873, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(6.) WILLIAM ILLINGWORTH; who was born of Methodist parents, at Blackburn, in 1806. He was converted to God in early life, and at the age of sixteen became a Local-preacher. In 1829 he entered upon the work of the ministry, and his preaching, particularly in Bacup, Ashton-under-Lyne, Glasgow, and Bristol, was blessed to the awakening and conversion of many souls. Indeed, for twenty years his public labours, both in the pulpit and on the platform, were eminently acceptable and useful. In 1864, a railway accident compelled him to become a Supernumerary. Subsequent afflictions appear to have been made a blessing to him. In his last illness he said, with emphasis, "I wish I had served God better. My sufferings have been sanctified to me. God is my Rock; Christ is my hope; in His atoning blood I put my trust." He died at Luzley-Brook, in the Oldham (Wesley) Circuit, on the 17th of December, 1873, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the forty-fifth of his ministry.

(7.) THOMAS JEFFERY; who was born at Cawson, near Devonport, and was early brought to a saving knowledge of the truth. He entered the ministry in 1827, and for thirty-two years faithfully and successfully discharged its duties, until a mysterious dispensation of Providence laid him aside. His affliction was long and painful, but for a short time before his departure his health greatly improved, and he was desirous to work for his Divine Master to the full extent of his strength. He felt and manifested a deep interest in the work of God. The ailment that terminated in death was of a very depressing nature, and while passing through it, he said but little; but what he did say was satisfactory. He entered into his eternal rest on the 16th of January, 1874, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the forty-seventh of his ministry.

(8.) RICHARD ALLEN (A); who had the advantages of a Methodist training. He was converted in early life, and entered the ministry in 1810. Labouring for some years amongst a scattered population in mountainous districts, he endured many hardships, cheerfully volunteering in severe winters to take the country work of his more aged colleagues. One who knew him well expressed the opinion that he "would encounter any difficulty to save souls." It pleased God to allow him to witness some remarkable instances of success. He applied himself assiduously to the pursuit of theological knowledge, and was in a more than ordinary degree conversant with the Holy Scriptures. For a long period his name stood on the Minutes as a Supernumerary, but he continued to pursue a steady course of pulpit and pastoral service, with acceptability and usefulness, until "the rush of numerous years" deprived him of the power. He was eminently upright and devout, and God did not cast him off "in the time of old age," nor forsake him "when his strength failed;" for he was enabled to bear with patience the labour and sorrow of complicated and increasing infirmities. He looked into the future without dismay, peacefully awaiting the coming of his Lord; and exchanged "the burden of the flesh" for joy and felicity on January 27th, 1874, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, and the sixty-fourth of his ministry.

(9.) George Scott, D.D.; who was born in Edinburgh, on the 18th of June, 1804. He was educated for commercial life, but his early dedication to God made him, even in youth, a diligent student of the Bible, and of the literature which is devoted to the elucidation of the Sacred Books. The discipline of his home life brought out the natural energy and self-reliance of his character, and when he gave his heart to God, everything was consecrated with it. He entered our ministry in 1830, and was appointed a Missionary to Sweden. This was at that time a field that presented peculiar difficulties to a foreign labourer, and the skill and fidelity with which the young Missionary mastered them, and the extraordinary success of his labours during a period of twelve years, are familiar to the Christian world as a classic story in Missionary annals. The persecution that drove him from Sweden was as honourable to himself as it was disgraceful to those whom a faithful and fearless ministry had made his enemies. He revisited Stockholm in 1859, and saw fields which he had sown in tears, twenty years before, white unto the harvest. He was received with enthusiasm by all classes, and hundreds of people, including persons of high rank and clergymen, hailed him as their spiritual father. His labours in this country, if not equally conspicuous, were equally faithful. In 1866 he was appointed President of the Conferences of Canada and Eastern British America. He was a good preacher, an eloquent advocate of Missions, and a judicious and able colleague: in every position in which the confidence of his brethren placed him, as Chairman of a District, or President of an affiliated Conference, he fulfilled his trust with diligence, singular disinterestedness, and fidelity. His spirit was eminently catholic; and while a faithful Methodist preacher, he was a servant of the Church of Christ, helping to the best of his opportunities those great movements, such as the Bible Society and the Evangelical Alliance, in which all who name the name of Christ are equally concerned. The close of his life was a beautiful consummation of Christian service. He who had been indefatigable in work was equally steadfast in suffering, and he "finished his course with joy," and the ministry which he had received of the Lord Jesus, to testify the Gospel of the grace of God. He died in Glasgow, on January 28th, 1874, in the seventieth year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(10.) THOMAS HARDING; who was born at Usk, in Monmouthshire, on the 14th of February, 1819. Of his parentage and early life he has left no record, nor is it known at what age he was brought to the knowledge of Christ as his Saviour. From an account recently given by himself, it appears that for many weeks he was oppressed by fears lest his repentance was not sufficiently deep and sincere; but, in a prayer-meeting which was held after a lovefeast, the words, "If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things to them that ask Him?" were so forcibly applied that his fears were dispelled, and the satisfying assurance of adoption through Christ was given him. He was sent to the Theological Institution at Didsbury in 1842, and entered upon the work of the ministry in 1844, in the Monmouth Circuit. His preaching was instructive and evangelical, and his teaching was enforced by a consistent life. His remarkable equanimity and cheerfulness, while recommending the religion he professed, helped to foster happy pastoral intercourse with his people. On Sunday morning, February 22nd, he was preaching in the chapel at Whitehaven, from the words, "The God of all grace, who hath called us unto His eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you." He had dwelt much upon the excellence of the reward which God has appointed for His servants, and the graciousness of God in calling those who so ill-deserve it to His own "glory," when, drawing to the conclusion of his discourse, and whilst quoting the passage, "In whom all the building fitly framed together," the Master Himself called, and he entered into the "eternal glory" of which he had been speaking. He died in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and the thirtieth of his ministry.

(11.) GEORGE HOBILL; who was born at Daventry, in the year 1811. His parents were eminently pious, and trained up their children "in the nurture and admonition of the Lord." Through the exhortations and prayers of his mother, his mind was early impressed with the importance of Divine things. When about seventeen years of age, he sought and obtained mercy through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ. He soon began to preach, and was instrumental in the awakening and conversion of many souls. In 1834, after much inward conflict, he became a candidate for our ministry. For nearly forty years he prosecuted his evangelical labours with diligence, fidelity, and success. His natural abilities were good, and his instructive discourses were highly valued by the intelligent and devout. He was a zealous preacher of the Gospel, and in some cases he was permitted to gather precious fruit. The affliction which terminated his life was short, but peculiarly painful. He preached with his usual energy only a few days before his death, and thus almost ceased "at once to work and live." He endured excruciating pain with remarkable patience, and his gratitude for the least attention paid him was great. In the certain prospect of speedy departure, his mind was calm and his faith unshaken. When told that his malady was likely to be fatal, he said, with a smile, "The will of the Lord be done." To a friend who whispered, "In My Father's house are many mansions," he replied, with a countenance lit up with joy, "O, my home is there; my portion is there; my heart is there!" To the question, "Is Jesus near?" he answered, "O, yes!" He died at Swanage, February 27th, 1874, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(12.) ADAM NIGHTINGALE; who was born at Oundle, August 25th, 1789. He was not favoured with an early religious training, but, notwithstanding this disadvantage in his youth, he was frequently the subject of gracious emotions, checks of conscience, and alarming fears. As he approached manhood, he was brought by various circumstances under the influence of Methodist teaching; and his attention to the Word preached issued in his conversion to God. In 1822 he was called to the work of the ministry. The first few months of his itinerancy were spent in Circuits at home, where his services were highly appreciated, after which he was appointed to labour in Newfoundland. He entered upon his duties there full of heart and hope, and in their faithful and energetic discharge was uninterruptedly engaged for nearly forty years. His health then failing, he was obliged to return to England, entirely incapacitated for public service. But his spirit never lost its missionary ardour. Mr. Nightingale was modest and unobtrusive in his general demeanour, yet in the cause of Christ lacked neither courage nor firmness. He was a man of deep and ardent piety, and his love for souls was intense. His preaching was plain, but thoroughly evangelical and practical, and his appeals to the hearts of his hearers were earnest and powerful; in various places in which he exercised his ministry he had fruit of his labours. A complaint from which he suffered for a protracted period tended to impair his nervous system, in consequence of which, during the latter part of his life, he was the subject of frequent doubts and fears regarding his spiritual safety; but in his most depressed state, he clung to the Atonement of Christ with great simplicity of mind. Almost his last words were, "Talk to me of Jesus." He died on March 29th, 1874, in the eighty-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(13.) Nicholas Bishop, M.A.; who was born at St. Allen, Cornwall, on July 4th, 1829. The godly training of a pious mother led him early to religious decision: in his seventeenth year he sought and found the covenant grace of God, and joined the Wesleyan-Methodist Society in Truro. Two years after, moved by the Holy Ghost, he became a Local-preacher. Discouraged from entering into our ranks, he laboured as a faithful and successful minister in another branch of the Christian Church for nearly eight years. At the Conference of 1860 he was received as a minister amongst us, and subsequently travelled in some of our principal Circuits. His mind was comprehensive and active; his emotions refined and elevated; his will calm but resolute; and his judgment sound, discriminating, and charitable. His spiritual life was deep and fervent, and became the mainspring of his motives and the regulator of his conscience. During his ministerial course he steadily increased in power and efficiency. His sermons were truly evangelical, and full of Methodist teaching; and though under the influence of his metaphysical studies, they sometimes ran into moulds of thought unfamiliar to ordinary congregations, yet were they usually plain, practical, and soul-saving. He was a faithful colleague, a diligent and loving visitor of the members of his flock, and was specially mindful of their families. He was a man of noble and lofty aims: his book on "Human Power in the Divine Life," is a suggestive contribution to the study of mental philosophy as it bears on the province of theology. Four months before his death he was laid aside by sickness. He keenly felt the trial, but in the midst of it Divine grace enabled him to say, "I am in harmony with all the great harmonies; there is nothing in the past on which I can look with satisfaction: its best is sinful; but I can rest in God. My health is gone; my heart and my flesh are going,—are failing; 'but God is the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.'" He peacefully entered into rest on April 14th, 1874, in the forty-fifth year of his age, and the twenty-second of his entire ministry.

(14.) Richard Ray; who was born at Ulverstone, in Lancashire, on the 5th of April, 1800. He was brought to a sense of his need of salvation when about fifteen years of age, and, having obtained peace with God, soon afterwards began to preach the Gospel. In 1824 he was designated for the then new mission to the Friendly Islands, and his passage was bespoken. Unforeseen difficulties arising, his place was occupied by the Rev. John Thomas, and Mr. Ray entered upon labours at home which extended through more than forty years. Long-continued toil for the promotion of Methodism, often in circumstances of extreme difficulty, did much to lay the foundation of the disease which at last proved fatal to him. In 1867, through failure of health, he was compelled to relinquish the full work of the ministry, and he retired to Bristol, where he spent the rest of his life in such ministerial and pastoral service as his strength permitted. He was naturally gifted with untiring energy and perseverance. His powers of organisation and administration were considerable, and were acknowledged by the Conference, which more than once confided to him the management of affairs requiring exemplary tact and patience. His name will ever be associated with the Wesleyan Collegiate Institution, Taunton, in the establishment of which he took an active part, and of which he was the first governor. As a preacher, he was earnest and practical, and his labours were manifestly owned of God; as a pastor, faithful, and full of tenderness when sorrow called for sympathy; as a friend, frank, generous, and true. His last affliction was long, and very painful, but it was borne with a patient trust which accorded well with the manliness and consistency of his Christian life. To the last his intellect was unclouded, and his humble reliance upon Divine mercy through the Atonement of Christ found frequent expression. A little before his death he remarked, referring to an obituary of a brother minister which he had prepared, "If anything is said of me when I am gone, let it be that I am resting here:—

'He calls a worm His friend,
He calls Himself my God;
And He shall save me to the end,
Through Jesu's blood.'

My imperfections are covered by His infinite merits: my debt is paid; I trust in the blood of Jesus." His last utterance was a prayer for his children, as they gathered around his bed in the early morning of Tuesday, April 21st, 1874, when he exchanged the weakness and suffering of this present life for the rest and glory of the world to come. He died in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(15.) John Colwill Reddaway; who was born near Okehampton, January 28th, 1842. He was not blessed with Methodist training, and had but few religious advantages when young. The Holy Spirit, however, often moved upon his heart, and led him to inquire after truth. Meeting with the Life of the Rev. Dr. Newton, he read it with care; and the impressions thus received eventually led him to the Saviour. When nineteen years of age, he was accepted as a candidate for our ministry, and after two years' training in the Institution at Richmond, he was appointed to a Circuit in 1863. In all his Circuits he made "full proof of his ministry," and by the catholicity of his spirit and the kindliness of his demeanour won the affectionate esteem of many in all sections of the Christian Church. He was an earnest and acceptable preacher, an indefatigable pastor, paying especial attention to the poor, a genial and trustworthy friend and colleague, and a godly and consistent man in every department of life. He sought to be useful, and God gave him the desire of his heart; in every sphere in which he laboured, the cause of God was both consolidated and extended. He fell at his post. During the whole of his brief but very severe affliction, he was full of peace, and often requested his wife to "help him to praise God." He passed from toil to triumph at Middleton, in the Oldham (Manchester-street) Circuit, May 5th, 1874, in the thirty-third year of his age, and the eleventh of his ministry.

(16.) Richard Heape; who was born at Hartley, near Rochdale, April 12th, 1789. He was blessed with a pious ancestry, and very early in life was induced to devote himself to God. Soon after his conversion he became desirous to lead others to the enjoyment of the same salvation. In the year 1813 he was appointed to a Circuit, and for forty-one years pursued his ministerial and pastoral labours with diligence, acceptance, and success. He retired from the Itinerancy in the year 1854, and from that time, in a more limited sphere, glorified God in both doing and suffering His will. Mr. Heape was a man of great simplicity of character, and was eminently devout and conscientious. Throughout his career he was distinguished by his courtesy and his gentlemanly deportment; by kindliness and gentleness, by generosity to the poor, and liberality to the cause of God in general; by catholicity of spirit, and devotedness to the Church of his choice. When the Master called, His servant was found ready, and was enabled to commit himself unto God "as unto a faithful Creator." He died on Wednesday, May 6th, 1874, in the eighty-sixth year of his age, and the sixty-first of his ministry.

(17.) James Dale Brocklehurst; who was born at Macclesfield, March 27th, 1820, and died at Grantham, June 2nd, 1874, in the fifty-fifth year of his age. He was a son of Methodist parents, and in his fifteenth year experienced the saving power of the Gospel. He began to preach very early, and during the greater part of his ministry was a diligent expositor and preacher of God's Word. As a pastor he was exemplary; and in his attention to the young especially, whether in their homes, in private schools, or in Bible-classes, he was the instrument of more than ordinary usefulness. His unwearied pains in explaining the Old Testament economy, in itself and in its relation to the New Covenant, gave a marked value to his instructions, and probably led to the deep and abiding interest which he took in the conversion of the Jews. In connection with the Jubilee of the Missionary Society, he rendered much service as secretary; service, however, which was peculiarly laborious and exhausting. After an interval of constrained silence, he was appointed to the Grantham Circuit, where his labours won for him the esteem and confidence of the Societies. But the Great Head of the Church did not permit him to give them a full year's service. Before the year expired, repeated attacks of sickness so prostrated him that he could not rally. In the spirit of rigorous severity towards himself, but of unfailing trust in his Saviour, he met his end; and when it came, the end was peace. His last words to his faithful wife were, "I believe that the blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth me from all sin." His memory is cherished with tender affection by very many, who rejoice that with him it was "light at eventide."

(18.) Joseph Roberts; who was born near Holmfirth, January 16th, 1790. When eighteen years of age he was converted to God, and became a member of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. By the Conference of 1814 he was accepted as a candidate for the ministry, and he continued in full work for the long period of fifty-four years. "Full of faith and of the Holy Ghost," he was "instant in season, out of season," caring only for the salvation of souls. As a friend he was warm-hearted, disinterested, and faithful; and as a colleague he was invariably true and affectionate. Repudiating "fleshly wisdom," and governed only by "simplicity and godly sincerity," he reposed great confidence in others, and was sometimes liable to be deceived by men who affected zeal for the cause of God. He was a diligent and prayerful student of the Scriptures; his preaching was highly acceptable, and was very successful in bringing men to Christ, and in promoting the edification of the Church. As a pastor, he was attentive to the young, and, under a lively remembrance of the command, "Feed My sheep," was ceaselessly active in visiting the people of his charge. The entireness of his consecration was conspicuous during the prevalence of cholera in 1832, showing that he did not "count his life dear unto him," so that he might lead stricken ones to the Physician of souls. In 1868 he became a Supernumerary, but continued to work for Christ in Bradford-on-Avon until, about two years ago, his ability for public service entirely failed. Sometimes his affliction was very distressing, and induced depression and anxiety; while his patience was unfailing, he frequently expressed "a desire to depart, and to be with Christ." His desire was fulfilled on the 18th of June, 1874. He was upwards of eighty-four years of age, and had been in the ministry nearly sixty years.

(19.) William Wilson (c); who was born at Wharton-Lodge, near Wetherby, Yorkshire, September 11th, 1810. In youth he manifested that thoughtfulness which was so marked a feature of his later life. When about seventeen years of age, he prayerfully sought the Lord, frequently retiring that he might plead with God in secret for salvation. After many struggles, he at length firmly rested on the Atonement of Christ, when his soul was filled with peace, which it is believed he never afterwards lost. In 1837, after having been an accredited Local-preacher about two years, he was recommended for the ministry, accepted by the Conference, and sent to the Theological Institution, where he remained two years, receiving his first appointment to a Circuit at the Conference of 1839. From that time until his death, he pursued his work as a Methodist preacher with great acceptance and usefulness. His sermons, which were carefully prepared, were calculated to do much good. As a Superintendent he was methodical and exact, endeavouring to "mind every point, great and small, in the Methodist discipline." He was a lover and promoter of peace, and his life gave evidence of daily fellowship with God, and of interest in the cause of Christ. At the Conference of 1873, he was appointed to the superintendency of the Cleckheaton Circuit, where, during a few months, he passed through many sorrows, following to the tomb the remains of his second wife, a brother, and a brother-in-law. These repeated strokes he bore with fortitude, knowing that the rod of discipline was in a loving Father's hand. On Saturday evening, June 20th, 1874, he attended a band-meeting at Heckmondwike, where he resided, and on leaving said that he felt as well as usual. But it was with difficulty he reached home: in less than an hour his spirit took its flight, to enter upon the rest of the eternal Sabbath. His last words were expressive of his anxiety about the preaching-appointments in his Circuit for the morrow. He died in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the thirty-fifth of his ministry.

(20.) Thomas Harrison Walker; who was born at Heckmondwike, in 1789. When eighteen years of age he was deeply convinced of sin while attending a lovefeast in Leeds; and having sorrowed after a godly sort, he was enabled to believe with the heart unto righteousness. His holy zeal for the salvation of others led to his appointment to a class, containing forty members, before he had reached his twentieth year, and also to his employment as a Local-preacher. He entered the ministry in the year 1811. In the pulpit, he was earnest, practical, and powerful. He was a diligent pastor, and carried words of consolation and hope to many suffering and dying people. As an author he wisely endeavoured to impart instruction in the duties of social life, and especially to counsel the young. In 1852 he became a Supernumerary. His last illness was short and painful. During an interval of ease he requested his daughter to leave him for a short time. On her return he said, "I have had a blessed manifestation of the presence of God; words fail to express my peace, my joy; it was heaven come down to earth." He entered into rest at Southport, in the eighty-fifth year of his age, and the sixty-third of his ministry.

(21.) JOHN BROWN (c); who was born, in August, 1838, at Carharrack, in the Gwennap Circuit. Accustomed from a child to attend the Wesleyan-Methodist ministry, he was at a very early age the subject of deep religious impressions. At ten years of age, he was found by his mother weeping in his chamber, with his Bible before him, when he obtained a clear sense of the love of Christ to him, and was enabled to claim God for his Father. As he grew in years his heart expanded in love to the souls of men, until he was constrained to offer himself to preach the Gospel in any part of the missionary field. After spending two years under theological training at Richmond, his constitution not being deemed suitable for the foreign work, he was appointed to a Circuit at home. During his twelve years' ministerial course, he preached a "present, free, and full salvation" with acceptance and success. His zeal and courage in recommending the Saviour in the streets and lanes as well as in the pulpit, his faithfulness in reproving sin, his firmness in contending "for the faith once delivered to the saints," gained for him the reputation of one who was "valiant for the truth;" while his benevolent spirit, guileless simplicity, and manly deportment divested his zeal of any appearance of harshness, and procured him universal good-will. He carried the sunshine of a genial and happy disposition into every social circle which he entered. Though his health had been declining for some months, there were no signs of immediate danger; but an unexpected seizure proved fatal in twenty-six hours. In intervals of consciousness he evinced the calmness of an habitual reliance on his Saviour. He fell asleep in Jesus on July 2nd, 1874, aged nearly thirty-six years, having almost completed the twelfth year of his ministry.

(22.) JAMES MEADMORE; who was born at Blewhenstone, near Ross, in August, 1798, and died at Maiden-Newton, July 11th, 1874. His parents were members of the Established Church, and trained their son according to its tenets. When about seventeen years old he was brought to God, partly through the instrumentality of a remarkable dream, and joined the Wesleyan-Methodist Society. In the year 1824 he was called to the ministry. After labouring diligently and successfully for forty-five years, he became a Supernumerary, and spent the rest of his days in the Dorchester Circuit. He was a man of meek and amiable disposition; his piety, which was deep, was unpretending, and his life blameless and transparent. As a preacher, he was plain, practical, and earnest; and he was favoured by the Head of the Church with many seals to his ministry. In his last affliction he gave striking signs of readiness for the solemn change which awaited him. When asked, "Do you feel the Gospel you have so long preached to others now sustains you?" he returned a cheerful affirmative reply. During his mortal languor he was much comforted in hearing and repeating some well-known portions of our hymns. His decease was preceded by a serene slumber, from which he suddenly awoke, as if to bid a last adieu to this outer world. Without a sigh, his happy spirit took its flight to the Paradise of God, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

2. In Ireland, two; viz.,—

(1.) JOHN CAREY; who was born at Faughart, near Dundalk, in the year 1784. When about fifteen years of age he was deeply convinced of sin, and having sought earnestly God's mercy, was shortly after "justified freely by His grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus." In the year 1809 he was accepted as a candidate for our ministry; his name was placed on the List of Reserve, and in the following year he was appointed to the Newtownlimavaddy Mission. After forty-five years of active service he became a Supernumerary; but in that position he ceased not to labour in the Word and doctrine as his strength permitted, till near the close of life; and the close of that upright, faithful life was singularly peaceful. Just at the last, looking steadily at the members of his family, a bright smile played upon his countenance, and he said, as if listening to the heavenly host, "Such singing! Do you not hear it?" and so fell asleep. He died in Drogheda, on the 2nd of March, 1874, in the ninetieth year of his age, and sixty-fourth of his ministry. He was a man of sterling worth, unobtrusive, cautious, and reliable; a faithful friend, a sincere and earnest Christian, and possessed of great power in prayer. His sermons were remarkable for just exegesis, for plain and faithful dealing with the conscience, and for the accompanying power of the Holy Ghost; and in the discharge of the duties of Superintendent of a Circuit, and Chairman of a District, his wise, patient firmness inspired with confidence all with whom he had to do. The large attendance at his funeral of ministers and members of various Churches showed how much he was esteemed and loved.

(2.) Thomas Meredith; whose birth-place was Cappagh, in the Queen's County. He feared God from his childhood, and, while yet very young, a friend invited him to go with him to a class-meeting; he went, and in that means of grace, which he greatly prized to the end of his life, he learned the way of salvation by faith "which is in Christ Jesus." Some years later, under the influence of a conviction that he was called of God to preach the Word, and encouraged by those who had lovingly watched over him, he offered himself as a candidate for our ministry, and was accepted by the Conference, and appointed to a Circuit in 1828. Thenceforward, for forty years, in the active discharge of the varied duties of a Methodist minister, he maintained an unblemished character. He was a man of sound judgment and of great conscientiousness, was faithful in the performance of all the duties of the ministry, and, walking closely with God, was mighty in prayer, and powerful in appeals to the conscience. His preaching was much owned of God in the conversion of sinners and in the edification of believers. He was somewhat reserved in manner, but was tender and affectionate in spirit, and a faithful and wise friend.

When, on becoming a Supernumerary, he settled in Dublin, he rendered valuable service to the Church as long as any strength was given to him, and was held in high esteem by the people amongst whom he dwelt. In his last illness his sufferings were great, but being graciously sustained and comforted through communion with his faithful Lord, he was enabled to glorify God in the fire, and amongst his latest utterances were strong expressions of confidence in and love to Him who "hath loved us, and hath given Himself for us." As his life had been even and consistent, so he peacefully departed to be "for ever with the Lord," on Thursday, the 23rd of April, 1874, in the seventy-fourth year of his age, and forty-sixth of his ministry.

3. In our Foreign Missions, seven; viz.,—

(1.) Thomas Skelton Dyson, a young missionary of considerable promise, who, after three weeks' illness, died at Port-Mahon, in Spain, September 24th, 1873. He was received as a preacher on trial at the last Conference, and had laboured but a short time in the mission-work to which he had been appointed. The character of his illness prevented a last testimony to his enjoyment of the religion he had lived and preached; but no such testimony was needed by those who knew him. He had commended himself to his own people as well as to the whole community at Port-Mahon, and his death is deeply lamented.

(2.) William Hodgson; who was born in Lancaster, on December 14th, 1807. Having been converted to God, and united in Church-fellowship with the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, he offered himself for our ministry, in 1835, and was accepted. He was appointed to labour in Jamaica, which island, in consequence of the transition of the Negroes from slavery to freedom, was at that period especially interesting in a philanthropic point of view, and claimed and received a more than ordinary share of the sympathy and solicitude of the Christian public of Great Britain. Naturally earnest and thoroughly practical, a warm-hearted Methodist preacher, he devoted himself fully to the work assigned him, giving evidence of being a self-denying, willing labourer in the vineyard of the Lord. He enjoyed the full confidence of his brethren, and in the working of his Circuits shrank from no toil, however hazardous or protracted. Duty with him was paramount. He took an affectionate interest in the welfare of the people of his charge, and by conscientious attention to both the Sabbath and week-day schools under his care, assiduously promoted the education of their children. He possessed a cheerful disposition, and was happy in his work. The salvation of souls was the chief object of his ministry and teaching. A man of faith and prayer, his preaching aimed not at display, but usefulness; and we doubt not that in the great day of account he will be found both to have saved himself and many of those who heard him. His last sickness was brought on by exposure to inclement weather, in the performance of his spiritual and ministerial duties, when but just convalescent from a previous illness. He died in the full triumph of faith, October 8th, 1873, at Kensington, Manchioneal, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and the thirty-ninth of his ministry.

(3.) Henry Wharton; who was born about the year 1820, in the Island of Grenada, in the West Indies. In his very youthful days he came under the gracious influences of the Holy Spirit. He was sent to Scotland for education, and on his return, in 1840, having become the subject of sound conversion to God, he was made a class-leader in the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, of which he had for some time previously been a consistent member. In 1842 he was admitted on trial as a probationer for our ministry, and appointed to labour in the island of St. Vincent. While engaged in these early ministerial duties, his attention was powerfully drawn to the spiritual wants of those tribes of the African race—of which he was a descendant—inhabiting the Western Coast of Africa, and he was at length prompted to offer himself as a missionary to the heathen. In 1846 he was appointed to take charge of the Mission in Kumasi, a post of unusual danger and hardship, where he became familiar with dreadful scenes and deeds of darkness connected with the frequent immolation of human victims. After having laboured acceptably in several Circuits, he was, in 1872, appointed General Superintendent and Chairman of the Gold-Coast District, from which date he entered on a brief period of unusual suffering and trial. Soon after his arrival at Cape-Coast the sickness commenced which eventually terminated his useful life. The disease gradually increased, until his medical adviser insisted on his leaving the Coast by the first homeward steamer, and proceeding on a voyage to Madeira for change of air. The expected steamer was unfortunately two weeks over-due when she arrived, but he then embarked, hoping to recover. Infinite Wisdom, however, had determined to give the earnest and faithful labourer rest, and his spirit passed happily into the heavens, from Madeira, on Saturday, October the 11th, 1873. Mr. Wharton was in disposition amiable, quiet, sincere, and truly pious; he was a loving husband and father, and a faithful friend. As a Christian minister he was unassuming in his manner, a good textuarist, and consequently a good theologian. His sermons were marked by a sincere earnestness and plainness of speech, and abounded in appropriate quotations from the Holy Scriptures. He loved his ministerial duties, and gave himself wholly to them. "The memory of the just is blessed."

(4.) Isaac Whitehouse; who was born in the year 1799, in the county of Stafford. When about twelve years of age he was converted to God, under the ministry of the late Rev. Joseph Womersley, and early began to exert the powers of his renewed nature in efforts to save souls. Believing himself moved by the Holy Ghost, he offered himself for Missionary work, and was accepted by the Conference of 1823. He was appointed to the Island of Jamaica, where he arrived in February, 1824; and well did his subsequent labours, and his constancy in suffering and firmness in enduring cruel opposition, justify the wisdom of the choice that had been made. He despised not the condition of the enslaved people to whom he was sent to preach "the unsearchable riches of Christ;" nor did he refuse to be imprisoned in a loathsome cell to maintain his own liberty to preach Christianity to them, and their right to hear, believe, and confess the Lord Jesus. A man of exemplary stability of character and purpose, he stood in the breach, in behalf of Christian principle and truth, in a time of great civil and religious oppression and persecution. After twenty years' toil in the Mission-field, he laboured with ardour and acceptance in the Circuits to which, in his native country, he was from time to time appointed. At the Conference of 1846 he returned to the West Indies, where he filled the office of Chairman and General Superintendent in the Bahama District for six years. He occupied in succession several other important spheres of labour till, early in the year 1866, growing infirmities compelled him in part to put off his armour, and retire from the high places of the field which he had before cultivated and watched over with sleepless vigilance. From his place of retirement he was taken to his crown and reward by "the Lord, the righteous Judge," on January 6th, 1874, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(5.) JOHN W. APPLEYARD; who was the son of one of our deceased ministers. He commenced his ministry in 1838, and from that time laboured in South Africa. In 1853 he was appointed to Mount-Coke, and entrusted with the management of the printing establishment, and with the editorial department of our work in the Graham's-Town District. He was characterized by unaffected meekness, gentleness, and love; and possessed in no ordinary degree the esteem of his brethren. It is impossible to overrate Mr. Appleyard's services to Kaffir literature. His large Philosophical Grammar of the Kaffir language, and of its various dialects, has met with the approbation of distinguished European philologists; and his labours as translator of the last edition of the Kaffir Scriptures, and as one of the revisers of the forthcoming edition, were justly regarded by his brethren, and by all other missionaries in Kaffirland, as most valuable and important. He died April 4th, 1874, in great peace,—a fitting close to a faithful and laborious life spent in the Mission cause.

(6.) Joseph Jackson (b); who was born at Lily Fontein, on the Kamies Mountains, in Little Namaqualand, August 27th, 1838. As a child he was characterized by obedience to his parents, and by his love of reading and attention to religious services. When about twelve years of age he was convinced of sin, passed through a season of deep distress, and then through faith in Christ realised peace with God. In his seventeenth year he began to exercise his gifts as a Local-preacher, and his name was eventually placed on the Plan of the Pietermaritzberg Circuit. In the gracious revival of religion with which the Indaleni Circuit was favoured in the year 1859, Mr. Jackson was much interested; and in addition to his school duties, being at the time teacher of the day-school at that place, did much towards its promotion, sometimes spending the greater part of the night in praying with and exhorting the penitents, many of whom obtained salvation. Believing himself called to the work of the ministry, and passing creditably the preparatory examinations, he was recommended by the District Meeting to the Conference of 1859, and was approved. He subsequently laboured in several Circuits with great acceptance. In 1866, by the consent of the Missionary Committee, he visited England, where his pulpit and platform addresses were highly appreciated. On his return to Natal he again occupied important stations, labouring to the full measure of his strength until a severe attack of fever, accompanied with painful and dangerous aggravations, brought his valuable life to a close. He suffered much, but it was evident that in him patience had its "perfect work," and his trust in God was unshaken. His piety was deep and uniform. The qualities of his mind, while not of the highest order, were of such a kind as fitted him for great usefulness in the Church. As a preacher, his praise is in all our Colonial churches, and as a pastor he was faithful and assiduous. He passed away to his eternal reward, on Good Friday, April 3rd, 1874, in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the fifteenth of his ministry.

(7.) DAVID DE SILVA; who was born in 1817, at Belligam, a southern port of Ceylon, at which two of Dr. Coke's companions landed on their arrival in that Island. The father of David de Silva was pundit to many of our earliest missionaries, and the teacher's son was thus brought into association with the pioneers of our Singhalese work. David de Silva was converted in his youth at Seedua, under the ministry of the Rev. Thomas Kilner, and ever retained the joy of his acceptance with God. He began to preach at seventeen years of age. His powers of insight and his intellectual gifts were of a superior order, and careful cultivation added greatly to their value. By long-continued study in the sacred books of Buddhism, in association with the late Rev. Daniel John Gogerly, he attained a high rank as a Pali scholar. As an expounder of Buddhistic philosophy he had no equal in the native ministry of Ceylon, and his eminent power in controversy made him a centre of widening usefulness. The productions of David de Silva's pen are found in many departments of Christian literature and general knowledge, and in them he has left enduring proofs of his wide research, minute observation, and kindliness of heart. The hymns of his composition will probably be sung by the congregations of Ceylon as long as the Singhalese language endures. In preaching the Gospel he displayed his rich endowments to great advantage; he was "an eloquent man, and mighty in the Scriptures." His pastoral duties were fulfilled with affectionate conscientiousness; and he is remembered both by his brethren and our people as "a burning and a shining light." The life of this servant of Christ was closed in Colombo after a brief illness, which was but the final development of a malady from which he had long suffered: many hours and days of pain were endured without one word of distrust or murmuring. He always spoke of having unshaken faith in God, and said he was undisturbed by any assaults of Satan. On the last day of the old year he received, with his children and friends, the Lord's Supper, and manifested much solemn feeling on the occasion. When the words were quoted in prayer, "The blood of Jesus Christ, His Son, cleanseth us from all sin," he earnestly responded, "It does." His mind was evidently clear and strong on the last evening of his life; he showed that he joined in spirit while his soul was commended to God, and that he was resting in peaceful faith on the Atonement of Christ. Later at night, his own translation, in the Singhalese, of his favourite hymn,— was sung by those standing around his couch, when, with his remaining strength, he raised his hand in sign of triumph, and motioned to his daughter to keep it lifted until the strain, so full of faith and joy, was ended. Thus our loved and gifted brother passed away from earth to join the ranks of the "first-born" above. He died in the fifty-seventh year of his age, after thirty-three years of consecrated service in his Master's cause.

Q. V. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Ministers, or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VI. What persons, who were in full Connexion with the Conference, have now CEASED TO BE RECOGNISED as Ministers among us?

A. 1. JOHN T. PATEY and SAMUEL H. PINK.

2. JOSEPH ADAMS, THOMAS CLOSE, WILLIAM SHAW KAMA, NEHEMIAH SMITH, and WILLIAM C. WEBB, who have voluntarily retired from our work.

Q. VII. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.,—

[N.B.—Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively from 1 to 749, is the head of a Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent.

The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every one of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.]

5. The Conference adopts the following rules in relation to the Schools :—

(1.) Considering that the age at which the boys have been accustomed to leave school is the most important and valuable for the purposes of education, it is agreed that none shall henceforth be admitted into the Schools under nine years of age, and that they may remain the usual term of six years. Should parents prefer it, their sons may be admitted at ten years, and remain until sixteen years of age.

(2.) In any case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Schools' Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year.

(3.) In all cases of an additional year being granted, on payment, to boys who have not been at school six years, the sum of £25 shall be paid, which sum shall be inclusive of the £6 6*s*. from the Children's Fund; but in all cases of a request for a year additional to the six years, the payment shall be £30, inclusive of the £6 6*s*. These payments shall be due in four instalments immediately after each quarter day. In all cases of request for an additional year, the Committee shall be satisfied that the character and diligence of the applicants are such as to render their return to the School advantageous to the other boys.

N.B.—The regulations contained in the foregoing paragraphs (2 and 3) apply to daughters (after four years), as well as to sons.

(4.) In future, the Competition for Scholarships and Medals shall be restricted to those boys who have not been more than six years at one of the Schools.

(5.) For the convenience of the officers of the Fund, the payment for education to both boys and girls shall commence at nine years instead of eight years, and be continued until fifteen years; the ninth year to be reckoned from the Christmas before payment.

6. Application for the admission of daughters to the Schools now established for them, must be made, as in the case of boys, through the District Meetings; and the allowances for those who are admitted shall not be claimed by the parents as heretofore from the Schools' and Children's Funds. The parents of boys in the Schools are also specially cautioned not to claim for them from the Children's Fund, much confusion having arisen in some cases from inattention to this rule.

7. The Conference directs that a certificate of health, signed by a medical practitioner, shall be required at the commencement of each term, in the case of all boys and girls received into, or returning to, our Connexional Schools.

8. The Conference adopts the following regulations in relation to the Schools for girls:—

(1.) That until as ample provision be made for the Connexional education of the daughters as for the sons of our Ministers, no girl shall be received into the Schools under twelve years of age, and that the time of continuance in the Schools be restricted to four years.

(2.) That in future each applicant be required to pass a preliminary examination, in subjects to be hereafter agreed upon, before admission to the Schools.

IMPROVEMENTS IN THE MANAGEMENT OF NEW KINGSWOOD AND WOODHOUSE GROVE SCHOOLS.

The Conference, on receiving the Report of the Special Committee appointed to act in this matter, adopted the following Resolutions :—

1. That the Resolutions 4, 5, 6 of the Conference of 1873 (see Minutes, p. 196) be suspended, with the exception of the first clause of Resolution 4, and that no further action be taken in connection with the Resolutions thus suspended until they have been again brought before the Conference.

2. That a Committee be appointed to consider more fully the question of concentrating the Schools in one locality, and report to the next Conference.

3. That at the commencement of the next School year, viz., in July, 1875, there shall come into effect the concentration of the system of education in the two Schools (see Minutes, 1873, p. 196, Resolution 4), and the application of the general principles of the New Scheme of Management, which received the general approval of the Conference of 1873, (p. 196, Resolution 7) ; the most important of those principles being :—

(1.) That the Management of the School or Schools shall be in the hands of one Governing Body ;

(2.) That the direction of the education shall be vested in one Head Master, subject to the Governing Body ;

(3.) That in the place of two Schools there shall be one School in two departments, a Higher and a Lower;

(4.) That the Higher School shall be bifurcated into a Classical and a Modern School.

4. That New Kingswood be taken for the older, and Woodhouse-Grove for the younger, boys.

5. That from and after July, 1875, the travelling expenses of the boys shall be defrayed out of a common Fund, on a scale to be fixed from time to time by the Governing Body, this Fund being raised by an equal charge upon every Parent for each boy whom he has at the School.

6. That as the changes resolved on by the Conference will not take effect until July, 1875, the Governing Body of the School shall not be at once appointed, but a Special Committee shall be appointed, which shall, during the ensuing year, have the powers of a Governing Body, so far as concerns the making of all needful preparations for initiating the new system of education in the School agreed on in No. 3 of the foregoing Resolutions; and that this Committee shall mature and present to the next Conference a scheme for the constitution of the Governing Body, the definition of its functions, and the general management of the School.

7. That to this Committee shall be referred the questions relating to the Schools' and Children's Funds, which the Conference of 1873 referred to a Special Committee (Minutes, p. 196, Resolution 8), power being given to this Committee to obtain from Circuits such information in relation to these Funds, and their bearing upon Circuit affairs, as may be deemed necessary.

8. That the Committee appointed by the second of the foregoing Resolutions shall consist of the members of this Special Committee, together with six members to be chosen by each of the Local Committees of New Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove Schools, the election to be made at the first Meeting of each Local Committee after the Conference.

The following Ministers and Gentlemen are appointed the Special Committee above referred to; viz. :—The President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-

President, the General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Schools' and Children's Funds; together with—

Rev. William Arthur,
—— John Bedford,
—— Henry H. Chettle,

BOOK AFFAIRS.

Q. XIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the affairs of the Book-Room?

A. 1. In accordance with the recommendations of the Book-Committee of Review, the Conference resolves as follows:—

(1.) The Conference adopts the Report of the London Book Committee, and in doing so expresses its high gratification with the official communications made to it bearing upon the increased circulation of Methodist literature both at home and abroad during the past year; and while rejoicing in the marked advance of Methodist Publications as to style and attractiveness, more especially expresses its gratification at their extended circulation among the masses of the people by good cheap editions.

(2.) The Conference presents its thanks to the Rev. Daniel Sanderson and the Rev. George Bowden for the minute and careful examination made by them, showing that Methodist Publications will compare favourably, both in style and price, with similar publications by other establishments; and authorises the circulation of their Report through the press as far as may be deemed desirable.

(3.) The Conference approves the general basis of the New Hymn-Book, as presented by the Book-Committee, and authorises its complete preparation and publication with all convenient speed.

(4.) With a view to the complete and final preparation of the New Hymn-Book, the following Ministers shall be associated with the Members of the London Book-Committee, to meet with them for consultation and decision upon its contents as soon as further suggestions for that object shall have been obtained, such further suggestions to be forwarded to the Secretary of the Book-Committee by the end of September next:—viz., a Representative from Ireland, to be chosen by the Representatives of the Irish Conference; the Revs. Frederick W. Briggs, Richard Brown (A), Joseph Bush, Samuel W. Christophers, Samuel Coley, Dr. William Davies, John D. Geden, Frederic Greeves, John Hartley, John Harvard, Joseph Heaton, Benjamin Hellier, Henry W. Holland, Dr. Lyth, James A. Macdonald, Joshua Mason, Alexander M'Aulay, Thomas M'Cullagh, William B. Pope, Frederick E. Toyne, and John Walton.

(5.) In order to give timely notice of the issue of the New Hymn-Book, and to afford opportunity to arrange more conveniently for it, either the old or the New Hymn-Book may be used in public worship among us until January 1st, 1876, by which date it is hoped that the New Hymn-Book may be in general use in our congregations.

(6.) To facilitate the introduction of the New Hymn-Book in our congregations, the Conference directs that the New Supplement shall be sold separately at first.

(7.) The Conference presents its special thanks to the Rev. Dr. Jobson for his management of the affairs of the Book-Room, which has been marked by distinguished fidelity, prudence, and ability, as well as by great zeal and energy.

(8.) The Conference directs the London Book-Committee to consider during the year, and report to the next Conference, as to whether it is not desirable to reduce the number of members of the Book-Committee, and in what manner it may be best effected.

2. The London Book-Committee shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Editors, the Secretary of the Book-Committee, the Missionary Secretaries, the Principals of the two Branches of the Normal Training Institution, the Governor and the Tutors of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the Rev. Dr. Moulton, the Secretary for Home Missions, the Secretary of the Education Committee, the Visitor of Day and Sunday Schools, the Principal of the Children's Home, the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe, the Superintendents of the London Circuits, and the following additional members chosen from Ministers in London and the Metropolitan District; namely, Rev. Messrs. Thomas Akroyd, John Baker, M.A., William Gibson, B.A., Mark G. Pearse, Luke Tyerman, Henry W. Williams, and Robert N. Young.

The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee for the ensuing year. Letters should be addressed to him at Selborne Villa, Wickham-road, Lewisham-road, London, S.E.

3. The Methodist Tract-Committee shall consist of Ministers to be appointed by the London Book-Committee.—The Rev. Mark G. Pearse is appointed the Secretary. Communications for this department should be addressed to him at 45, Grosvenor-road, Highbury, London, N.

4. The General Book-Committee, which is appointed to meet at the next Conference, shall consist of the President, the Secretary, the Ex-Presidents, and all the members of the London Book-Committee who shall be duly authorised to attend the Conference, with the—

Rev. William Andrews,
—— John H. Beech,

5. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Benjamin Frankland, B.A., and the Rev. Benjamin Gregory, for the diligent, faithful, and able manner in which they have fufilled their editorial duties during the past year.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer, the Secretary of the London Book-Committee, and to the Rev. Mark G. Pearse, the Secretary of the Methodist Tract-Committee, for their valuable services in their respective offices.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. XV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to Chapel Affairs?

A. 1. The Conference cordially adopts the Resolutions of the Committee of Review, held in Camborne, on Monday, July 27th, 1874; and directs that those Resolutions, and an Abstract of the Report then read, be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. IV.)

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. The Conference receives with satisfaction the returns of accommodation provided in Wesleyan-Methodist Places of Worship, which have been obtained and tabulated under the direction of the General Chapel Committee, and requests that the results be published in the Annual Report of that Committee, and in any other form that may appear desirable.

4. The Conference directs that if, in any case to which a Connexional Committee has paid a Grant or Loan towards the cost of erecting a Chapel on condition that no debt shall be left except a Loan or Loans repayable without interest, any other debt be contracted without the sanction of the Committee advancing the Loan, and of the General Chapel Committee, the particulars of such debt and the circumstances which occasioned it, shall be reported to the ensuing Annual Meeting of the District in which such Chapel is situated, and a record of the action taken thereon by the said District Meeting shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

5. Mr. Samuel R. Healey, of Liverpool, and Mr. Richard Haworth, of Manchester, are re-appointed the Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

6. The Rev. William Edwards and the Rev. Edwin H. Tindall are re-appointed the General Secretaries of the Chapel Committee.

HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee of Management, and of the Army and Navy Committee, and directs that the Resolutions passed by the General Committee, and the Returns from the Army and Reserve forces, be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendixes, Nos. VI. and XI.)

2. The Conference is thankful to Almighty God for the continued success of our Home-Mission work, and for the results of our ministrations to Wesleyans in the Army and the Royal Navy; and is gratified to find that in many of the claimant Circuits the allowances to our ministers have been improved, though in many others they are still insufficient. It views with much encouragement the steady increase of the annual income of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, and it trusts that more extended practical sympathy will be manifested with this important and necessary work.

3. That, recognising the importance of the resolutions adopted by the Special Committee of Management, as contained in the Home-Mission Report, and the need of greater exertions in behalf of our Home-Mission work, the Conference, in addition to its repeated and urgent recommendations, now directs the Superintendents of Circuits to take care that as many public Home-Missionary Meetings be held annually in our Chapels as may be possible, and that every effort be made that these Meetings be efficiently arranged and conducted.

4. The Conference instructs the Financial District Meetings to arrange, with all possible care, for the due holding of Home-Missionary Meetings in the several Circuits; to do everything in their power to encourage the formation of Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations; and to promote a more general canvass for subscriptions to the annual income of the Fund.

5. The Conference recommends that in every Circuit a Home-Missionary Committee and a Secretary be appointed to promote in detail systematic efforts to increase the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

6. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—The Conference is glad to know that there has been a gratifying increase in the number of Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations during the year, and it entertains the hope that these useful Associations—aiding at once our Home and Foreign Missions—will be established in all our Circuits.

The Conference is decidedly of opinion, that wherever sums, large or small, are collected avowedly for the Foreign or Home Missions, the whole amount should be remitted to the Treasurers of these Funds respectively, to be administered under the direction of their Committees; and that sums so remitted to the Home-Mission Fund should entitle a Circuit to favourable consideration, if it request a grant for any effort within its boundaries which may be a legitimate object for the application of moneys collected for Home-Missions. (Minutes, 1863.)

On this subject the following modification has been made:—

In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home-Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home-Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation shall be allowed:—

One-third of the sums received by Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations, to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, "it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years:"

One-third to the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund:

One-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home-Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting.

In all other cases the former Minute of the Conference remains in force.

7. The Conference deems it expedient to reprint the following Rule from the Minutes of 1797:—

"That all bills for the support of travelling preachers and their families, in respect to deficiencies, house-rent, fire, candles, sickness, travelling expenses, and all other matters of a temporal kind for their support, for which the Circuits cannot provide, shall first meet with the approbation of the Quarterly Meeting, and be signed by the General Steward of the Circuit,* before they can be brought to the District Committee."

8. Home-Mission Regulations.—Each Home-Missionary Minister is directed, with the concurrence of the Superintendent Minister, to forward with his Journal, signed as now by the Superintendent, to the General Secretary, for the information of the Committee, a copy of the Circuit-Plan; and a quarterly statement of the number of full and accredited Church-members, and of persons on trial, in connection with the place or places specially assigned to him as his Mission-District.

9. Mr. John Vanner and the Rev. John W. Greeves are re-appointed the Treasurers; the Rev. Charles Prest, the General Secretary; and the Rev. John Bond, Secretary. The Committee, which shall meet before the next Conference, shall consist of the Committee of Management, and the

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the Auxiliary Fund?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report and Resolutions of the Committee, and directs that they be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. VIII.)

2. In accordance with the suggestion contained in the third resolution, the Conference recommends that in all our Chapels where only one Collection is made on behalf of the Theological Institution, on the same day a second Collection should be made on behalf of the Auxiliary Fund, except where a collection for this object is already made.

The Conference further directs that this recommendation should be made the subject of conversation at the next Financial District Meetings.

3. Mr. John Napier and the Rev. John Rattenbury are requested to continue in the office of Treasurers; and the Rev. Henry H. Chettle to continue in that of Secretary.

4. The following persons are appointed the Committee for the ensuing year; who shall superintend the general working of this Fund, and also consider and decide upon such peculiar cases of affliction or distress, among the Supernumerary Ministers or Ministers' Widows, as may be recommended by the District Committees for special and occasional relief:—

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. The Conference resolves that the Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry shall in future be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury respectively.

2. That the two Sections of this Committee be constituted as follows:—

(1.) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents resident in London, the Secretaries of the Wesleyan-Methodist Missionary Society (one excepted), the Tutors and Governor of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, the General Secretary of the Theological Institution, the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; the Connexional Editors; the Secretary of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Revs. Dr. Rigg, Dr. Moulton, and Jacob Stephenson, B.A.; together with twelve other Ministers of the two London Districts, six of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(2.) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the Ex-President of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; one of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches of the Theological Institution; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. John S. Banks; together with twenty Ministers of the Liverpool and Manchester Districts, ten of whom shall be annually elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

3. That Candidates from the Liverpool and Manchester Districts shall be summoned to the Southern Examination, and Candidates from the First and Second London Districts to the Northern Examination: all other Candidates shall be summoned at the discretion of the General Examination Secretaries, with due regard to the cost of travelling.

4. That two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows:—one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Committee of each of the two London Districts from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, three of whom shall be chosen by the District Committees of the Liverpool and the Manchester Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

5. That the Literary Examination Paper for the Examination be prepared in succession by the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of each of the three Branches of the Theological Institution; and that the Theological Paper for the Examination be prepared in succession by each of the three Theological Tutors of the said three Branches.

6. That the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Richmond Branch be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and that the Classical and Mathematical Tutors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

7. That the Examiners of the Papers in Theology written by the Candidates shall be appointed as follows:—each of the before-named Districts shall appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of its two Sections.

8. The Rev. John Clulow and the General Secretary of the Theological Institution are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee for this year.

9. The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution and the Rev. Jacob Stephenson, B.A., are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch, and the Rev. John S. Banks, to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

10. The Conference repeats its direction of last year, that arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by one Minister of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee, such Minister to forward his Report to the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of Wesleyan Education?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report and Resolutions of the Education Committee of Review, held in Camborne, on Friday, July 24th, 1874; and directs that they be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix, No. X.)

2. With a view to the completion of the educational arrangements of Methodism in conformity with the first Resolution of the Committee of Review, by the provision in various parts of the country, and under Methodist management, of Schools for boys and girls of the middle classes, so organized as to furnish suitable instruction by the best methods and on moderate terms; the Conference instructs the Education Committee to consider whether such schools can be provided, and to report the result of their deliberations to the next Conference.

3. The Conference receives the Report of the Special Meeting of Ministers and laymen, held on April 14th and 15th, 1874, in accordance with a Resolution of the last Conference, to consider the Scheme for the formation of a Connexional Sunday-School Union. The Conference also receives various Resolutions relating to the said Union, which are submitted by the Education Committee; and agrees to the formation of a Connexional Sunday-School Union, which shall be under the general management of the Education Committee, in such manner as it may determine, in harmony with the following plan; viz:—

(1) That the Objects of the Connexional Sunday-School Union shall be as follows:—

I. To promote the development of the Sunday-School system, with the special design of securing greater spiritual results, and the gathering of Sunday-scholars into the Wesleyan-Methodist Society.

II. To promote a closer sympathy and relationship between the School, the Society, and the Ministry.

III. To promote union and co-operation among Wesleyan-Methodist Sunday-Schools in the several Circuits, and to encourage the Connexional element in the character and working of such Schools.

IV. To promote the establishment of Wesleyan-Methodist Sunday-Schools, and the formation of Circuit Unions, wherever practicable.

V. To supply Teachers with such aid and information as shall tend to the more efficient instruction of their classes.

VI. To collect and give information respecting the best methods for the organization and management of Wesleyan-Methodist Sunday-Schools.

VII. To obtain, record, and supply statistical details as to the condition of our Sunday-Schools.

VIII. To render aid in the supply of suitable Schoolbooks and appliances, and of books for rewards and libraries.

IX. To promote such other purposes as experience and observation may, in the future, suggest for the benefit of the Sunday-Schools of the Connexion.

(2.) That it is desirable to establish in connection with the Union, as soon as convenient, a Connexional Central Agency, provided with sale and show-rooms, library, reading-room, and other appliances, in some suitable locality in or near the City, besides a warehousing and wholesale department at the Book-Room.

(3.) That it is also desirable to establish, as may be found practicable, (i) Sub-Centres of the Union in Metropolitan districts, which may include provision for Teachers' reading-rooms and libraries, and model-lessons: and (ii) Provincial Centres, which may include Teachers' reading-rooms and libraries, provision for model-lessons, and depôts for the sale of Sunday-School publications.

(4.) That the Union shall be empowered to make grants in aid of the outfit of such Sub-Centres and Provincial Centres.

(5.) That the Union shall direct special attention to the preparation and provision of Sunday-School Lesson-Books, and general Sunday-School literature, periodical and otherwise.

(6.) That the Union shall supply books, stationery, and apparatus suited to Sunday-Schools, at reduced prices.

(7.) That the publications of the Connexional Sunday-School Union shall be under the direction of a Sub-Committee of the Education Committee, in the constitution of which Sub-Committee the Book-Steward and the Connexional Editors shall be included as ex-officio members, together with certain selected members of the Book Committee; also, that in conjunction with the Secretary of the Education Committee, or any Minister who may be appointed by the Conference to act as the Secretary to the Sunday-School Union, the Connexional Editors shall be responsible to the Conference for the publications of the Union, and shall be regarded as representing this department in the Book Committee.

(8.) The Conference approves the following arrangements, which have been agreed upon between the Education Committee and the Book Committee: viz.,—

That inasmuch as the proportion of new business which the Connexional Sunday-School Union will bring to the Book-Room cannot be ascertained at present, it is inexpedient to conclude a permanent agreement between the Union and the Book Committee; but that until the Conference of 1876 the Connexional Sunday-School Union shall be entitled upon all sales at its Central Depôt, both of such books as are the property of the Book-Room, and of all other books, to discounts agreed upon; together with a contribution, at a prescribed rate, upon the annual amount of Book-Room sales of Sunday-School publications and supplies of books to Sunday-Schools, so far as that amount shall exceed that of such sales and supplies for the year ending Midsummer, 1873.

(9.) The Conference resolves that admission to the advantages of the Union shall be by subscription; (1) On the part of separate Schools, of a minimum payment of 5*s.*; (2) On the part of Circuit Unions for connected Schools, of a minimum average payment of 4*s.* per School per annum in Unions containing not less than five such Schools. Schools subscribing, either separately or through their Circuit Unions, shall be entitled to library grants, and such other advantages as the Union can afford.

(10.) The Conference empowers the Connexional Sunday-School Union to promote the occasional holding of meetings for conference on Sunday-School topics in convenient centres.

(11.) The Conference adopts the following proposals which have been submitted to it by the Education Committee:—

i. That the Rev. John Clulow be appointed to act under the direction of the Education Committee in the visitation of Day and Sunday Schools, and as the Secretary of the Connexional Sunday-School Union.

ii. That the Education Committee shall appoint a lay Assistant-Secretary, to act under the direction of the Secretary in the work of the Union, whose duties shall include sub-editorial work, attention to Union finance, Sunday-School statistics, correspondence, and oversight of the Central Agency.

(12.) The Conference sanctions an application to the Connexion for the funds required to defray the initial expenses of the Union, including the outfit of the Central Agency; and anticipates that the subsequent annual cost of such an agency, and the annual expenditure of the Union, will be provided for by a Fund to be derived from the following sources: (1.) Subscriptions of School Committees, Sunday-School Unions, and of private friends; (2) an annual grant from the General Education Fund; (3) any profits which may accrue from the sales of the Central Agency; and (4) payments from the Book Committee in accordance with the arrangements between it and the Education Committee already adopted by the Conference.

(13.) The Conference directs that a separate account of income and expenditure on behalf of the Connexional Sunday-School Union shall be kept, and annually published by the Education Committee.

4. The Conference commends the Connexional Sunday-School Union to the hearty sympathy of the Ministers and of the Connexion at large, and trusts that such co-operation and financial support will be afforded to this undertaking as will contribute to render it of much advantage to the Sunday-School work of the Connexion.

5. The Conference directs that the Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit be read in the March Quarterly Meeting, but that if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics and for inquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and inquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

6. The Conference directs that the Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the Education Secretary of the District, not later than April 10th.

7. The Conference directs all who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises, for the establishment of new Schools, to communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

8. (1.) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act of 1870 by the Lords of the Committee of Council, to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing, the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto:—the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.—(2.) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.—(3.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees without their being required to reimburse any money laid out by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

9. The Rev. Dr. Rigg is re-appointed Principal of the Training College, Westminster.

10. The Rev. Theophilus Woolmer and Mr. Isaac

HOYLE are re-appointed the Treasurers; and the REV. GEORGE O. BATE is re-appointed the Secretary.

N.B. All communications on Education affairs are to be addressed to the REV. GEORGE O. BATE, Wesleyan Training College, Horseferry-Road, Westminster, S.W.

11. The Education Committee shall consist of the following persons; viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Treasurers and the Secretary of the Committee; the Principals of the two Branches of the Normal Institution; the Visitor of Day and Sunday Schools; the Principal of the Children's Home; the Book Steward; the Connexional Editors;—

12. The Conference resolves that the following addition shall be made to question XLI. in the Order and Form of Business in District Meetings:—"Has any Wesleyan Day-School been discontinued, or transferred to other Management, since the last May District Meeting; and if so, have the directions of the Conference relating thereto been observed?"

13. The Education Committee of Review shall meet in Sheffield, on the Friday preceding the next Conference, and in addition to the Committee above-named shall consist of so many of the District Education Secretaries as shall have permission to attend the ensuing Conference; thirty Ministers and thirty Laymen from the Sheffield, Manchester, Halifax and Bradford, Leeds, Nottingham and Derby, Lincoln, Hull, and York Districts, to be selected by the Education Committee; together with those Gentlemen who may be chosen by the Lay Members of the District Committees at the May District Meetings in Great Britain, to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund Committee, preparatory to the Conference.

14. The Conference resolves that No. V. of the General Rules of Sunday-Schools, printed in the Minutes of Conference 1873, be re-worded as follows:—

"The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside in the Annual Meeting (Rule IV.); also in all meetings of the Committee, and in all meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If, either at an Annual Meeting or at a meeting of the Committee, no Minister is present, the meeting shall appoint one of the officers of the Institution to act as its Chairman. If at any Teachers' meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside."

HIGHER EDUCATION.

Q. XXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee on HIGHER EDUCATION?

A. 1. The Conference appoints the following Ministers and Gentlemen a Committee to carry out the suggestions on the improvement of Wesleyan-Methodist Trust-Property in Oxford, which were adopted by the Conference of 1873 (See Minutes, pp. 237, 362), viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., Benjamin Frankland, B.A., Frederic Greeves, John W. Greeves, John Hearnshaw, Dr. James, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Dr. Moulton, George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Rigg, William F. Slater, Dr. Stamp, T. Bowman Stephenson, B.A., and Robert N. Young; with Messrs. J. S. Budgett, T. P. Bunting, J. C. Clark, M.P., William Edmunds, Henry French, B.A., Thomas Hazlehurst, Elkanah Healey, Isaac Hoyle, Sir Francis Lycett, Alexander M'Arthur, M.P., W. M'Arthur, M.P., J. H. Mason, William Mewburn, J. Ryder, J. R. Symm, J. Vanner, and C. Vinter.

The REV. G. W. OLVER, B.A., is appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

2. The Conference gives permission to this Committee to contemplate the erection of a New Chapel in Oxford, should the Committee be convinced that such erection is desirable; and authorizes the REV. DR. STAMP and the REV. FREDERIC GREEVES to solicit contributions for the purpose of the improvements that may be resolved upon.

3. The Conference refers to the same Committee the consideration of the statements and proposals relating to the Cambridge Circuit, which have been laid before the Committee on Higher Education.

4. The Conference hereby requests the President to give notice in writing, under his hand, to the Trustees appointed by the Deed of August 30th, 1872, or to some two of them, that the Conference directs such Trustees, on payment to them of the moneys specified by such Deed, to convey the Property vested in them by such Deed to such persons and upon such Trusts as are hereinafter named.

5. The Conference directs that the first Governing Body of the intended School shall consist of the persons named in the 10th article of the Report of the Special Committee on Higher Education, presented to, and generally approved by, the Conference of 1873; and authorizes and directs the Rev. W. Arthur, M.A., and the Rev. George W. Olver, B.A., to take measures for the immediate constitution of such Governing Body.

6. The persons to whom the Property shall be conveyed, as the Trustees thereof, shall be twenty in number, and shall be such persons, whether or not members of the Governing Body, as shall be elected at the first meeting of the Governing Body by a majority of the Governors present, and shall subsequently be approved by the President, Secretary, and Ex-President of the Conference, or the majority of them. Ten of such Trustees shall be in full connexion with the Conference, and ten shall be Laymen.

7. The Property shall be held on such Trusts as shall be consistent with the General Trusts declared by the said Deed of August 30th, 1872, and as shall be determined on by the Governing Body or a majority of them, and as shall subsequently be approved in the manner before mentioned. (The Trusts declared by the Deed of 30th August, 1872, are "any Trusts for Educational or other purposes, all such Trusts to be connected with and under the direction of the said Conference and for their own Connexional purposes only, and no other.")

8. Subject to the preceding Resolutions, the Conference consents to, such modifications of the General Plan of the proposed School submitted to and generally approved by it in 1873 being incorporated in the Trust Deed, as shall be adopted by the Governing Body, and as shall subsequently be so approved as before mentioned.

9. For the purposes of these Resolutions, the Governing Body shall be considered as complete before it shall be fully constituted by the election of one member of it by the Resident Masters of the School.

10. The Conference appoints the Rev. Dr. Moulton, for this year, to promote the objects of the scheme for Higher Education at Cambridge.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME.

Q. XXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the Children's Home?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Children's Home, and expresses its thankfulness for the success which has attended the operations of this Institution. It approves the proposed establishment of a certified Industrial School as a Branch of the Home, and commends this growing work to the increased liberality and earnest prayers of the Christian public.

2. The Conference is gratified to hear that premises have been secured in London, which, with the proposed alterations and additions, will provide the accommodation needed for the chief office of the Institution, as well as for the London Branch; and expresses its earnest hope that the Special Fund of £10,000 required to complete this provision, will be speedily raised by those who feel the claims of orphan and destitute children.

3. The Conference directs that this property shall be settled upon the same trusts as those declared with respect to the property belonging to the Children's Home at Edgeworth, and appoints as Trustees the Ministers and Gentlemen whose names have been submitted to it.

4. The Conference approves the following list of the Committee of Management for the next year:—

The President,	Rev. Walter Vercoe,
The Secretary,	—— Theophilus Woolmer;
The Ex-President,	Mr. Henry Avis,
Rev. George O. Bate,	Mr. T. Barlow,
—— John H. Beech,	Mr. Alfred Bentley,
—— George Bowden,	Mr. Isaac Hoyle,
—— John Burgess,	Mr. C. F. Jepps,
—— Charles Garrett,	Mr. C. Johnson,
—— Benjamin Gregory,	Mr. F. Longstaff,
—— Dr. James,	Mr. Horace Marshall,
—— Charles H. Kelly,	Mr. J. H. Mason,
—— George Maunder,	Mr. Charles Poulton,
—— George W. Olver,	Mr. J. Radmall,

RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXIV. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Lord's-Day Committee?

A. 1. The Conference has received with interest the Report of this Committee, and approves of its action in resisting the proposal to open, by legislative enactment, Public Museums, Libraries, and kindred institutions on Sundays: it further records its satisfaction that the Connexion has so generally responded to the call to petition Parliament for the entire closing of public-houses on the Lord's Day, and earnestly trusts that our people will continue to use every effort within their power to suppress that most demoralising form of Sabbath desecration, the traffic in intoxicating drinks.

2. The Conference, deeply impressed with the fact that the profanation of the Lord's Day is a great and grievous evil in the country, again earnestly recommends our Societies and congregations to maintain the utmost fidelity to its requirements, and by conscientious abstinence from secular engagements and unnecessary travelling, and by a careful attention to religious duties, to seek to obtain for themselves, and to extend to others, the blessings which this Divine institution is designed to secure.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. George Maunder and the Rev. John Baker, M.A., for their services during the past year, and they are re-appointed the Secretaries of the Lord's-Day Committee for the ensuing year.

The following Ministers and Gentlemen shall be the Committee for the next year:—The President and the Secretary of the Conference; the Ex-President; the Secretaries;

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XXV. What directions does the Conference give concerning the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL?

A. 1. The Conference resolves,—

(1.) That the Examination of Preachers on trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2.) That in addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, two General Examination Secretaries be appointed from among Ministers stationed in the same town.

(3.) That arrangements be made, at each Financial District Meeting, for a Central Examination of Preachers on trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, they shall be defrayed either from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, or from the Theological Institution Fund, as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4.) That at each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and that the District Secretary be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5.) That the Examination take place throughout the Connexion on the same day in the first week of April.

(6.) That the Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7.) That the Probationers' Papers be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and that each Examiner send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable.

(8.) That the General Secretaries compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the reading of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on trial in the District as he may think desirable.

(9.) That the General Secretaries prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on trial.

2. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee; viz., the Theological and Classical Tutors of the three Branches of the Theological Institution, the two General Examination Secretaries, the Rev. W. F. Moulton, D.D., and the Rev. George W. Olver, B.A. The Rev. Dr. Moulton is re-appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

3. The Rev. John Wood, B.A., and the Rev.

George O. Bate are re-appointed the two General Examination Secretaries.

4. The following are the subjects of Examination for the year 1874—5; viz.,—

The Thanks of the Conference are respectfully presented for the following very acceptable Donations and Legacies to the Funds of the Society, viz.,—Donation on Annuity, by Mr. Peter Ranger, of £800; Donation by Mrs. Bailey, of Frome, of £2,500; The Methodist Newspaper Company, for the "Watchman" and "Recorder," £100; A Lady, by Dr. Jobson, £50; A Friend, by the Rev. Robert Davidson, M.A., £25; Rev. John Hay, £25; Mrs. Eliza Wilson, Wetherby, £5. Legacy of the late Mr John Fernley, £500; Mr. Pond, of Weston-super-Mare, £50.

DEPUTATION FROM THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

The Conference records the satisfaction with which it has listened to the Address of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States of America, presented by its Representatives, Bishop Harris and the Rev. Dr. M'Cauley. The expressions of fraternal feeling which it contains have served to strengthen the bond that has long existed between the American Episcopal Church and the Wesleyan Methodists of this country,—a bond which it is a mutual Christian joy, from time to time, in this way to recognise. The personal greetings and communications of the distinguished Ministers by whom the Address has been conveyed have also been most welcome, and will cause them to be long remembered by the Conference with affection and esteem.

RESOLUTIONS RESPECTING TEMPERANCE.

The Conference agrees to the following Resolutions:—

1. That the influence of Wesleyan Methodism in opposition to the evils of Intemperance should be consolidated and further developed; and that this may be done in harmony with the acknowledged discipline of the Connexion, and specially with the functions of the Committees of Privileges and Exigency.

2. That any Connexional organization which may be attempted should rest upon a basis which would admit of the hearty co-operation of all persons, whether they be abstainers or non-abstainers.

3. That the following Ministers and Gentlemen be appointed a Committee for the fuller consideration of the details of such an organization, and with instructions to report to the Conference of 1875; viz., the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-President, the Revs. William Arthur, M.A.,

John Bedford, Samuel Coley, John Farrar, Charles Garrett, Joseph Hargreaves, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Dr. Jobson, Alexander M'Aulay, George Maunder, George W. Olver, B.A., Marshall Randles, J. V. B. Shrewsbury, Dr. Stamp, T. Bowman Stephenson, B.A., Luke H. Wiseman, M A.; with Messrs. T. H. Bainbridge, James Barlow, R. B. Brierley, N. B. Downing, R. Haworth, W. Holland, F. Horner, A. M'Arthur, M.P., W. M'Arthur, M.P., T. F. C. May, C. Poulton, Thomas Seaton, T. B. Smithies, S. D. Waddy, M.P., W. T. Whelpton, and J. Wood, Jun.

ARRANGEMENTS RESPECTING THE STATIONING COMMITTEE.

The Conference resolves that, in future, the Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 5th day of July in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of (1) the arrangements provisionally made for the Stationing of Ministers in his District, (2) the invitations accepted by Ministers in his District to Circuits in other Districts, and (3) all Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made;—that from these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, one complete list of all arrangements thus provisionally made, and a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and that a copy of these lists shall be sent to each member of the Stationing Committee at least seven days before the meeting of that Committee.

RE-ARRANGEMENT OF DISTRICTS.

The Conference is deeply sensible of the value of the labour bestowed on this subject by the Committee to which it was specially entrusted, by the several District Meetings in Great Britain, and by the large Committee which met previously to the assembling of the Conference; but regards the practical difficulties connected with it as so great as to render it expedient to defer the consideration of the scheme submitted to it until next year. The Conference further devolves on its President the duty of bringing this subject under the attention of the next Conference.

COMMITTEES OF REVIEW.

The Conference refers the Report presented to it on the constitution of the Committees of Review, to the following Committee; viz., the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Revs. John Bond, George Bowden, Joseph Bush, Samuel Coley, Benjamin Frankland, B.A., Charles Garrett, Frederic Greeves, John W. Greeves, Joseph Hargreaves, George C. Harvard, John Harvard, Charles Haydon, William Hirst, Henry W. Holland, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Featherstone Kellett, Charles H. Kelly, Thomas Llewellyn, Dr. Lyth, Alexander M'Aulay, Thomas M'Cullagh, George W. Olver, B.A., Marmaduke C. Osborn, William B. Pope, William T. Radcliffe, Dr. Rigg, J. V. B. Shrewsbury, T. Bowman Stephenson, B.A., Edwin H. Tindall, Frederick E. Toyne, Henry W. Williams, Theophilus Woolmer, and Robert N. Young.

This Committee shall consider it fully, and submit their Report to the Annual Meetings of the District Committees when the Lay-Members are present; and the Minutes of the several District Meetings thereon shall be sent to the Secretary of the Committee. A further meeting of this Committee shall be held next July, together with the Chairmen of Districts, and the Gentlemen who may be chosen by the Lay-Members of the May District Meetings to attend the Annual Meeting of the Home Mission and Contingent Fund Committee; and the Report of that united Meeting shall be laid before the next Conference.

LAY DELEGATION.

The Conference remits to the Committee appointed to consider the constitution of the Committees of

Review, the subject of Lay Delegation to the Conference, brought before it in several Memorials from Circuits, together with a Resolution of the Irish Conference, and a Memorial from the French Conference, bearing on this question. To the same Committee the Conference remits the consideration of some Memorials from Circuits on the subject of Lay Representation in District Meetings.

MEMORIALS FROM CIRCUITS.

The Conference resolves that, in future, no Memorial can be received from the June Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit, except in manuscript.

CONSTITUTION OF A LEADERS' MEETING.

The Conference adopts the following definition of the constitution of a Leaders' Meeting; viz., that it shall consist of

(1.) The Ministers and Preachers on trial who are appointed to the work of the Circuit.

(2.) The Leaders of the Society, the Society Stewards, the Stewards of the Poor Fund, and any Circuit Steward or Stewards who may be members of that Society.

(3.) In future, when a Secretary is appointed in any Leaders' Meeting, such Secretary must be chosen from among the members of that Meeting.

BOUNDARIES OF CIRCUITS.

Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the Boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the Boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that in such cases copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits. The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

PASTORAL OVERSIGHT OF THE YOUNG.

The Conference remits this subject to the following Committee; viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Revs. Thomas Akroyd, Joseph Bush, John Clulow, Benjamin Frankland, B.A., Frederic Greeves, John W. Greeves, J. Richard Hargreaves, Henry W. Holland, Edward Lightwood, Alexander M'Aulay, Joshua Mason, Marmaduke C. Osborn, Marshall Randles, Dr. Rigg, Edward J. Robinson, S. Evans Rowe, George Scott (B), J. V. B. Shrewsbury, William O. Simpson, J. Smith Spencer, Robert Stephenson, B.A., Samuel H. Tindall, Frederick E. Toyne, Henry W. Williams, Samuel Wray, Robert N. Young; with George O. Bate and George Bowden, Conveners.

THE STATUS OF COMMUNICANTS.

The Conference resolves that the recommendations on this subject, which have been made to it by the Committee appointed to consider it during the past year, shall be brought before the Ministers in the Annual District Meetings in May; and that their suggestions thereon shall be forwarded to the Committee above appointed on the Pastoral Oversight of the Young, who shall report to the next Conference.

LOCAL PREACHERS.

The Conference adopts the following recommendations of the Committee appointed to consider the means of assisting Local Preachers in preparation for their important work:—

1. That it is desirable and necessary, considering the exigencies of our work, and the fact that our supply of Ministers is drawn from our Local Preachers, that steps should be taken to secure in every Circuit an ample and efficient supply of this most useful class of labourers; and that Superintendents should direct their special attention to eligible and promising young men in their respective Circuits, with a view to their becoming Local Preachers, and, as far as practicable, should direct their reading and studies to that end.

2. That before any Candidate comes upon the Plan on trial, the Superintendent shall certify that he has passed a satisfactory examination in the Second Catechism with the Appendix, and in the Elements of English Grammar.

The Conference appoints the following Ministers and Gentlemen a Committee for the further consideration of this subject; viz.,—the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Revs. W. Arthur, M.A., John Bond, George Bowden, Dr. James, Dr. Jobson, Dr. Osborn, Charles Prest, Henry W. Williams, and John Walton; together with Messrs. Abraham J. Brook, Samuel Budgett, Robert Dyson, Enoch Forbes, W. Gray, J. B. Ingle, George Lidgett, B.A., Thomas Pethick, William W. Pocock, B.A., William H. Stephenson, William Sugden, B.A., Samuel D. Waddy, M.P., Thomas Wilshaw, William H. Walmsley, and John W. Wayman.

AUXILIARY HOME-MISSION WORK IN THE METROPOLIS.

The Conference receives the Report, and sanctions the Rules of the Metropolitan Methodist Lay Mission as now revised, and repeats the expression of its entire approval of this effort to take the Gospel to the spiritually destitute in the Metropolis, who are inaccessible to the ordinary agencies of the Church.

The Conference further directs that a Report of this Mission shall be laid before the two London District Meetings in May.

POSITION OF MINISTERS APPOINTED TO THE ARMY AND ROYAL NAVY, AND THEIR RELATION TO THE SUPERINTENDENTS OF CIRCUITS.

The Conference resolves that the Ministers who are appointed to labour in the Army and Royal Navy are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit where they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made, in any case, with the Army Committee and with the Conference. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may, by mutual arrangement, give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, and as they have invariably done in times past. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognizance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Meeting, with the before-mentioned conditions.

REVISION OF THE LITURGY AND THE BOOK OF OFFICES.

The Conference appoints the following Ministers a Committee to consider the subject of Revising the Liturgy and the Book of Offices, especially with a view to the removal of all expressions which are fairly susceptible of a sense contrary to the principles of our Evangelical Protestantism, and to report to the next Conference; viz., the President and the Secretary of the Conference, the Ex-Presidents, the Revs. Samuel Coley, Benjamin Frankland, B.A., J. Richard Hargreaves, Henry W. Holland, Ebenezer E. Jenkins, M.A., Dr. Moulton, William B. Pope, William T. Radcliffe, Dr. Rigg, Henry W. Williams, and Benjamin Gregory, convener.

LAWS AFFECTING MARRIAGE.

The Conference repeats the sentiments which it has affirmed respecting the importance of a complete and uniform National Registration of marriages, and of such an amendment of the laws relating thereto as would secure perfect religious equality for all denominations as to the legal conditions on which marriages shall be solemnized and recorded. The Conference again commends this subject to the attention of the Committee of Exigency.

CONTAGIOUS DISEASES ACTS.

The Conference hears with much satisfaction that a Society has been formed with a view to diffuse information, and to call forth the combined efforts of our people in opposition to these Acts, in harmony with any measures which may be taken by the Committee of Exigency in relation to the subject; and it commends this Society to the support of our friends throughout the country.

The Conference repeats the expression of its utter disapproval of these Acts, as iniquitous in principle, and demoralizing in their tendency, and its determination to use all legitimate means to seek their repeal.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. Thanks to the retiring President.—Resolved unanimously, That the respectful and affectionate thanks of the Conference are due, and are hereby presented, to its late President, the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., for his eminently faithful, judicious, and efficient discharge of his official duties, both during the Session of the last Conference and throughout the year.

2. Thanks to the Secretary.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., for his able and acceptable services as the Secretary of the Conference.

3. The Ex-President's Sermon.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., for the instructive, powerful, and seasonable Discourse delivered by him on Sunday morning, August 2nd; and that he be requested to publish it.

4. The President's Sermon.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the President, the Rev. W. Morley Punshon, LL.D., for the eloquent, practical, and impressive Sermon preached by him on Sunday evening, August 2nd; and that he be requested to publish it.

5. The Ex-President's Charge.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., for the lucid, comprehensive, and powerful Charge delivered by him to one division of the newly-ordained Ministers; and that he be earnestly requested to publish it.

6. The Rev. Luke H. Wiseman's Charge.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, M.A., for the able, instructive, and faithful Charge delivered by him to the second division of the newly-ordained Ministers; and that he be earnestly requested to publish it.

7. The Rev. John Dury Geden's Fernley Lecture.—Resolved unanimously, That the cordial and respectful thanks of the Conference be given to the Rev. John Dury Geden for the able, learned, and seasonable Discourse delivered by him at the Fernley Lecture, on Tuesday evening, July 28th.

8. Suggestions from District Meetings.—It is resolved, That the Convener of the Conference Committee on Memorials from Circuits and Suggestions from District Meetings, is authorised to obtain, immediately after the Annual District Meetings, from the Secretaries of the District Committees, copies of any Suggestions which may have been made, and that nothing shall be deemed to be a Suggestion of a District Meeting but what is recorded in answer to the Question on the subject in the District Minutes.

The Rev. Francis W. Greeves is re-appointed the Convener of the Committee referred to.

9. It is resolved that the Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 9th and the 16th of May, 1875, with the exception of the Lincoln, Hull, North Wales, South Wales, Isle of Man, and Zetland Districts.

STANDING ORDERS.

1. Home-Missionary Ministers.—(1.) At each Financial District Meeting a return shall be made, from each Circuit in which a Home-Missionary Minister is stationed, of the sum contributed by the Circuit to the Home-Mission Fund, and of the cost of such appointment to the Home-Mission Committee; according to the "Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers" adopted by the Conference of 1859.

(2.) The Conference directs that a special inquiry shall be made at the May District Meeting, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

2. Candidates for Ordination. — The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report to the Meeting.

3. Preachers on Trial.—(1.) The Conference, having been informed that in several Circuits the Preachers on Trial have very rarely an opportunity of receiving the Lord's Supper, resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this holy sacrament. (2.) Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

4. Candidates for Admission on Trial. — Those Preachers who are recommended for admission on Trial shall preach in the presence of at least three of the Ministers of the District Committee, (at or about the time of its Annual Meeting in May,) to be selected by the Chairman, exclusively of the Superintendents by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded in writing to the London Committee of Examination.

5. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—Mistakes having arisen on this subject, the Conference deems it proper and necessary to declare, that all the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

6. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, such Meeting, except under the Regulation passed by the Conference in 1840, (Minutes, Vol. IX., p. 94,) shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides, the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by rule may be made up.

7. Committee on Appeals and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred without discussion, all cases requiring further inquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon, or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto, or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under inquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee, but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee.

8. Supply of Vacancies.—Instances having occurred in which Superintendents and other Ministers, needing Circuit-supplies on occasion of sickness and various casualties, have applied to the President of the Conference, without first taking counsel with the Chairman of the District; the Conference directs the brethren to return to the old plan of first communicating with the Chairman in every such case.

9. Liverpool Minutes.—The Resolutions adopted by the Conference in the year 1820, and usually called the "Liverpool Minutes," besides being read and considered in the Annual Meeting of each District Committee, (as our standing Regulations require,) shall also be read at the Weekly Meeting of Ministers in each Circuit, next following the September Quarterly Meeting; and the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make inquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation.

10. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure three complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary. One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; a second shall be reserved for the use of the Chairman and Financial Secretary at the Conference; and a third shall be delivered to the Assistant-Secretaries, on the Wednesday preceding the Conference, and by them to the President during the first week of each Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion. The several copies of the last class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

11. Annual Return of Members in Society.—The number of Members in Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported in the Circuit-Schedules presented at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference.

12. Returns of the Military in attendance at our Chapels.—The Conference directs that the returns of the Military in attendance at our Chapels shall include the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists stationed in the Circuit, and not merely the average number in attendance at Divine Service.

13. Circuit Schedules.—In order to bring the state and progress of the work of God in every Circuit distinctly under the examination of the District Meetings, copies of the Printed Circuit Schedules, duly filled up, shall be annually produced, examined, and considered. The Chairmen of Districts are made responsible for the execution of this order. (See also Minutes for 1831, Q. xxv.; Vol. VII., p. 67.)

The Circuit Schedules containing the Returns of the Members in Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the Rev. John Bond, Guilford-Street, Russell-Square, London, W.C.

The Education Schedules, having been filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, are to be sent to the District Educational Secretary, not later than April 10th.

14. Schedules and Circulars on Connexional Business.—As it is obviously desirable, that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care, the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

15. Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge.—The Conference directs that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the first Saturday in March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by a Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee. The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

16. Lay-Members of Connexional Committees.—(1.) At the Annual Meeting of each District Committee in Great Britain, one Gentleman, being a member of the Society, shall be chosen by the Lay-Members of the District-Committee, to be a member of the Committee of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, held preparatory to the Conference; and the Gentleman so chosen shall have the right to attend, and take part in the proceedings of, the Annual Meetings of the Missionary Committee, the Schools' Committee, the Chapel Committee, the Theological Institution Committee, and the Education Committee, held preparatory to the Conference.

(2.) In respect to the several Committees of the Connexional Funds, it is resolved, that a certain number of Lay Gentlemen shall retire annually by rotation, the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-election, except in special cases.

17. Lay-Members of District Committees to be summoned by the Chairman.—It is resolved, That, in future, the Chairmen of Districts shall be required to send a circular to the Lay-Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting, specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been particularly remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting. A similar circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

In order to the carrying out of this Resolution, the Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting.

18. Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of each District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

19. Division of Circuits.—Before District Committees consent to the division of any Circuit, inquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

20. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, October 2nd, 1874, January 8th, March 26th, and June 25th, 1875.

21. Rule of 1797 concerning Admission of Members.—Mistakes having occasionally arisen respecting the meaning of the Rule of 1797, on the subject of the admission of persons who are on trial as Members of our Society, the Conference deems it necessary to repeat the statement, That it never was intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to the person, so objected to, at the Quarterly Visitation.

22. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of Society in the same Circuit.

23. Reading of the Pastoral Address in Society Meetings.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

24. Contingent Fund.—In future, all payments on account of Ordinary Deficiencies shall be made through the medium of the Financial Secretaries of Districts. The payments on account of Home Missionaries are to be made directly to and by the Treasurers of the Fund.

25. The Army.—The Chairmen of Districts are directed to inquire of the Superintendents of Circuits in which troops are marched to Divine service in our chapels, the average number of non-commissioned officers and men in attendance; distinguishing the number of Members in Society. These returns must include, also, the actual number of soldiers who are declared Wesleyan-Methodists. The returns given are to be recorded in the District Minutes. If there be no military attendance in the District, a note to that effect shall be inserted.

26. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may from year to year assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, (as already required by rule,) complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, inform every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, of the time and place of such appointment. And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, and to the great inconvenience of other parties concerned, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, or of its various Preparatory Committees, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

27. The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular inquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to all the points of Discipline specified in the first Article of the Answer to Q. XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

CONFERENCE OF 1875.

Q. XXVII. When and where shall our NEXT CONFERENCE be held?

N.B. 1. The Secretaries of the several Funds are directed to meet in Sheffield, on Wednesday, July 21st, for the purpose of preparing for their respective Committees the accounts of their several departments.

2. The Assistant-Secretaries of the Conference, the Rev. Henry W. Williams, Marmaduke C. Osborn, and Robert N. Young, are directed to attend at the same time, for the purpose of compiling from the District Minutes various Lists, etc., which will facilitate the business of the Committees, and of the subsequent Conference.

3. The Chairmen of Districts are required to bring, or send, in time for the meeting of the Secretaries of the several Funds, on Wednesday, July 21st, perfect copies of the District Minutes, including an account of the Numbers in Society in the several Circuits of their Districts, as taken at the March Visitation in 1875.

LIST OF GENERAL COLLECTIONS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR 1874-75.

The following are the usual and regular Collections which are to be made in all our Circuits during the ensuing year; viz.,—

1. The private Donations in the Classes, on behalf of the Worn-out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund, shall be entered in the Class-Books at the next September Visitation, and collected in the month of October, and forwarded at once to the District-Treasurer. (See Q. XXVII., A. 2, Minutes of 1851.)

2. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the New Kingswood and Woodhouse-Grove Schools, etc., are to be made in the early part of the month of November, 1874; and the amount, without any deduction on account of Educational Allowances to Children, is to be immediately remitted to the Rev. Frederick Payne, Rhyl, North Wales, one of the General Secretaries for the Schools' Fund. All sums due on account of daughters at the Schools must also be sent to Mr. Payne. Each Superintendent must also send to Mr. Payne a particular account of the sums contributed to the Fund, and of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit, specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

3. The Annual Subscriptions, due January 1st, and occasional Donations, for the Wesleyan Theological Institution, are to be solicited in every Circuit in the first or second week of January, 1875; and forthwith remitted to the Rev. John Farrar, Headingley, Leeds. Post-Office Orders are to be made payable in Leeds. The Public Collection for the Theological Institution is also to be remitted to the Rev. John Farrar.

4. The Public Collection on behalf of the Auxiliary Fund, which may be made in accordance with the recommendation of the Conference, (see p. 181 of these Minutes,) is to be remitted to the Rev. John Rattenbury, 3, Hamilton-road, Highbury Park, London, N.

5. The Annual Public Collections for the General Chapel Fund are to be made, and Subscriptions solicited, in the month of February, 1875; and the whole amount should be immediately remitted to the Rev. Messrs. Edwards and Tindall, General Secretaries, Oldham-Street Chapel, Manchester.

6. The Yearly Collection in all the Classes is to be made, as usual, at the March Visitation; and the money is to be paid at the District Meetings in May.

7. The Private Subscriptions and Public Collections for the Wesleyan Education Fund are to be made in the month of April, 1875; and the money is to be paid, at or before the May District Meeting, to the Financial Secretaries, and by them remitted, with the Circuit Lists, to the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer, Selborne Villa, Wickham-road, Lewisham-road, London, S.E.

8. The Private Subscriptions for the Mission-Fund are to be received in all our Circuits, either weekly, monthly, quarterly, or annually, as is most convenient to the Subscribers. The annual Public Collections for that Fund are to be made in all our chapels, and other preaching-places, at the time of the Anniversaries of the several Auxiliary or Branch Societies; or, where no Public Meetings of that kind are held, in the month of May. The money so raised must be remitted, through the District Treasurers, to the General Treasurers, whose address is, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate-street-within, London, E. C.

9. The Private Subscriptions for the Auxiliary Worn-out Ministers' and Widows' Fund are to be solicited in the month of May, 1875; and a list of Subscriptions is to be sent to the Secretary, the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, Woodhouse-Grove, Apperley-Bridge, near Leeds, not later than the 30th of June. (See Q. XXVIII., Minutes of 1851.) The money is to be paid on or before the first day of the Conference to the Financial Secretary of the District, and by him to Messrs. Napier and Rattenbury, the Treasurers.

10. The Collections in aid of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, for the support and spread of the Gospel in Great Britain and Ireland, are to be made in all our chapels and preaching-places, not later than the second Sunday in July, 1875; but, wherever practicable, before the May District Meeting, and in connection with a Public Meeting, as recommended by the Conference. Subscriptions and Donations are to be paid to the Treasurers as early as possible.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE

TO

THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

Dearly beloved Brethren,

From our Annual Assembly we again send you affectionate pastoral and fraternal greetings. We reassure you of our fervent desire that you may be enriched with all spiritual blessings, and that, in a life of thorough consecration to Christ, whose claims upon our love and service are supreme, both you and we may "walk worthy of the vocation wherewith we are called."

Brought with you into the joyful experience of "the common salvation," children of the same God and Father, disciples of the same Lord and Saviour, partakers of the same "Holy Spirit of promise," how strong and how tender are the bonds of our communion! Such an occasion as this enables us very vividly to realise the closeness and the sacredness of our relation to each other; and also deepens the sense of responsibility and privilege in that ministry which we "have received of the Lord Jesus," and which we exercise on your behalf.

"A dispensation of the Gospel is committed" to us; and never are we perplexed by any doubt as to whether this Gospel is "from heaven, or of men." The Scriptures of the Old Testament, to which the Son of God Himself gave the seal of His authority; the Scriptures of the New Testament, which tell us what Jesus our Lord "began both to do and teach," and what afterwards the Apostles whom He had chosen continued to do and teach in His name, under the guidance of "the Spirit of truth,"—these "oracles of God" receive the fullest homage of our intellect and our heart. We would, on the one hand, most carefully and with equal vigilance guard the Divine Word from the criticism which takes away everything that is supernatural; and on the other hand, from those traditions and teachings of men that, too often, make "the Word of God of none effect."

While we greatly mourn over that spirit of hostile unbelief which seems ever eager to catch at anything that, by some effort of ingenuity, may be turned into a weapon of attack upon the Bible, be assured we are not "shaken in mind," as if the foundations of our faith were beginning to betray signs of weakness; nor are we "troubled" about the final issue of the strife. Our only concern is with respect to those who just at present are suffering injury and peril from the unbelief which is so actively and insidiously at work. As for ourselves, the religion we hold and teach is the subject of our deepest convictions: "we believe, and therefore speak."

We strongly feel that one of our most urgent wants is more Divine power in our public services. When we think of the large numbers of people who, week after week, join in the worship which we conduct, and listen to the truths which we preach, we are profoundly sensible of the vast importance of the work in which we are engaged; and we are forcibly reminded how much depends upon our fitness for it, and our fidelity in doing it. To live in habitual communion with God, so that we may be ever ready to lead the congregation "into the holiest by the blood of Jesus," and may learn the secret of that pleading which is "power with God;" so to "preach the Word" that every conscience and heart shall feel that a Divine message is being delivered; to arouse the careless and worldly from their deep and deadly sleep; to guide the awakened and anxious soul to its one only and sure resting-place in Christ; to give to the people of God in their cares and conflicts that portion in due season that shall encourage them to go on their way rejoicing, "strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might,"—in a word, to gain the highest ends of Christian worship and teaching, this is our hearts' most fervent desire and prayer.

But, while dealing faithfully with ourselves in this matter, allow us, dear brethren, also to deal faithfully with you. For remember that to the hearer of the Gospel, to the worshipper in the assembly, belong responsibilities as well as to the preacher. The task of awakening interest in religious services, and securing the benefit intended by them, must not be left altogether to the minister. Unless you bring to the house of God a temper of prayerful self-inquiry and of expectation, doing your best to engage your own powers of thought and feeling, you will not be very likely to catch the true spirit of devotion, nor will the Word preached very much profit you. So that while we must take heed how we preach, and how we conduct our services, you must equally take heed how you hear, and also how you engage in these services.

We would speak earnestly to you about the importance of securing and maintaining a clear consciousness of your acceptance with God. The sure trust of the contrite heart in Jesus brings "the knowledge of salvation by the remission of sins," and habitual "looking unto Jesus" keeps "this pearl of great price" safe. Whenever the New Testament dwells on the experience of believers in Christ, it is not in language of doubt and hesitation that it speaks, but in words of confidence and assurance: "We know that we have passed from death unto life;" "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God;" We "joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Enter, brethren, into this rest and blessedness; live in the bright light of the Lord's countenance; for has not Christ declared it to be His good pleasure that "your joy might be full"? And does not St. Paul pray for the disciples that they might be "filled with all joy and peace in believing"? And besides the gladness of heart that filial confidence in God creates, you will find in the hour of conflict with temptation, and for the demands of self-denying obedience, that "the joy of the Lord is your strength." Moreover, you are called to be saints, a "holy people unto the Lord your God." The purposes and provisions of our Redeemer's love and power bid you press onward to a salvation in which sin is all destroyed; bid you take heed that, by the renewing of the Holy Ghost, the virtues of the Christian life reach a maturity of growth in which you may bring forth fruit to perfection.

A religion thus enriched with ever-enlarging experiences of Divine grace, and, by the energy of its more abundant life, showing its reality and power in the practice of whatsoever things are true, and honest, and just, and pure, and lovely, and of good report, will give a decision and distinctness of Christian character that shall be "known and read of all men."

Business-transactions of doubtful morality you will have nothing whatever to do with, for you exercise yourselves "to have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men." Amusements that would weaken the vigour of heavenly-mindedness, and bring you into perilous association with the frivolous and worldly, you will not join in, for you are seeking truer and more enduring pleasures, and you are obedient to that word, "Be not conformed to this world." Luxuries of forbidden self-indulgence, and vanity of personal display, you will avoid, for you are under welcome law to a Master and Lord who has given the precept and the pattern of self-denial and lowliness, and it is your aim to "follow His steps."

This is the religion whereunto you are called. It meets all the demands that Christ makes when He says, "Ye are the light of the world;" "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." So pure and noble a life will tell with commanding force on surrounding society. You will make yourselves felt as men in whom there dwell spiritual convictions strong enough to bow to their authority all earthly things.

True, the unbelieving and half-hearted, because you walk not with them, may sneer at what they call your preciseness and puritanism; but in their deepest heart they will do homage to conduct which they know is only the consistent representation of Christian faith. Jesus, whose "well done" is your reward, will approve you; and He will be able to use you as instruments to extend His kingdom. You will be those disciples in whom their Lord's joy is "fulfilled," and of whom He says, "I am glorified in them." O that your hearts and ours may be all aglow with love to our Master and Lord, and that in the impulse of this sacred affection it may be our life's one purpose to serve and please Him! No higher aim could we propose to ourselves, and surely to no lower ought we for one moment to come down. "Ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvellous light."

Godliness such as this will find joy in the ordinances of Christian worship, and in communion with God in prayer. Moreover it is here that it will gather nourishment and power for steady progress. Therefore neglect not "the assembling of yourselves together." Welcome the hour that invites you to the Lord's table. His own hands spread the heavenly feast, and still He says, "This do in remembrance of Me." It is then you renew your confession of trust in the "precious blood" "shed for the remission of sins," and afresh own Christ as your King and sovereign Lord. While your own faith and love are strengthened, you at the same time bear your testimony to those glorious truths of redemption of which the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper is the expression. You declare that whoever may deny Christ, you own Him; and whoever may slight Him, you make much of Him as your only Saviour and hope.

Value also the communion of saints. The fellowship of the Class-meeting began in the desire to "flee from the wrath to come:" there was a consciousness of the reality of unseen and eternal things; the deepest springs of human thought and feeling were moved, and "out of the abundance of the heart" the newly-awakened "spake often one to another." And as long as religion continues to be a matter of earnest personal experience, opportunities for mutual sympathy and for counsel will be sought. It is a very significant fact, one which ought to have much weight with us at the present time, that wherever religion is working as a positive power in the human heart, the Class-meeting, suitably conducted, is just that which meets the want created by revived religious feeling and earnestness. On the other hand, —and again we say, let it be most thoughtfully considered,—where spiritual power is low, and the life of religion is lacking or feeble, there the Class-meeting declines, and some begin to ask, "Cannot we do without it? Is it suitable to our day?" Such questions are themselves signs of spiritual declension. Not need the Class-meeting now! Then most assuredly we do need that which would make us value it, and which would very soon, and satisfactorily, reply to all questions about dispensing with it. Nay, brethren, let us rather enter more truly into the spirit and meaning of a religion that tells us "we are members one of another," and because of this strong, living sympathy bids us "confess our faults one to another," and "pray one for another," and "exhort one another," and "admonish one another," and "comfort one another."

In reviewing the past year we see signs of prosperity which encourage our confidence and hope. Our record of members shows an increase of three thousand and sixty-five, with twenty-four thousand seven hundred and ninety-four on trial. We lay not too much stress on these numerical returns. There are arrangements in our economy which render them necessary, and accordingly we register them. Still, while not exaggerating their value, we are persuaded that they reveal features of our spiritual condition which always deserve our most thoughtful attention. Increase in our Societies means that a good work of religious awakening has been going on; and this, too, is accompanied by a quickened spiritual life in existing Church-members. Only as conversions to God are taking place, and as strength of Christian principle and fervour of Christian feeling are deepening in God's people, is the real end of our work and ministry answered. Nothing whatever that stops short of these results can satisfy us. Let our word come "in power and in the Holy Ghost," and the Churches will be "established in the faith," and will increase in number.

During the year ninety-four chapels have been built, and the erection of one hundred and twenty-nine has been sanctioned. The enlarged opportunities thus created to celebrate the services of a simple and pure worship, and to expound the Word of God, awaken in us gratitude and hope. In some instances munificent gifts, the contributions of ample and consecrated resources, have been freely presented to carry on this good work: and in many other cases, out of less abundant means, and at the cost of much self-denial, those who value "the truth as it is in Jesus" have "devised liberal things." Very highly do we appreciate the generous spirit of which these free-will offerings are the indication, and greatly does it encourage us. But feelings of another kind also arise within us. We are forcibly impressed with the grave responsibility resting upon us to do our utmost, that these chapels may truly fulfil the purposes for which they are erected —a responsibility, dear brethren, which we divide with yourselves, for to you as well as to us does it belong. All the guarantees that human forethought can provide secure that in our chapels the truths of Scripture shall be honestly preached. But we are persuaded that it is by no means to this sort of defence that we must look as our chief bulwark. If ministers can depart from the faith,—as it is clearly expressed in Holy Scripture they may,—even so can they depart from any definitions of that faith, however clearly they may be laid down in authorized Church-standards. Especially of late have we seen, and mourned to see, how easy it is to break away from the restraints of articles of belief when a spirit contrary to them has come in. Those men, and only those, in whom the Gospel of Christ is a personal experience, and whose own spiritual life is nourished up in the words of faith and good doctrine, can be relied on to keep inviolate the trust committed to them. Then seek from the Head of the Church Himself a succession and increase of true-hearted preachers and pastors, who will never "handle the Word of God deceitfully, but by manifestation of the truth," will "commend themselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God."

In our educational work an increase of seven thousand three hundred and forty-five day-scholars; of ninety-eight Sunday-schools; of twenty-two thousand two hundred and twenty scholars; and of one thousand six hundred and seventy-seven teachers and officers, shows an encouraging measure of progress. We are very wishful, with yourselves, that our Schools should contribute more largely to the growth of Christ's Church, by bringing our children and young people to religious decision. Especially should the most watchful care be bestowed on the elder scholars, and those who are leaving school. By endeavouring to organise classes for their mental and spiritual culture, and by offering every facility for them to become habitual attendants upon our worship,—in a word, by showing them unfailing sympathy and attention,—should we seek strongly and permanently to attach them to the ordinances of religion.

No subject more constantly engages our solicitude than the religious welfare of your own children. From year to year we renew our inquiry with respect to it, and ask how our pastoral relation to our young people may be more successfully fulfilled. We long to see them choosing "the better part," and, in early decision for Christ, preparing themselves for future years of invaluable service to Him. How greatly would it add to the joy of your home circles if this most desirable object were accomplished! But whatever we may do, if we are to succeed, we must have your own active and prayerful co-operation. The literature that you introduce into your families, the habits you allow your children to adopt, the society in which you encourage them to form their friendships and enjoy their recreations, continually and powerfully influence them; and require on your part, therefore, the exercise of all possible prudence and vigilance.

We would especially urge upon you the importance of a proper attention to domestic worship. Amidst the pressing claims of household and business engagements, many find it difficult to reserve opportunities for the exercise of family religion. But the home that is not "sanctified by the Word of God and prayer," suffers a most grievous loss. Then withhold not those blessings which always descend in bountiful grants of good things on the families that call upon the name of the Lord. And, moreover, make it plain to your children, and your servants, that you set a high value on the observance which gathers them around you, that you may read to them the Scriptures, and kneel with them at "the throne of grace."

We avail ourselves of this opportunity of again assuring you of the deep sense we entertain of the terrible evils which intemperance brings upon our country. The subject has afresh engaged our careful attention, and you will see from the resolutions which the Conference has adopted, that we are wishful to take our share in attempts to suppress the vice which we all so greatly deplore.

The meeting of the Missionary Committee of Review brought into prominent notice various features of our work in other lands, both near and afar off. Many "signs of the times" are encouraging, and we again commend to your active sympathies and prayers our beloved brethren, who, in their separation from us to foreign service in the one Master's kingdom, prize your remembrance of them.

We are glad to be able to mention special visitations of Divine grace which have been given in various places. In Cornwall, in the North of England, in Scotland, and elsewhere, our own brethren, and those of other Churches, have seen mighty manifestations of the power of the Spirit of God. Ought we not to continue "instant in prayer" that a work like this may become general, that awakenings and conversions may everywhere advance the kingdom of Christ? Nothing could more effectually rebuke the unbelief which questions the powers of the unseen world, and which speaks contemptuously of Christianity as a system well-nigh worn out, and about to surrender its place of influence to something else. "Let it be known," implored the prophet in the time of the people's blindness and unbelief—"let it be known this day that Thou art God in Israel, and that I am Thy servant." The token that was asked appeared, and the fire from heaven showed, beyond all doubt, at whose altar the prophet served. And now, when that Gospel which is "the truth of God" comes to the human heart with converting energy, it is manifestly declared to be "the power of God," and it carries the seal of its Divine origin in the greatness and blessedness of its operations.

We joyfully and gratefully recognise the cheerful and self-denying labours which our Leaders, Local Preachers, Teachers, Tract Distributors, and other fellow-helpers in the work of the Lord render. Your ready co-operation with us, in seeking to extend the cause of Christ, strengthens our own hands and hearts in the service of our common Lord; and we can truly say that we "remember without ceasing your work of faith, and labour of love, and patience of hope."

We would also anew impress upon all our people that every disciple of Jesus, whether holding any office or not, is bound to take his own share in the glorious task of winning souls. There is a work for the Master which each servant has to do, and which, if he do it not, will be left undone. To every one of you are given gifts, and He who distributeth "to every man severally as He will" says, "Occupy till I come." And even when you toil on and seem to gather little fruit, be patient and hopeful: you know who has said, "In due season we shall reap, if we faint not." He who walketh amidst the golden candlesticks, which "are the churches," fixes upon you a look of loving approval, and tells you, "I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience,.....and for My name's sake thou hast laboured, and hast not fainted."

In receiving the record of those who have departed hence unwavering in their trust in Him who is "the Resurrection and the Life," and in reading the roll of those among ourselves who have entered into rest, we have vividly realised the unbroken fellowship which joins the whole family in heaven and earth :—

> "Even now by faith we join our hands
> With those that went before;
> And greet the blood-besprinkled bands
> On the eternal shore."

Very earnestly do we ask you to cherish with us a deep sense of our dependence upon the Spirit of God. As we dwell upon our multiplied agencies, ever at work, we sometimes hear it said, "Our success is not according to our toil." Let us beware of supposing that because we are active, we must of necessity be prosperous. "Without Me ye can do nothing;" "Not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit, saith the Lord." How do these words rebuke the busy temper that looks too much to the energy of human work, and the skilful adjustment of human arrangements! "Our sufficiency is of God;" and as we turn to this sufficiency we would re-invigorate your faith and ours.

Do not "exceeding great and precious promises" raise high our expectations? With the universal Church each one of us says, "I believe in the Holy Ghost." Do we well ponder what great things are included in such a confession of faith as this? What is there, whether for our own personal need, or for the world's subjugation to Christ, to which this "power from on high" is not equal?

In the hour of His disciples' weakness and shame, when they could not cast out the unclean spirit, did not their Lord tell them that their discomfiture and defeat were altogether their own fault? "Because of your unbelief," and, "This kind goeth not out but by prayer and fasting," explained everything. Even so have we Divine resources for our work if we were only ready to avail ourselves of them. Let us then unite hearty labour with fervent prayer and strong, unwavering faith; so shall we come better to understand what the prophet meant when he said, "Cry out and shout, thou inhabitant of Zion: for great is the Holy One of Israel in the midst of thee." "Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the Church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen."

ADDRESS OF CONGRATULATION TO THE QUEEN.

TO THE QUEEN'S MOST EXCELLENT MAJESTY.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR MAJESTY,—We, the Conference of the people called Methodists, in the Connexion established by the Rev. John Wesley, A.M., in Annual Session assembled, beg humbly to approach Your Majesty with loyal and heartfelt congratulations on the marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh with Her Imperial Highness the Grand Duchess Marie of Russia.

In common with all classes of Your Majesty's subjects, we feel a profound interest in everything that affects the happiness of the Royal Family, at the head of which it has pleased Divine Providence so long to preserve Your Majesty.

We pray that the union between a son of Your Majesty and a daughter of the Emperor of all the Russias, which has been contracted with the sanction of Your Majesty, may not only be conducive to the happiness of the illustrious personages themselves, but also to the mutual good-will of two vast Empires, and that thus it may promote the greater happiness of that Reign which has already been crowned by many favours of Providence, tending to endear the name of Your Majesty to every faithful subject.

We pray that Almighty God may long spare Your Most Gracious Majesty to reign over the nation in peace and righteousness, that Your Majesty's descendants may fill the throne for succeeding ages with continued and increasing prosperity, and that every spiritual blessing may rest upon Your Majesty both now and for evermore.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference,

W. MORLEY PUNSHON, LL.D., President,

GERVASE SMITH, M.A., Secretary.

The following reply has been received:—

WHITEHALL, August 8th, 1874.

SIR,—I have had the honour to lay before THE QUEEN the loyal and dutiful Address of the Wesleyan Methodist Conference on the occasion of the Marriage of His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh; and I have to inform you that HER MAJESTY was pleased to receive the Address very graciously.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

RICHARD ASSHETON CROSS.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

IRISH CONFERENCE, 1874,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1874.

Beloved Fathers and Brethren,

We once more avail ourselves of the opportunity afforded us at our annual gathering of conveying to you our fraternal greeting, and the assurance of our unabated affection towards you.

We have met this year under circumstances of peculiar blessing, which cause our hearts to glow with special gratitude to the Giver of all good; and we have heard with much joy, from our honoured President and his companions, of the high honour God has conferred on your labours during the past year, and the large increase of members in your Churches. We also are able to report a small increase; our only cause of regret being that the number is not a thousand-fold greater. But still the tide of emigration continues to flow from our shores, and many—very many—of our beloved and most valued people go to swell the Churches in other lands. For ourselves, we cannot but sometimes feel regret at this continued outflow; but believing, as we do, in the over-ruling Providence of God, we know that this also shall tend to His glory, and to the benefit of that one Church of which Christ is both Head and King. We, therefore, cannot be discouraged, but feel ourselves honoured if, in any measure, we may be accounted worthy to be agents in His hand of bringing those to the knowledge of the truth, who, in other lands, may be the founders of Churches, and in other climes may uphold the standard of the Cross.

After all our losses by death, emigration, and other causes, we thank God that we can report an increase of sixty-three members; and if, with this continued drain upon us, we can maintain our numbers, it is a proof—having reference to the population of the country at large—that we have made real advances during the year that is past.

We are thankful that the ranks of our active Ministry have not been thinned by death during the year; but two of our venerable Supernumeraries—the Revs. John Carey and Thomas Meredith—have been summoned to their heavenly reward. They served the Church long and well, and had earned for themselves a good degree in our Ministry. God highly honoured their labours by enabling them to win many souls for Christ, such as shall be their glory and joy at the day of His appearing. "They rest from their labours, and their works do follow them."

While these venerable men have been removed from our midst, God is raising up others to stand in their stead. Still doth

"The bright succession run."

We have received into full connexion with us, at this Conference, six young brethren who had completed the term of their probation, and who give promise of being able ministers of our Lord Jesus Christ; while six others have been received as Candidates for our work, and have been appointed to our College, or placed on our list of reserve.

As last year we were separated from your Auxiliary Fund, and received from you at that time a sum to form the basis of an Auxiliary Fund for our Worn-out Ministers and Ministers' Widows, you will doubtless be gratified to learn, that, during the sittings of our Conference in this city, we were favoured with a visit from Mr. Alderman M'Arthur, of London,—himself a son of Irish Methodism,—who, having thoughtfully and wisely interested himself in our affairs, set a noble example by a munificent contribution, and in other ways stimulated the minds and hearts of our people, so that in one meeting, held under his presidency, "the riches of their liberality abounded" in such wise that £10,000 were promised in augmentation of this important fund; and we expect that yet further sums will be forthcoming to increase it, and in furtherance of the object we have in view.

We are thankful that, in all other respects, the finances of our Church are, on the whole, in a healthy condition; and we trust that the Home Mission Fund especially may be so enlarged as to enable us to meet the demand which is made for our Ministry in different parts of the country, where, heretofore, we have had no agency, and where, if we had the means, we would gladly comply with the calls made upon us.

We feel a deep interest in all your affairs, and highly appreciate your efforts to sustain Methodism in the villages of Great Britain; and earnestly pray that those efforts may be crowned with abundant success. We mourn when we hear of a thinly disguised Popery in your midst. We—as is well known to you—have a fully developed Romanism in this country, of a type not equalled in any other land; and we cannot but feel a deep and painful interest in everything that pertains to this God-dishonouring system; and we look to you, honoured Fathers and Brethren, in connection with the other Nonconforming Churches in your land, to be the defenders of that faith for which many in your highly favoured country contended, in ages past, unto death. We were, therefore, greatly encouraged in hearing of the closer union manifested between you and those descendants of the noble Puritans who were received and greeted by you, in the name of our common Lord, at your last Conference in Newcastle-upon-Tyne. We pray that that union may be yet more closely cemented, and that the free churches of Britain may present a bold, undaunted front to the Man of Sin, so that his efforts to "conquer and rule the imperial race" may be frustrated, and that England may continue to be, in the future, the home of Protestant truth and liberty, as she has nobly been during the centuries since the glorious Reformation.

We also hail your continued and strenuous efforts to counteract the evil that is in the world by the diffusion of a pure and elevated literature. The power of the press is so great in this day, that we cannot but rejoice in the noble exertions you make to meet the demands of our times, without sacrificing our religious principles, or pandering to the taste of the multitudes who seek only unhealthy stimulants in the current literature of the day. We are happy to find there is still such a demand for our incomparable hymns, as to induce you to issue those cheap editions of our Hymn-Book which you have lately sent out; and, knowing that the profits arising from the sale of those works go to the support and spread of vital religion in the world, we hope to see a large increase in the circulation of all works published at the Book-Room.

We also bid you God speed in your efforts to reach the youth of your Church by the means of Higher Education, in the establishment of seminaries in proximity to the splendid Universities of Oxford and Cambridge. You may take encouragement in your labours in this direction from the fact that both our Institutions established for this purpose have succeeded beyond the hopes of many of their most sanguine promoters; and if, in this land of comparative poverty, so much has been achieved, it cannot be unreasonable to expect that in wealthy England much more shall be accomplished, and your labours crowned with marked success.

We thank you for sending to us our beloved President, the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., and his companions, the Revs. Gervase Smith, M.A, and J. H. James, D.D. We met them again with unabated pleasure, and these honoured messengers of the Churches have become to us "brethren beloved." Their kindness and courtesy in private, their wise and cheering counsels in Conference, and their able expositions of the Word of life in public, have confirmed our former love and esteem for them, and lead us to thank God that, through your kindness, we have again been favoured with the presence of these honoured ministers of Christ. They carry with them our fraternal regards, and we pray that they may long continue as pillars in the Church of God.

We regretted the absence of the Ex-President, the Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, M.A., who was prevented from coming to us as one of the companions of the President; but we rejoiced to meet once more the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., who takes a deep interest in, and is well acquainted with, the interests of Methodism in Ireland. He rendered us valuable counsel in several of our deliberations, and ministered the Word of life with his accustomed ability and power.

We nominate the Rev. Wallace M'Mullen our Delegate, and appoint the Revs. Oliver M'Cutcheon and George Alley, his companions, as Representatives to your Conference. They have our fullest confidence, and are well able to give you every information concerning our work in this country.

You will rejoice to learn that in many parts of Ireland, and especially in the north, there have been gracious revivals and "showers of blessing" during the past year. In some places hundreds have been converted to God, are now rejoicing in His favour, and are adorning "the doctrine of God our Saviour" by a holy walk and conversation. We long to see this land visited with

"The' o'erwhelming power of saving grace!'

We desire to see her people living for God, that our country may be a praise in the earth, and a blessing to other nations. With this desire we are about to return to our various fields of labour, and we do so in buoyant hope. We never more fully realised than now that the work in which we are engaged is what Mr. Wesley termed it—"a great work of God." We never felt greater confidence in our ancient principles, and the noble theology which we inherit from our fathers. We confidently believe, notwithstanding the difficulties which surround us—difficulties which can only be understood by those who experience them—that "the sword of the Spirit, which is the Word of God," is sufficient, when wielded by the arm of faith, to conquer and overthrow all enemies. We were never more convinced than now, that it is "not by might, nor by power," but by the Spirit of "the Lord of Hosts" we are to prevail. "The weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds." We "seek not great things" for ourselves; we seek not earthly patronage or support; but go forth in the strength of the Lord God,—

> "Strong in the strength which He supplies > Through His Eternal Son."

We depart, and expect a gloriously successful year. "In the name of our God we will set up our banners."

Praying that on both sides of the Channel there may be a mighty outpouring of the Holy Spirit during the ensuing year; that thousands may be added to the militant host of God; and that the bonds of unity betwixt us may be more closely drawn, and thoroughly perpetuated; we are yours in the bonds of our common Lord.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOSEPH W. M'KAY, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1874,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1874.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

The sentiments of fraternal regard contained in your Address we highly esteem and fully reciprocate. We serve the same Lord and Saviour, we hold the same faith, and we are partakers with you of like precious promises. As our aims are identical and our enterprises similar we sympathize with you in your difficulties, and in your successes we feel a holy joy. We are glad to hear that your educational establishments maintain their efficiency, and that you are resolved to render them more adequate to your increasing necessities. As you are aware, we have sanctioned a scheme of Higher Education at Cambridge, and have shown our appreciation of the designs of its promoters in an unequivocal manner. At the same time we have not forgotten the claims of the destitute, nor relaxed our efforts to rescue neglected children from a life of crime. We would come behind no Christian community in the range of our philanthropy, and would confer upon all who need our help such assistance as God has put it within our power to bestow.

We congratulate you on the noble manner in which you have inaugurated the work of placing your Auxiliary Fund on a firm financial basis. You will thus relieve those who are naturally depressed at the prospect of relinquishing, to some extent, their much-loved toil, and spare them the sorrow which penury would inflict upon them in their retirement. But we would give emphasis to what has never been entirely absent from your thoughts, that no solitary act of generosity can take the place of continuous well-doing, nor will the present munificence preclude the recurrence of fresh calls for liberality in the future.

We remember, dear Brethren, the very arduous character of your labours and the specially adverse circumstances of many of the Societies under your care. While there are places in which Protestantism holds its own, and Methodism is honoured for its services and beloved for its catholicity, there are others in which your position is that of beleaguered garrisons. Your trials call forth our heartiest prayers that He who said to His servant, "Fear not: I am thy shield, and thy exceeding great reward," may have you in His holy keeping. We rejoice to find that your facilities for evangelistic enterprise are increasing; and we trust that fanaticism will no longer harass you in your efforts to spread Scriptural holiness through the land. The future will not be as the past; and a Church which has won its way in spite of such difficulties as your history proves you to have encountered will not fail under different conditions to fulfil the fresh obligations that may devolve upon it. We are persuaded that you will be found ready to supply all that the exigencies of the times may demand, and should the altered circumstances of an influential Church in your midst seem to furnish you with another call to earnest effort, you will be found able to undertake the labour imposed upon you. May you, dear Brethren, be enabled to respond to every summons of Providence and of grace, and may He who, in seasons of trial, endued you with a spirit of brave endurance breathe into your hearts that holy ardour which longs to go up and possess the good land of promise.

In the face of a foe who prides himself upon his absolute unity, everything that tends to consolidate Protestant communities is pure gain. When union can be effected without compromise of doctrine or destruction of Church organisations, it becomes in the highest degree desirable. We are therefore rejoiced to find that the difficulties attendant upon union with another branch of Methodism in Ireland are not so formidable as they once appeared to be. We trust that in this, as in other matters, you will receive such Divine guidance as may lead your feet into the way of peace.

We have received your Representatives to our Conference as brethren beloved, and their public utterances have tended to increase our knowledge of your labours, and cement the ties of affection already subsisting between us. The resolution of your Conference on the subject of lay-delegation, which they have handed to us, has been referred by us to the consideration of a Committee to meet during the year, with which Committee the brethren appointed by you will confer.

With reference to our own affairs we will make no lengthy statements, as the documents containing evidences of our material and spiritual prosperity are easily accessible to you. But we cannot refrain from asking you to rejoice with us in the evident tokens of the Divine Presence with which we are favoured. We also ask you to remember us in your prayers that we may be "steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord."

We have appointed the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., Ex-President, the Rev. Dr. James, and the Rev. John Walton to accompany our honoured and beloved President, the Rev. W. M. Punshon, LL.D., on his visit to your next Conference.

In conclusion, we pray Him who has prepared our way to the throne of His power, by teaching us to regard it as the throne of His grace, to grant you those endowments of the Spirit of His Son, that shall thoroughly furnish you for every good word and work. The consciousness of our own necessities increases the fervency of our intercessions on your behalf, that you may realise the fulfilment of our Lord's purpose in giving Himself for the Church, "that He might present it to Himself a glorious Church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing."

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1874,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1874.

DEARLY BELOVED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,

IT is with fervent and unfeigned affection that we greet you in the Lord. Your continued care for our welfare, and your practical sympathy, so often manifested on our behalf, have acquired for you a claim to our gratitude which will never be forgotten.

Our Conference has met this year in the town of Nîmes, in the neighbourhood of which some of our most important Circuits are situated. Our sittings have all been saddened, and our work has been rendered more difficult in many ways, by the death, in the early part of the year, of our beloved President, the Rev. Emile F. Cook. His wise and kind counsel has been missed in our Conference, and many times, when difficulties have seemed to block up our way, we have felt the lack of those cheering words of hope, which he could speak even in the most trying circumstances. Our Churches are deprived of his pastoral care, and Evangelical Protestantism in France has lost an able and earnest advocate.

Our difficulties have been further increased by the illness of one of our oldest ministers, the Rev. Gédéon Jaulmes, of Lausanne. His retirement from active service, although we trust it will be only temporary, left vacant the charge of an important Circuit, and the directorship of the Students' Home. Another respected brother, who had come over to us from another Church, has, to our great regret, seen fit to withdraw. These circumstances have rendered it difficult for us to meet at once the request of the Jersey French Circuit; but we will do our utmost to make a suitable arrangement.

We cannot report an increase in our Societies. The present number of members and probationers is two thousand and twelve, which is nearly the same as the number reported to our last Conference. On the other hand, our congregations are increasing, and there is an addition of more than ten per cent. to the number of our Sunday-scholars.

We have strongly felt the lack of proper men for the work of the Ministry among us. This year we have received one preacher on trial, and four young men will be either received into the Students' Home, or occupied in the work. Yet still our wants in this respect are far from being met.

Financial embarrassments prevent us from extending our work as we desire to do. We are wanting in funds for the support and increase of the Ministry. Our Circuits are striving to do more. The increase during the past two years is more than sixteen per cent. But to place us in a satisfactory position, even with our present limited staff of ministers, it would require that every Circuit should at once double its contributions. Our prospective deficit for the year now commencing is £500.

And yet we take courage. It seems to us that, although still suffering from past years of disaster, we have seen the worst, and are advancing really to a better state of things. Two of our Circuits have had cheering and extensive revivals. And both the sittings of the Conference, and the public services held in connection with it, have been marked by blessings from on high. Our souls are looking up to the Author of all good; and we would adopt as our watchword for the ensuing year, the great truth which your delegate brought before us, as his message to us from the Lord,—Holiness is power.

Since the year 1859 we have not had the pleasure of seeing among us an official delegate from the British Conference. It gave us therefore much satisfaction to welcome among us this year the Rev. W. Gibson, B.A., as your Representative. We cordially thank you for his presence and his counsels. The ardent sympathy which he feels for us, and his high hopes for the future of France, have cheered our hearts. We have spoken with him, freely and fully, of the present position of our Church in France, of our sorrow because we have been compelled to retire from important posts formerly occupied by us, and because, in presence of the vast work of evangelization to be accomplished in this country, we find ourselves without resources. How glad should we be, if within the next five years, we could place an earnest minister in every large town in France!

We earnestly hope that the Memorial forwarded by us in 1872, on the subject of uniting our laymen with us in our Conferences, will receive your prompt and earnest consideration. A friendly but strong pressure is put on us by the majority of our Circuits. And it will be difficult, if not impossible, for us to retain the exclusively ministerial composition of our Conference, in presence of the different organisation of all other Protestant Churches around us.

We have appointed as our Representative to your Conference, the Rev. James Hocart, the oldest minister among us still in active service, and we doubt not that you will find in him an able and earnest advocate of the claims of our work.

We have elected, subject to your ratification, the Rev. J. P. Cook, B.A., as our President for the ensuing year. His laborious services for many years in different departments of our work, have earned for him our high esteem and gratitude.

Receive, dear and honoured Fathers and Brethren, our affectionate salutations in our Lord Jesus Christ.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

W. CORNFORTH, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1874

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1874.

Reverend and dear Brethren,

We have received and read your affectionate address with deep and even unusual interest. We heartily reciprocate every expression of your brotherly regard for us, and pray that you and we may ever "stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the Gospel."

The severe loss you have sustained during the past year, in the death of the President of your Conference, has excited our deepest sympathy. The Rev. Emile F. Cook, honoured by us all, from the first, for the name which he bore, quickly gained in this country by his personal excellence the esteem and affection of a multitude of friends. We sorely miss the presence in our assembly of this devoted servant of Christ. With you, we mourn the sudden removal of our beloved friend, so wise a counsellor, so faithful in witnessing for his Master, whether in the midst of his flock at home, or amongst perils by sea and by land, so winning and attractive a pattern of a Christian minister. His early death will not be premature, if his example attract others to follow him as he followed Christ.

We read with pain of the other losses which you have sustained in the ranks of your ministers. The scanty supply of candidates for the Ministry among you has been the subject of our serious consideration. We cannot doubt that the Head of the Church will, in answer to your instant prayer, grant you the most signal mark of His favour, in calling men to preach His word,—men who shall be made ministers of the Gospel "according to the gift of the grace of God given unto" them "by the effectual working of His power." We fervently hope and pray that no hindrances or embarrassments of any kind may have power to hold back the labourers from entering into the vineyard of the Lord. We rejoice to hear that your Students' Home will not want occupants. We are endeavouring to devise a plan by which some assistance may be rendered to the funds of this excellent and most useful Institution.

Your esteemed Representative, the Rev. J. Hocart, has for many years possessed our full confidence and warm affection. He has faithfully set before us the magnitude of the work in which you are engaged, and the peculiar difficulties which beset your enterprise. Our brother, the Rev. W. Gibson, B.A., an unfailing and unwearied advocate of your cause, has powerfully seconded your Representative in his endeavour to describe the high mission of Methodism in France. As we have listened to their statements and appeals, we have been drawn into closer fellowship with you, and have been inspired with a more earnest desire to strengthen your hands in God.

We rejoice exceedingly to receive tidings of increased prosperity, in the enlargement of your congregations and Sunday-schools, and in the growth of the spirit of Christian liberality and self-denial for the Master's sake. The revival of religion in some of your Circuits we hail as a sure token of the presence of Him who is the Lord and Giver of Life, the Author of holiness, the Source of power. We unite with you in fervent prayer that the influence of the Holy Spirit may be felt by you in all your dwellings and in all your assemblies, assured that, through His power, the holy waters shall flow forth from you into all the desert land, and "everything shall live whither the river cometh."

You will rejoice to know that our Societies in this land have not been without manifestations of the Divine favour. The increase in our numbers is not large. In some places the Lord has added very many to the Church, but in others we have to mourn over loss. We can discern, however, tokens of a deeper spiritual life and an increased earnestness of religious effort in many parts of our Connexion. Our hearts are filled with gratitude for this. With a heightened sense of our responsibility, we gird ourselves again for our work, "looking unto Jesus," our Master and Lord, for grace to be faithful in His service. Many other Churches in England and Scotland have recently been gladdened by the revival of the work of God. For them, for you, and for ourselves, we seek the power from on high which will enable us to bear a consistent and prevailing testimony against formalism, unbelief, and every form of sin.

The Memorial which we received from you on the subject of uniting the laymen of your Church with yourselves in your annual Conference, has been carefully considered. As, however, the question is (as you are aware) very difficult and complex, we have again referred it to a select Committee, which will report to the next Conference.

We gladly accede to your request that our highly esteemed brother, the Rev. J. P. Cook, B.A., may be appointed to be your next President.

In abiding hope and confidence that the year on which we are entering may be crowned with the goodness of the Lord, and His blessing on our common work, we bid you farewell in His name.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

GERVASE SMITH, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES, 1872,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1874.

Reverend and dear Fathers and Brethren,

"Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ."

Your letter, dated London, April 13th, 1872, and conveyed to us by your Delegates afforded us great satisfaction. We thank God "always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; that in every thing ye are enriched by Him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge; even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you: so that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Sustaining, as you do, peculiar historic relations to Mr. Wesley, the founder, under God, of our common Methodism, it is not unreasonable that the various divisions of the great Methodistic household should look to you for a continual example of that Missionary zeal which can be satisned with nothing less than the subjugation of the world to Christ; a devotion to the pure doctrines of the Gospel which will maintain them at all times and in all circumstances, allowing no departure from the form of sound words; and a compassion for sinners which will not consent that any results shall be regarded as prosperity which do not include their conversion to God, their sanctification, and their final "entrance into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ;" and we rejoice in the assurance, from time to time, that our confidence is fully justified.

Your Mission stations encircle the globe. Steadily pursuing the course you have pursued, it will soon be said of your Missions: "There is no speech nor language where their voice is not heard. Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words unto the end of the world." It is an eminent attestation of the Divine origin of Methodism, and of its intense spirituality, that among its earliest ministers were found men so thoroughly imbued with the spirit of their great commission, that no ties of kindred or of nationality could restrict them to their native land, and who could not be satisfied without preaching the Gospel on the distant continents of the earth and the islands of the sea, notwithstanding that in their own country there were wide and inviting fields of Christian labour white unto the harvest, while the labourers were few.

We rejoice in the prosperity of your Missions, and pray that you may have yet more abundant success. "Thanks be unto God, which always causeth" you "to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of His knowledge by" you "in every place." It is a source of hallowed joy to us that, while the vision of your faith sweeps the earth, and the feet of your messengers are swift to carry the message of grace afar, without abating your liberal contributions to the foreign work, you have addressed yourselves with exemplary earnestness to the establishment and support of Home Missions. The information given to us by your Delegates respecting your wisdom, zeal, and liberality in building churches was received with admiration and with gratitude to God for the grace He hath bestowed upon you. We cannot doubt that you will receive a rich reward in the conversion to God of multitudes, who will increase your numbers and augment greatly your resources for further progress. Our prayers will ascend to God continually for His blessing upon this part of your work.

The interest with which we listened to the statements of your Delegates respecting your Mission in Italy was intense. For this extension of your Mission field we are especially grateful to God.

Nor do we fail to thank Him for the blessed harmony which prevails in your ministry and membership.

It was not without a painful sense of disappointment that we heard of the indisposition of the Rev. William Arthur, A.M., which prevented him from coming to us as your Representative. His former visit to our country is remembered with unmingled pleasure. We longed to see him here again, to hear his voice, and to have the opportunity of expressing to him our high esteem and warm affection. Then came another disappointment in the domestic affliction of the Rev. George T. Perks, A.M., who, though an entire stranger to us, was commended to our confidence and love by his selection as a Delegate from your honoured body. We accept this opportunity of sending to him an assurance of our sympathy. But we were, nevertheless, highly favoured by the presence, and addresses, and preaching of those most excellent brethren who, by your appointment, and the will of God, appeared in their stead:—the Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, A.M., whose marked intelligence, manifest piety, chaste eloquence, and refined and noble bearing deeply impressed us, and secured for him at once a place in our hearts, and the Rev. William Morley Punshon, A.M., who had, by his previous intercourse and ministrations, secured our affections and our admiration. We were made glad by the coming of these brethren. They greatly refreshed our spirits.

Through the abundant grace of God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ we continue to prosper. Our increase of members during the last four years has been two hundred and seventy-five thousand two hundred and forty-two. We have added to the number of our churches two thousand three hundred and nineteen, and seven hundred and thirty-nine to the number of our parsonages. Our educational facilities have been greatly enlarged. God has put it into the hearts of some of our wealthy and honoured laymen to appropriate large portions of their wealth to this object. Meanwhile, though exposed to the special dangers which attend prosperity, we hold fast the doctrines so effectively taught by our fathers. And although some of these may not be made as much the subjects of argument as they once were, not being so frequently called in question, they are not less dear to us. The great doctrines of the divinity of Christ, of atonement for the sins of the whole world by the shedding of His precious blood, of justification by faith, of entire sanctification in this life, of the Divine authority of the Holy Scriptures and their sufficiency as a rule of faith and practice, are still written in the hearts of our ministry and membership. The enemy threatens us, at times, with a flood of worldliness; but the Spirit of the Lord enables us to lift high above the waves the standard of Scriptural holiness. Our ministers and members generally live righteously and die gloriously.

Our immense national domain, and rapidly increasing population, call upon us for the most energetic efforts of evangelization; and we are girding ourselves for another century of arduous toil and glorious recompense. "Brethren, pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified" in every part of our land.

We are now in the midst of those changes in our ecclesiastical polity to which reference was made in our last Address to you.

They were not unanimously approved, but the minority, large as it is, have concluded, with remarkable unanimity, that the law which enjoins peace, and that we be of one heart and of one mind, is of equal obligation with any law, or precedent, relating to forms of Church government.

They do not regard these as unimportant, and are not insensible to the responsibilities which they create; but, having entire confidence in the integrity of their brethren from whose views they dissent, they think it best to "put away all strife," except in the form of "striving together for the faith of the Gospel," leaving to honest experiment to settle questions which much argument has failed to settle. "And the very God of peace" has enabled us, in a notable manner, thus far to "forbear one another," to "put on charity," and to "let the peace of God rule in our hearts." We trust that the Spirit of truth will lead us into all truth on all important questions.

Since our last General Conference an unusual number of our eminent ministers have died. We mourn our loss, but exult in their gain. The heart of the Church has been deeply stirred by their rapid and comparatively sudden departure, and the question has been upon many lips,—Has God a controversy with us? We have reason to think that this startling dispensation has prepared the hearts of both ministers and members to receive spiritual blessings which might otherwise have been withheld. It has certainly prepared us to sympathize with you in similar bereavements. We greatly desire that the brotherly love which now unites us may continue and increase; and also, and especially, that whatever questions may arise between our national Governments may be settled by honourable diplomacy, so that the sad spectacle may never be seen of these two kindred powers engaged in bloody conflict.

"Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do His will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

We have appointed and commend to you as bearers of our Christian and brotherly salutations, the Rev. Bishop W. L. Harris, D.D., L.L.D., and Rev. James A. M'Cauley, D.D.

EDMUND S. JANES,
GEORGE W. WOODRUFF, Secretary of the General Conference, M. E. Church.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH IN CANADA, 1874,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1874.

Reverend and dear Fathers and Brethren,

We heartily thank you for your kind, affectionate, and deeply interesting Address.

We acknowledge, with the warmest gratitude, the kindness with which you received our Representatives, and the generous and princely spirit in which you have complied with our request of last year for terminating our subordinate and depending relationship with you, and establishing that of fraternal independence with its duties and responsibilities. We enter upon those responsibilities with a deep sense of their importance, and with humble and devout dependence upon Divine strength and wisdom for their due fulfilment. And be assured, dear Fathers and Brethren, that never did a child grow up and go forth, by parental blessing and assistance, to the duties and pursuits of manhood, with more tender and grateful recollections of the parental household, than those which fill our hearts in regard to you when we assume the position and duties of an independent body.

During the twenty-six years of our filial relationship to you, our unity has been undisturbed, and our progress uninterrupted; our number of ministers has increased from a hundred and eighty to seven hundred and eighteen, and our number of Church-members from twenty-one thousand seven hundred and forty-nine to seventy-six thousand four hundred and fifty-five; our annual Missionary contributions have advanced from ten thousand dollars to a hundred and eighteen thousand dollars; and there has been corresponding progress in the number and character of our houses of worship and our educational institutions,—all the resources of Church strength and operation. The past year has witnessed a gratifying advance in every one of our Connexional funds, in all our educational institutions, and in every department of our work. We have been blessed in many places with gracious revivals of religion, so that we have a net increase of upwards of three thousand Church-members. The year has been characterized by an increase of the Spirit of holiness, activity, and power among both preachers and people; and never were both more perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment, or animated by a more ardent and confident anticipation of still greater conquests and advancement in the future.

But while our official connexion with you is less intimate than heretofore, we assure you, Fathers and Brethren, never were we more completely one with you in heart, in Church unity, in aim, in labour; honouring you as our Mother Church, rejoicing with you in the success and prosperity of which you speak, and to which our Representatives to you bear cheering testimony, sympathizing with you in the widely extended work in which you are engaged, and praying that your successes and numbers may be a thousand times multiplied. We trust that you will still favour us, as you intimate, with frequent communications, addresses, and deputations.

The measures adopted last year, with a view to an organic union between the Methodists of the New Connexion in this country and ourselves, are approaching a satisfactory conclusion; and if the parent Conference of that Connexion act towards them in the same liberal and parental spirit that you have manifested towards us, the union of the two bodies will be accomplished here without any dismemberment, and apparently without a single individual secession on either side.

We are now met together as one Conference for the last time. In the course of another day we shall cease to exist as one Conference, and become three Annual Conferences, with the addition of two more by our union with our Brethren of Eastern British America, and a general quadrennial representative Conference, which will meet for the first time next autumn, in the city of Toronto, being the supreme legislative body of a Church extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific shores, and embracing larger territorial dominion, with scarcely less material resources, than the United States of America.

While we have so much cause of thankfulness and encouragement in the success of the past, and the prospects of the future, we have to mourn the loss of some, both of our senior and junior brethren, reminding us of the shortness and uncertainty of our term of labour, and of the importance of working with our might while it is called to-day. But our departed brethren have fallen,—every one at his post of labour,—leaving a life-example of fidelity, and a dying testimony of triumph.

Just fifty years have elapsed since our organisation as a Canadian Conference, then containing thirty-one travelling and five superannuated preachers, with a membership of six thousand one hundred and fifty, with twenty-one small wooden houses of worship, now comprehending seven hundred and eighteen ministers, with a membership of seventy-six thousand four hundred and fifty-five, and upwards of eighteen hundred houses of worship and preaching-places; a large proportion of the churches being built of brick or stone, and commodious.

During our present session we have received into full Connexion, and ordained to the full work of the Ministry, twenty-three young men upon the expiration of their four years of successful probation; and have received thirty-nine young men on trial. One Church,—one in heart and purpose,—we now divide into several Annual Conferences, and go forth to our work, deeply sensible of the deficiencies as well as mercies of the past, but seeking for ourselves, personally, the full salvation of the Gospel, and renewing our consecration for its propagation.

Perfect harmony and true brotherly love have marked our deliberations; and the interest of our proceedings has been enlivened and increased by cheering communications from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the United States, through its Representatives; and by two noble donations of ten thousand dollars each, towards the endowment of a Theological Chair in connection with our University; the one by the late Edward Jackson, Esq., of this city, and the other by his still surviving widow.

Very gracious Divine influences have crowned our deliberations and services; and we part to our appointed fields of labour, seeking a more than ever copious baptism of the Holy Spirit upon ourselves and our congregations, and devoting our all of heart, and strength, and life, to the one great work of spreading Scriptural holiness throughout the land; regarding the unprecedented material prosperity of our country, in which our people so largely share, as a ground of increased obligation and encouragement to do all that in us lies to imbue the whole Dominion of Canada with the principles and spirit of a pure Christianity.

In the prosecution of this our Divine Mission we are sure we shall have the co-operation of your sympathies and prayers, whilst we implore the richest outpouring of the Holy Spirit upon our parent Conference, and upon the work of our common Methodism throughout the world.

Signed by order and on behalf of the Conference of the Wesleyan-Methodist Church in Canada, at Hamilton, this 11*th day of June*, 1874, EDWARD B. RYCKMAN, Secretary.

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE

OF THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH

IN

EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA, 1874,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1874.

Rev. and very dear Fathers and Brethren,

The emotions with which we approach you for the last time, in our relation as the affiliated Conference of Eastern British America, are too thrilling to allow effective utterance, or ever to be forgotten.

The communications of the Rev. H. Pickard, D.D., and Rev. C. Stewart, D.D., our Representatives in your last Conference, have greatly gladdened our hearts. The cordial welcome extended to them by your venerable Body we heartily appreciate; and your painstaking consideration of our interests is highly encouraging.

We have listened with deep interest to the Address with which you have been pleased to favour us. We thank you cordially for the renewed assurance of fraternity and good-will which it contains; and with pleasure we avail ourselves of the opportunity now afforded to us of conveying to you an expression of the respect and love we have ever cherished towards you, and of the satisfaction with which we have treasured up your affectionate and judicious counsels.

We joy with you in the tokens of success with which the Head of the Church has crowned your labours in the interests of a soul-saving Christianity; and we pray for the souls committed to your watchful care, that their "love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment; that they may approve things that are excellent; that they may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ unto the glory and praise of God."

We sympathize with you in the loss your Connexion has sustained during the past year by the death of many honoured Fathers and Brethren, who, having finished the work assigned them, have gone to receive the fulfilment of the Master's promise, "Where I am, there shall also My servant be." It is with chastened feelings we have received the tidings of the death of the late Dr. Scott, who, by his administrative ability, his courteous demeanour, his eminently appropriate pulpit ministrations, and his devout and hallowed spirit while among us, as President of our Conference, won our esteem and love; and who, from that period to the time of his death, continued to serve us as the Representative of our interests in your midst. Of him and of his services we shall ever cherish a most grateful recollection.

You will rejoice to know that in many parts of the wide field over which our labours extend, there have been gracious seasons of religious revival, some of which have not been equalled in the history of our Conference. As the result, we are able to report a net increase of one thousand six hundred and forty-six members, with three thousand three hundred and thirty on trial.

In our Connexional funds there has been generally a gratifying increase, especially in that of our Home Missions, which is two thousand two hundred and twenty dollars in advance of last year. There is still much spiritual destitution among our home population.

Appeals for ministerial supply are continually reaching us; and to these our people, by their liberal support of our Home-Mission movement, are enabling us in some measure to respond. We regret that the amount raised for Foreign Missions is in arrears of that of former years. This, doubtless, has arisen from the fact of the largely-increased contributions to our Home work. Nevertheless, the cause of Foreign Missions is dear to our people's hearts; and their earnest desire and prayer to God is for the salvation of those who still live amid the darkness and desolations of heathendom.

Events of recent occurrence have served to deepen the impression we have long entertained as to the important relations which our Educational Institutions sustain towards the general prosperity of the work of God in these Provinces; and we rejoice to inform you that these Institutions, despite opposing influences, have been during the past year more largely patronized than ever before, and their prospects of usefulness are in the highest degree encouraging. The Endowment Fund, which last year amounted to forty thousand dollars, has this year, through the indefatigable labours of Dr. Pickard and the liberality of our people, reached the sum of fifty thousand dollars; and we have reason to believe that ere long it will be so augmented as to place these establishments in a position of independence and more successful operation. The labours of our beloved brother, the Rev. Charles Stewart, D.D., as Theological Professor, during the past year, have been in the highest degree acceptable. Ten of the candidates for our Ministry have this year been permitted to attend our Institutions at Sackville, N. B.

Under the able management of the Rev. A. W. Nicolson, our Editor and Book-Steward, the "Provincial Wesleyan," our Conference organ, still maintains its efficiency, and is acquiring more extended circulation. Our Book-Room, you will be pleased to learn, has so far improved in its financial condition, that it is now free from the burden of debt, which for so many years crippled its operations, and is, to a larger extent than ever, instrumental in diffusing our Methodistic literature throughout the land.

Thirteen promising young brethren, having honourably completed their probation, and by gifts, graces, and fruits having given proof of a Divine call to the duties of the Christian pastorate, have this year been cordially admitted into full connexion with us, and solemnly set apart to their great work by ordination; while twenty-nine have been received as candidates for the same sacred office.

Two of our aged brethren, the Rev. G. M. Barratt and the Rev. Richard Weddall, are obliged to ask for a Supernumerary relation. These honoured senior members of our Conference, who have been laborious, exemplary, and useful for a long series of years, we commend to your undiminished affection, as only infirmity, the inevitable consequence of the rush of years, compels them to seek such a relation.

Several of our young brethren have obtained permission to desist wholly or in part from Circuit work this year, in order that they may thereby regain their wonted strength to labour in the future.

Through the sparing mercy of God, our death-roll this year is brief. One aged minister, the Rev. Thomas Smith, has passed from the militant to the triumphant Church. He was a good man. The Gospel which he had preached to others he found to be the power of God in sustaining and comforting him amid the last struggles of expiring nature.

We have been favoured with a deputation from the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of the United States of America, consisting of the Rev. W. R. Clark, D.D., and the Rev. William Elliott. These honoured ministers of the Lord Jesus have delighted us by their able and richly evangelical ministrations in the pulpit, and we have been encouraged and profited by their counsels and admonitions on the Conference platform; while their narrations of the struggles, the progress, and glorious triumphs of our common Christianity in that vast country, have tended to strengthen our confidence in our own ecclesiastical system, as being adapted to meet the spiritual necessities of this Dominion.

Our Conference session has been one of great harmony, and all our discussions and deliberations have been marked by manifestations of brotherly confidence and affection, and by great unanimity in the conclusions to which they have led.

It is not without feelings approaching those of sadness that we now terminate the correspondence in our affiliated relation, which, under such happy auspices nineteen years ago, it was our privilege to initiate. In adverting to our former connection with you, we cannot refrain from giving emphatic expression to our fervent gratitude for the many favours you have conferred upon us through the agency of your noble Missionary Society. And we shall ever hold in endeared recollection the valuable services rendered to the cause of Christ among us by the agency of that honoured institution for the diffusion of the light of Divine truth in these Colonies.

Yet, though it affords us much satisfaction to give expression to our gratitude for the fostering care and generous support which have been accorded to us by you in the past, we may reiterate our opinion, that the time has arrived when the work of God among us in this Dominion should be placed upon a more comprehensive and commanding basis. We are pleased to be able to inform you that our Societies have adopted almost unanimously the scheme of union with the Conference of Canada.

And now, dear and honoured Fathers and Brethren, on this occasion—so momentous to us and the numerous Societies and congregations over which we have the pastoral supervision, standing upon the threshold of our new career, solicitous that it may issue in the increased glory of God, and in the salvation of immortal souls—allow us to assure you of our profound attachment to all that is distinctive in the doctrines and the effective polity of our common Methodism. Our prayer is, that we may ever be one with you in the sublime and godlike purpose of "spreading Scriptural holiness throughout the world."

We ask, and shall ever feel ourselves highly favoured, to be remembered by you in your entreaties at the throne of grace. Bear us up, Fathers and Brethren, before the mercy-seat of God in "the effectual fervent prayer" that "availeth much," that we may be fitted for the duties and responsibilities that lie before us in the future.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JOHN M'MURRAY, President,
JAMES TAYLOR, Secretary.

RESOLUTIONS IN RELATION TO UNION, TRANSMITTED BY ORDER OF THE CONFERENCE OF EASTERN BRITISH AMERICA.

WHEREAS the preliminary arrangements for the intended union of the Conference of Canada and Eastern British America with altered relations to the British Conference are now completed,

And whereas this is the last opportunity which, in the present relation to each other, we shall have of expressing our regard for the Fathers and Brethren of the British Conference, and our sense of the obligations under which we are laid by the kind consideration we have ever received at their hands, it is resolved,—

1. That we gratefully record the fact, that before and since the organization of the Conference of Eastern British America in 1855, down to the present time, we have been most affectionately regarded by our Fathers and Brethren in the British Conference, and by the Missionary Committee, as evinced not only by the loving and encouraging words which they have sent us from time to time, but by the substantial aid they have continually and so readily granted us in the prosecution of our work.

2. That we heartily appreciate the cordial reception given to our Representatives at the last meeting of the British Conference, and the generous treatment of our proposals to change our relation to that Body, by entering into a union with the Canada Conference, involving an independent Canadian organization, and also the resolutions on the subject of this union passed by the British Conference, together with their cheerful consent to assist for some time the work of our Missions in Newfoundland, Bermuda, and Labrador.

3. That we sincerely reciprocate the good wishes expressed in the above-named Resolutions, and do earnestly pray that upon our Fathers and Brethren of the British Conference the prospering blessing of God may ever abide, and that Methodism in the old country, in the Dominion of Canada, and wherever she may now or hereafter exist, may be true to the mission to which God has called her, and which our fathers so zealously fulfilled, of spreading Scriptural holiness throughout the land.

ADDRESS OF THE BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1874,

TO THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH

IN THE

DOMINION OF CANADA.

Dear Brethren,

We greet you in the name of the Lord. "Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ."

Our affection for you, dear brethren, and our interest in the work of God committed to you, are none the less because we address you in a new relationship. You are now to us the Representatives of the two Connexions with which it has been our joy through many years to hold official communications; and we do not forget that your Conference represents also a branch of the Methodist family, whose union with the two previously existing Bodies now comprehended in your Connexion, has been consummated to the satisfaction of all the contracting parties. "Our hearts' desire and prayer to God" is, that the Church which is formed by this union may be the home of unbroken brotherly love, and may be the medium of eminent displays of the saving "power from on high."

We need not remind you, however, that all Church-organization is but a means to an end. We rejoice, therefore, that the brethren who met in Conference at Hamilton, and whose Address we received with great satisfaction, were able to assure us of their unswerving determination to hold fast, and to hold forth, the great doctrines of the Gospel which God used so mightily in the preaching of our fathers. In thus addressing us we doubt not that they may be taken to represent the other brethren of your Conference. To us this is an unspeakable comfort. We value far more highly the substance of a Church's teaching, than the form of a Church's administration. This latter must necessarily be adapted to meet the needs of different nations, varying social conditions, and successive ages; always having regard to well-recognised and essential principles. But the faith of Christ's Church is "the faith once delivered to the saints." In it is the truth needed by, and sufficient for, all lands and all time. And we rejoice that while we shall continue to cry aloud to the dying world, the voice of your Church will be heard uttering in harmonious tones the self-same testimony. The orthodoxy of any Church, however, depends more on its spiritual life, than even on its regulations, or its formularies. We do not undervalue these latter. But where vital godliness does not flourish amongst a people, neither discipline nor creeds will preserve its members from deadly errors of practice and of faith. We are thankful, therefore, to hear that the work of God is prospering within your borders. Methodist Churches live most happily, and grow most surely, in the genial atmosphere of an intelligent and sound revival. May the cry of broken hearts and the shout of hearts made new never be wanting in your borders, till the earth be filled with righteousness.

We are glad to know that you are able to commence a Mission to the Heathen beyond the boundaries of your vast territory. We mark with affectionate interest the commencement of your operations in Japan, and shall follow your brethren in that new field with our sympathy and prayers. Our experience convinces us that you will not be less strong for any good work at home, because of your efforts to extend the Gospel abroad. In this sense also "there is that scattereth, and yet increaseth; and there is that withholdeth more than is meet, but it tendeth to poverty."

We are holding our Conference in Cornwall, a county which has been the scene of extraordinary Gospel triumphs from the earliest days of Methodism. Our session has been made memorable not only by the great public interest which it has excited, and the warmth of affection exhibited by the people of the county, but by the great spiritual power which has attended most of the public services. It will have gratified you to know that our President is the Rev. William Morley Punshon, LL.D., whose lengthened residence and great labours in "the Dominion" endeared him to you all, and who has always been to us, whether present or absent, a brother beloved. The interest of our session has been further increased by the presence with us of honoured brethren from our affiliated Conferences, and from the Mission field; and especially by the presence and addresses of Bishop Harris and Dr. M'Cauley, who brought to us the fraternal salutations of our brethren in the United States. We hope that in future years we may have—at least, occasionally—the pleasure of welcoming brethren deputed from your Conference who shall bring to us tidings of your prosperity.

The review of our work has discovered cause for devout thankfulness to Almighty God. Our material prosperity advances without check. The work of chapel-erection proceeds at a rate increasing year by year.

There is an addition of several thousands to the number of scholars attending our daily Schools, with a still larger increase in the number of our Sunday-scholars, and we are looking for a still further enlargement and consolidation of our Sunday-school work, by means of a Connexional Sunday-School Union which we have determined to establish. Moreover, we are endeavouring to supply the missing links in the chain of our Educational agencies. On the one hand, the work of reclaiming and uplifting the orphan and deserted children of our land (a work to the success of which your valued co-operation has largely contributed) is attended with a manifest blessing. On the other hand, we have determined to establish a High School in close neighbourhood to the University of Cambridge,—where the sons of our most intelligent people may receive an education which will fit them for the highest positions in commercial and professional life. Thus we are striving to bring the youth of all classes under the penetrating and purifying influence of a godly education. Meantime our Home-Missionary efforts are not relaxed, and our Foreign Missionary income is larger by several thousands of pounds than in any previous year. But the best of all is, God has been with us in the preaching of the Word; and we report an increase in the membership of our Churches of three thousand souls. Though this is not commensurate with our desires and hopes, we accept it as a proof that the Lord is still with us, and as a challenge from Him to bring to His service a more impassioned zeal, and a more complete devotion, so that He may "open the windows of heaven, and pour us out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to contain it."

We have deputed as our Representative to your Conference the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., the honoured Secretary of our Conference, who enjoys the confidence and affection of our Churches. He will inform you in detail of the progress of the Lord's work amongst us, and we are sure that you will give to him a hearty welcome.

And now, brethren, farewell. May you "be strong in the Lord, and in the power of His might!" And as your great Dominion develops its population, and opens up its territories, may you be always equal to the calls of the moment, and be able to spread over the whole extent of the vast region embraced within your boundaries the knowledge of that salvation which alone can make any people really prosperous and truly great, and to take your full part in the evangelization of the whole world!

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

W. MORLEY PUNSHON, President.

Camborne, August 13th, 1874.

CORRESPONDENCE

CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH SOUTH, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

In accordance with the Resolution of the Conference of 1873, (see Minutes, p. 250,) the following letter was sent to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which met at Louisville, Kentucky, in May, 1874 :—

Dearly beloved Brethren,

Having learned that your General Conference is to meet before our next annual Assembly, we have resolved to address to you our fraternal greetings.

In so doing we cannot overlook the fact, that so many years have elapsed since the commencement of your separate existence as a Church without our having sought intercommunion with you. The causes existing at the time, from which this arose, have now passed away. As to the institution of slavery in general, and in particular as to the forms in which it formerly existed in our own Colonies, and in your country, our opinions remain the same as they ever were, and as they have often been deliberately expressed. This fact makes us deeply grateful that at length in your country, as in our own Empire, the evil has been entirely, and as we devoutly trust, finally, done away. It is to us a cause of thankfulness that nothing exists to prevent official intercourse between your General Conference and our own. And we pray that both Churches, and both countries, may be firmly united, within themselves by concord, and to one another by amity.

We believe that you with us firmly hold the great Christian truths, which we have both in common, and that you are striving to spread living religion among your own people. For ourselves we trust that we have not ceased to "hold fast the form of sound words" which has been handed down to us. In the presence of a subtle scepticism on the one hand, and of an increasingly audacious sacerdotalism on the other, it is our duty, and, we trust, it is our endeavour, to "earnestly contend for the faith once delivered unto the saints." Our country is being blessed, at this time, with unwonted visitations of the Divine Spirit; slumbering Churches have been aroused; apathy has been rebuked, and we live in expectation of yet better days.

We are thankful to be able to report to you that our own Churches are in a state of general tranquillity, and are not without signs of spiritual prosperity. The number of members meeting in class has not increased rapidly during the last few years, and the almost stationary character of the returns has been to us a cause of anxiety.

On the other hand, our congregations and schools have been steadily increasing; the amount of money raised for the purpose of erecting new and more commodious places of worship has been beyond all former precedent; Home Missions and Day-school education have also been extended, and the cause of Foreign Missions receives increasing support. Our three Theological Colleges are filled with a fairly adequate supply of approved Candidates for the Ministry; our Colleges for the training of schoolmasters and mistresses, and our other Connexional Educational Institutions, yield us, upon the whole, great satisfaction. Beyond these islands the work has spread with a rapidity commensurate with the growth of the British Colonies. Since we last communicated with you, an affiliated Conference has been formed in Australia, which is now carrying forward evangelical work, with vigour and success, on that continent, and in various groups of islands in Polynesia; a Conference has been formed in France and Switzerland; while, by a friendly arrangement just concluded, the Canada Conference, hitherto affiliated to our own, has become financially and ecclesiastically independent. For the present we find it best to continue together as one Conference in Great Britain. The last returns showed that there were (without including Ireland, but including Foreign Missions) 1,744 Ordained Ministers, and 314 Probationers, in connexion with the British Conference, and 422,171 Church-members, besides 28,228 on trial for membership. The other Methodist Bodies in England are, in proportion to the Parent Body, much more considerable than is the case in your country. With these, although we do not see our way to organized union, our relations are of an increasingly friendly character; indeed, towards all who hold the Head, even Christ, it is our desire, as we are persuaded it is yours, to manifest always the kind and catholic spirit of primitive Methodism. Our enemies are not our Christian brethren, but sin and the powers of darkness.

And now, beloved and honoured brethren, we beg that you will accept this our salutation in the Lord. We pray that the Great Master may be present with you, throughout the session of your General Conference, that your Churches may be blessed with an increase of holiness, and enlarged through the conversion of multitudes of sinners; that the children of your people may follow in the steps of their godly fathers; that a succession of faithful men may continue to be raised up among you who shall not "cease to teach and preach Jesus Christ." We shall rejoice to hear of your welfare, and to receive, either by deputation or otherwise, information as to your affairs.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,
GEORGE T. PERKS, President,
GERVASE SMITH, Secretary.

To this letter the following reply has been received:—

TO THE

WESLEYAN-METHODIST CONFERENCE OF GREAT BRITAIN.

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN IN CHRIST,

YOUR kind and Christian letter of fraternal greeting has been received by us, through our venerable Bishop Paine, with great satisfaction, and we respond to it in the same spirit of Christian candour and kindness as that in which it is expressed.

It has always been the desire of our Church to maintain cordial Christian relations with all bodies of believers who are essentially one in the common faith, and close fraternal relations with every branch of the great family of Methodism, of whatever distinctive name. But being aware of the light in which the heated denunciations of sectional prejudice and misunderstood surroundings have caused us to be viewed, we have not judged it becoming in us to seek the recognition and fellowship of Christian bodies, and so have calmly waited for time to soften asperities of feeling, remove the clouds of prejudice, by correcting errors of the public mind, and with calmer thought to do us justice. We do not now propose to even state the grounds of our former or present position, or attempt any defence. Our Church has made its record, which is open to the world, and we trust to impartial history, in calmer times, to fully vindicate our course.

Believing that ecclesiastically we have occupied no ground which is not strictly Scriptural, or different from that occupied by the venerable Founder of Methodism and the other great bodies of the Wesleyan family, we have not been able to see why your venerable Body has failed to recognise us hitherto. But we rejoice to know that an era of clearer views has dawned, and we sincerely pray that nothing may occur to overshadow it for a moment, and that the fraternal intercourse thus auspiciously begun may ripen into the firmest and purest bonds of Christian brotherhood and co-operation.

It affords us great joy at all times to know your fidelity and devotion to the faith of Christ, your success in winning souls, and the godly example furnished by your Church to the world; and, above all, your grand Missionary work—the praise of which is throughout the Christian world. In all these things we would follow in your footsteps. Our Missionary work, as well as our home operations, has been greatly retarded by the calamities through which our country has passed within the last few years, from which our section suffered most severely.

The great difference in the structure and condition of society in our new and, in many sections, sparsely populated country, as compared with yours, is unfavourable to that compactness and organic completeness in our Church that have been attained by yours; but in the six hundred and fifty thousand members who compose our Body there are multitudes who fear God and serve with fidelity our common Master.

We rejoice to be able to say that we are not without manifest tokens of the Divine favour among us. Tens of thousands are added to our communion annually by profession of faith in Christ; and, to the praise of Divine grace be it said, we have from the beginning enjoyed peace and unity throughout our Body to a remarkable degree. Our ministry is little given to vain and dangerous speculations, and our people are not easily moved from the faith of the Gospel; and though surrounded by the same form of pretentious scepticism and arrogant sacerdotalism that lead so many astray in your country, we earnestly strive to maintain "the form of sound words" received through the ministrations of the venerable Wesley, whose name is held in the highest reverence among us.

We have not been unmindful of our duty to our youth and to posterity, and are exerting ourselves to furnish our people, and as many outside of our pale as we can reach, with the means of education, under the fostering care of the Church and sanctions of religion. Besides numerous High-Schools and academies, we have seven

Colleges, in which some sixteen hundred youths and young men are pursuing a classical and scientific course. Of those, about one hundred and eighty are licensed preachers, or have the ministry in view as their life-work. And we are just now engaged in measures for the establishment of a University upon a broad scale, for which we have secured more than six hundred thousand dollars.

The cause of Sunday-schools and the religious training of the young is receiving increased attention among us; a profound conviction is taking hold upon the minds of our people, that we must train the young in the way we would have them go in later life.

And now, Christian brethren, we send you our fraternal greeting in the Lord. You have our earnest prayers that you may greatly increase in numbers, and abound in every grace that constitutes a holy people, and mighty in the Lord, that the beauty of the Lord your God may be upon you, and that He may fully establish the work of your hands.

We shall rejoice to hear of your prosperity, and to receive messengers from you at all times,

Louisville, Kentucky, May 22nd, 1874.

R. PAINE,
Senior Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

THOS. O. SUMMERS,
Secretary of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

APPENDIX II.

MEETING OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, JULY 28TH, 1874.

MOVED by the Rev. Dr. Jobson; seconded by Mr. T. P. Bunting, supported by Mr. C. R. Rippon, Manchester:

1. That this Committee cannot listen to the record of the death of its late lamented Treasurer without expressing its sense of the value of the services which Mr. Heald, during a protracted life, was enabled to render to the Society, and of the loss which it has sustained by his decease. The Committee would "glorify God in him," and would cherish the prayerful hope that men like-minded may continue to be raised up, whose chief care it shall be to advance the interests of the kingdom of Christ.

Moved by the Rev. Charles Garrett; seconded by Mr. H. J. Atkinson; supported by Bishop Harris, of the Methodist Episcopal Church:

2. That this Committee of Review has heard with much satisfaction of the amount of the Annual Income, and especially of the increase in the regular contributions in the Home Districts. But it is persuaded that from the constantly increasing congregations a much larger increase is possible, and would strongly urge the desirableness of a more thorough and perfect system of collecting annual and other subscriptions in aid of the Society's funds.

Moved by the Rev. E. E. Jenkins, M.A.; seconded by Mr. Alderman Davies, of Salford; supported by the Rev. George Piercy, and the Rev. Oliver M'Cutcheon:

3. That the need for Missionary effort which still exists in various parts of the world,—the claims of India and China, where our agency is as nothing in comparison of the vastness of the population,—the necessities of Africa, both in the South and West, where the Society has old established Missions, and in those central regions which have recently been opened up,—the wants of Southern Europe, and of various other parts of the world,—constitute a call upon our friends to increase their efforts for the propagation of the Gospel in the regions beyond.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. James; seconded by the Rev. T. B. Stephenson, B.A.; supported by Mr. Joseph Ryder, of Cambridge:

4. That this Committee recommends that the thanks of the Conference be presented to the Rev. Dr. Jobson, the General Treasurer, to the General Secretaries, and to the Committee of Management, for their services to the Society during the past year.

APPENDIX III.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE NEW-KINGSWOOD AND WOODHOUSE-GROVE SCHOOLS AND EDUCATION FUND,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, JULY 24TH, 1874.

PRESENT, the Rev. G. T. Perks, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy, Treasurer of the Fund; the Rev. Frederic Payne and the Rev. John Harvard, Secretaries of th Fund; the Rev. G. Stringer Rowe and the Rev. Henry J. Pope, Treasurer and Secretary of the Children's Fund, and others.

It was reported that the number of Ministers' children upon the Fund in the past year has been 694; 250 boys in the Schools, 138 girls in the Schools, and 306 boys and girls receiving education allowances at home. The cost has been £18,100. 6*s*. 11*d*.; and the deficiency provided for by the Children's Fund has been £4,779. 10*s*. 2*d*. This is £203. 2*s*. 0*d*. less than the deficiency of last year.

Again the examinations at the boys' Schools have been conducted, for the most part, under the auspices of the Syndicate of the University of Cambridge, and the result is on the whole highly satisfactory. It will be seen from the Committee's Reports that the health of the Schools is good, and that discipline has been well maintained. The religious state of all the Schools is highly encouraging.

It was unanimously resolved, That this Committee requests the Conference to appoint five Trustees to invest moneys left by Mr. Fernley and Mr. Gabriel, and others, and to prepare a deed in conformity with the specific instructions of the respective wills.

It was also unanimously resolved to recommend that the thanks of the Conference be given

1. To the Rev. Benjamin B. Waddy and Mr. John Meek, the General Treasurers; the Rev. Frederick Payne and the Rev. John Harvard, the General Secretaries; and to the Local Treasurers, Secretaries, and Committees, for the diligent and efficient discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year.

2. To the Rev. Henry H. Chettle and the Rev. John H. Lord, the Governors of the Schools, and to Mrs. Chettle and Mrs. Lord, together with the ladies having charge of the Schools for girls, at Clapton and Southport, for their kind attention to the comfort of the children under their care during the past year.

3. To the ladies and gentlemen who, at the request of the Local Committees, have kindly served the Institutions by examining the Schools for both boys and girls in various branches of learning.

A conversation took place on the reading of the Report of the Special Committee appointed to consider the subject of Improvements in the Management of New Kingswood and Woodhouse Grove Schools, (see Minutes, 1873, p. 196,) and a Resolution was passed, approving of the proposed concentration of the system of education in the two Schools.

APPENDIX IV.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW ON CHAPEL AFFAIRS,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, JULY 27TH, 1874.

PRESENT, the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Messrs. W. Edwards and Edwin H. Tindall, Secretaries of the Chapel Committee; the Rev. Messrs. John Bedford, William Arthur, M.A., John Farrar, Dr. W. W. Stamp, Charles Prest, John Rattenbury, and others.

Also, Mr. Samuel R. Healey, one of the Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund, Sir Francis Lycett, Messrs. John Napier, William Mewburn, Nicholas Downing, John Berrie, C. W. Rippon, James S. Sutcliffe, Isaac Hoyle, and others.

The Rev. W. Edwards read the Report for the year 1873–4, of which the following is an abstract:—

The Income from all Sources is £8,971. 19*s.* 8*d.*; being an increase from ordinary sources of £461. 4*s.* 10*d.*

The Committee have received from the Executors of the late Mr. John Fernley his legacy of £20,000; also £125 from the Representatives of the late Miss Mary Jane Grant.

The Subscriptions and Collections for the "North Wales Chapel Fund" amount to £591. 7*s.* 11*d.*, being an increase on the year of £1. 2*s.* 1*d.*

The Subscriptions and Collections for the "South Wales Chapel Fund" amount to £29. 14*s.* 10*d.*

I. BUILDING DEPARTMENT.

Erections sanctioned.

129 Chapels, at an estimated cost of £214,955; 9 Ministers' houses, £4,900; 21 School Rooms, £11,959; 81 Enlargements and Alterations, £40,409; 104 Modifications, £55,790; 41 Organs, £9,022, have been sanctioned by the Committee. This is an increase of 23 cases over the previous year; and an increase of £20,422 in the proposed outlay, being by that amount the largest outlay sanctioned by the Committee in any one year. The temporary debt sanctioned is £55,283, being 16⅔ per cent. The aid promised by the Committee to new Chapels is, in Grants, £4,210; in Loans, £13,960.

Sales.

The Committee have sanctioned the sale of 32 Chapels, 6 Schools, 8 Ministers' houses, 10 cottages, and 10 plots of land. 31 Chapels, 6 Schools, and 4 Ministers' houses, are to be superseded by more commodious erections.

Erections completed.

In the following cases the conditions agreed upon with the Committee have been observed:—94 Chapels, costing £179,062; 16 Ministers' houses, £10,814; 24 School Rooms, £16,116; 68 Enlargements, etc., £38,242; 37 Organs, £9,080. In 54 cases the debt is larger than the amount allowed by £6,855.

There are also 18 cases for which Connexional sanction was not sought, and on which the per-centage of debt is $44\frac{5}{10}$. The entire outlay, £10,347. These cases are fewer than last year by 6. During the year the Committee have paid towards new Chapels,—Grants, £3,470; Loans, £4,060.

II. RELIEF DEPARTMENT.

Grants.

To the Trustees of 82 Chapels £3,528 have been paid. On 50 of these no debt now remains.

Loans.

The Loan instalments received during the year, have amounted to £8,720. 4*s*. 9*d*. on the Relief account, and £2,485. 5*s*. on the Erections'-Fund account. The Loans now in operation are 487. £9,195 have been advanced to meet £11,949 raised by Trustees. The South Wales Loan Committee have advanced £275 to meet the same amount raised by Trustees; and the North Wales Committee have advanced £945 in Loans.

III. LOCAL EFFORTS.

The sums paid off by local efforts and surplus income are £28,023. 15*s*. 10*d*., or £2,989. 7*s*. 7*d*. more than last year, and £620. 7*s*. 7*d*. above any previous year.

Contributions to Circuit Funds.

2,601 Trusts have contributed £31,065. 14*s*. 7*d*., being an increase of 131 Trusts, and £2,974. 0*s*. 11*d*. in contributions.

IV. SUMMARY.

The total amount of debts discharged is £72,993, making £1,018,879 in the last 20 years.

The total sum contributed in Great Britain, in the last year, as far as ascertained, is £321,868, an increase of £79,839 on the year.

V. GENERAL MANAGEMENT OF TRUST ESTATES.

The returns include particulars relating to 6,369 Trust Estates. There is an increase of 562 in the number insured against fire. There is a gratifying increase of about 200 Trusts entirely free from debt.

VI. LEGAL AFFAIRS.

The Board of Charity Commissioners have continued to render very valuable aid in various matters affecting Wesleyan Trusts, especially in their renewal, when, owing to various circumstances, difficulties are found in effecting all that is needed by Deed in the usual manner. The Committee would remind Superintendents and Trustees of the importance, in all applications to the Board, of observing the rule printed in the Minutes of Conference for 1866, respecting the approval of the Committee and the signature of the President.

ACCOMMODATION IN WESLEYAN PLACES OF WORSHIP.

According to the returns made to the Committee during the year, it appears that there are 7,486 Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels and other preaching-places in Great Britain, affording accommodation for 1,723,980 hearers.

The following Resolutions were adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Osborn, and seconded by Mr. W. W. Pocock:

1. That this Meeting rejoices in the large increase of the ordinary income of the Chapel Fund, in the number and character of the cases completed during the year, in the gradual diminution of irregular cases, in the large reduction of Chapel debts, and in the general prosperity attending our Chapel affairs.

Moved by the Rev. Joseph Hargreaves; seconded by Mr. William Hinson:

2. That this Meeting, on reviewing the work of this Department during the past twenty years, is gratified with the steady growth with which it has been distinguished, as well as with the large extent of the operations carried out within that period, and expresses devout thankfulness to Almighty God for the great measure of success with which it has pleased Him thus to bless the efforts and liberality of His people.

Moved by the Rev. William Arthur, M.A.; seconded by Mr. William Mewburn:

3. That this Meeting feels considerable satisfaction at the Returns giving the accommodation provided in Wesleyan-Methodist Places of Worship, and is gratified with the increase shown upon the Returns of 1851; but is still of opinion that much remains to be done in order to meet the spiritual necessities of the population in the large towns and rural districts of our land.

Moved by Mr. T. Percival Bunting; seconded by Mr. John B. Reynolds:

4. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to the District Chapel Secretaries and Committees, to the Circuit Chapel Secretaries, and to the Ministers and Trustees who have acted with them, for their valuable services to this Department of Methodism.

Moved by the Rev. Wallace M'Mullen; seconded by Mr. George H. Chubb:

5. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to Messrs. Healey and Haworth, the Treasurers; to the Rev. Messrs. Edwards and Tindall, the General Secretaries; to the Rev. John Bedford, Secretary of the Board of Trustees for Chapel Purposes; and to the Committee, for their diligent and faithful services.

The Lay Members of the General Committee were nominated for the next year.

The Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn read the Report of the Committee appointed to consider the subject of the Extension of Methodism in Great Britain.

APPENDIX V.

METROPOLITAN WESLEYAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

THE Secretary read the following Statement:—

FOUR Metropolitan Chapels have been erected and opened during the year, and another will be dedicated to God within the next few weeks. Only one site has been actually secured during the year; but negotiations for the purchase of three other sites are now going on. In addition to these, sixteen sites have been secured by loans previously made, on some of which temporary Chapels have been erected; so that about twenty sites are now, or will speedily be, available for commodious Metropolitan Chapels. Four new erections have been sanctioned during the year, towards which grants have been made from the Special Fund of £8,000 and £1,000 from the Ordinary Fund; and loans to the extent of £3,000. Repayments from sixteen trusts, amounting to £1,336. 10*s*., have been made during the year. Amount of collections, donations, and subscriptions, £1,520. 8*s*. 4*d*. Total income, £2,959. 19*s*. 1*d*., an increase of £124. 13*s*. 3*d*. Number of members of Society, at the last March visitation, in connection with the Chapels which have been built by the aid of the Fund, seven thousand one hundred and eighty-two. The Metropolitan Chapel Fund received its first sanction by the Conference held in Cornwall twelve years ago, so that some of the general results of the efforts put forth may here be stated:—Number of Chapels erected, including two small School Rooms and two Enlargements, forty-two; number of sittings provided, thirty-eight thousand two hundred and eight; amount of loans, £33,195; amount of grants, £23,725; actual cost (say) £243,000. Of the £33,195 which has been loaned on sites and erections, £8,831. 10*s*. has been already repaid, so that £24,363. 10*s*. has yet to be repaid. In addition to the forty-two commodious Chapels which the Fund has assisted to build during the last twelve years, seventy smaller places of worship, including School Rooms, iron Chapels, halls, etc., have been built or hired independently of the Fund, providing fifteen thousand six hundred and thirty-four sittings, so that increased accommodation for fifty-three thousand eight hundred and forty-two persons has been secured. When the Fund was established, about thirty-nine thousand sittings were provided within the Metropolitan districts. The present provision for London may therefore be stated at ninety-two thousand eight hundred and forty-two sittings. The Committee are deeply impressed with the importance of increased effort. We aim at five new Chapels per year; but the income scarcely provides the ordinary help for three. Either the Fund must be largely increased, or our work in London must be greatly crippled. The Committee earnestly asks the sympathy and help of this Meeting and the Conference.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Punshon; seconded by the Rev. L. H. Wiseman, M.A.; supported by Mr. Barlow:

1. That this Meeting heartily rejoices in the steady progress made during the year, and devoutly acknowledges the Divine blessing which has attended the operations of the Fund from the beginning; but, in view of the vast and urgent spiritual necessities of London, earnestly requests the Conference to repeat its recommendation that increased help be given to this Fund, not only by occasional Donations, but also by Annual Subscriptions and Collections in each Metropolitan Circuit.

Moved by the Rev. George Scott (B); seconded by Mr. John B. Reynolds; supported by Mr. Arthur Smith:

2. That the thanks of this Meeting be given to Sir F. Lycett, and W. M'Arthur, Esq., M.P., the Treasurers; to the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference, General Secretary; to the Rev. John A. Armstrong, and Mr. S. D. Waddy, Q.C., M.P., Secretaries, for their faithful and efficient services during the year.

APPENDIX VI.

TING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, ON

MONDAY, JULY 27TH, 1874.

PRESENT, the Rev. G. T. Perks, M.A., President of the Conference; the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. L. H. Wiseman, M.A., Ex-President; the Rev. Charles Prest, the General Secretary; the Rev. J. W. Greeves, one of the Treasurers; the Rev. John Bond, the Secretary; and most of the members of the Committee.

The following Gentlemen were chosen at the May District Meetings to be members of this Committee, most of whom were present; viz., First London, Mr. John B. Reynolds; Second London, Mr. H. Swaffield; Bedford and Northampton, Mr. H. Blundell; Kent, Mr. E. Wood; Norwich and Lynn, Mr. C. H. S. Geake; Oxford, Mr. J. C. Clarke, M.P.; Portsmouth, Mr. Jacobs; Channel Islands, Mr. John Whitehead; Devonport, Mr. S. T. Rolston; Cornwall, Mr. Samuel Hicks; Exeter, Mr. G. W. Williams; Bristol, Mr. H. Allen; Bath, Mr. E. B. Dingley; Swansea, Mr. T. Chivers; South Wales, Mr. L. Morris; North Wales, Mr. W. Bridge; Birmingham and Shrewsbury, Mr. E. Crapper; Macclesfield, Mr. W. C. L. Oliver; Liverpool, Mr. W. Hinson; Manchester, Alderman T. Davies; Bolton, Mr. J. S. Sutcliffe; Halifax and Bradford, Mr. R. Clough; Leeds, Mr. J. H. Wice; Sheffield, Mr. W. K. Peace; Nottingham and Derby, Mr. W. O. Quibell; Lincoln, Mr. H. Sharpley; Hull, Mr. W. Botterill; York, Mr. W. Leake; Whitby and Darlington, Mr. J. Monkhouse; Newcastle, Mr. Robert Robson;

Carlisle, Mr. Isaac James; Isle of Man, Mr. Daniel Joughin; Edinburgh and Aberdeen, Mr. James Thomson; Zetland, Mr. J. T. Henry.

The Report of the Committee of Management was read, including its recommendations on the two subjects which had been specially remitted to it by the Conference of 1873:—

I. THE SUSTENTATION OF THE MINISTRY.

After carefully considering the Returns furnished by the various District Meetings, and the views expressed by those Meetings, the Committee unanimously adopted the following Resolutions, viz.:—

1. That this Committee hears with satisfaction of the efforts which are now in progress in some parts of the Connexion to raise the allowances of Ministers, whether as assisted by the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, or entirely dependent upon District local funds.

2. That it earnestly desires that such efforts may be carried on until the Circuits shall have raised the allowances to an amount which shall satisfy the requirements of the several District Meetings respectively.

3. That this Committee requests the Conference to recommend that the surplus of the Sustentation Fund in each District be remitted to the General Treasurer of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; it being understood that such surplus be carried to a separate account, and appropriated to similar objects in other and more necessitous Districts.

4. That the Committees for promoting the augmentation of allowances in the Districts respectively, shall be appointed at the Financial District Meetings wherever practicable.

II. VILLAGE METHODISM.

On this subject the Committee adopted the following Resolutions, viz.:—

I. On considering the information supplied from different Districts, the Committee is satisfied that, in order to the support and extension of Methodism in the rural parts of the country, the number of Ministers must be considerably increased.

(1.) In many cases, in which additional ministerial labour may be provided, the present arrangement of Circuits might be continued, but the additional Minister might be appointed to reside in some central village, and bestow special attention on the villages in the neighbourhood.

(2.) The Committee further considers, that in many parts of the country Village-Circuits might be formed with advantage,—several adjacent villages being grouped together, so as to secure to the Societies and congregations in them concentrated pastoral attention, now so urgently needed.

(3.) The Committee is of opinion, that a few Ministers, whose gifts and zeal specially qualify them for the work, might be employed to visit places where Methodism does not at present exist, or where it is in a languishing state; such Ministers being under the direction of the Chairman of the District to which they are appointed, who shall make the necessary arrangements with the Superintendents of the Circuits to which the villages in question may be contiguous, or in which they may be comprehended.

II. That while there is encouraging promise of help for the objects now specified, from some Districts, and from generous promoters of Methodism, yet this Committee deeply feels that these objects cannot be attained, and that the necessary increase of Ministers cannot be supplied, unless the Home-Mission Fund be not only relieved of its present heavy debt, but permanently enlarged.

III. The Committee, therefore, recommends that a special effort be made throughout the Connexion for such relief and augmentation of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

The Committee hopes that any efforts and sacrifices which may be required, to strengthen and extend the influence of Methodism in the villages, will be cheerfully made by the Connexion, in consideration of the duty which devolves upon us to counteract the pernicious teaching, so nearly allied to Romanist error, now so widely diffused.

The Report of the Army and Navy Committee was also read, and the recommendations of the Committee respecting grants for extraordinary claims were revised and approved.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. C. Prest; seconded by Mr. Dyson, of Sheffield; and supported by the Rev. William Arthur, M.A., and Mr. May, of Bristol:

1. That not only the large and increasing debt, but the many urgent demands made upon this Fund, and the need of greatly extending our Home-Mission work, by establishing Village Circuits,—by meeting the claims of the population in spiritually destitute Districts,—by aiding to sustain our work in feeble Circuits,—and by supplementing the inadequate allowances of Ministers in dependent Circuits, as well as the desirableness of doing much more for the Army and Royal Navy, call for a largely-increased annual income.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Rigg; seconded by Mr. Rippon, of Manchester; and supported by Mr. M'Comas, of Dublin:

2. That, in order to secure the necessary increase in the annual income of the Home-Mission Fund, the Conference is earnestly requested to direct the careful attention of the Financial District Committees and the September Quarterly Meetings to this subject, in order that Home-Missionary Meetings may be more generally held, and that efficient local organization may be established for securing these objects.

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. S. R. Healey, of Liverpool; and supported by Mr. George Lidgett:

3. That the thanks of this Committee be given to those Ministers and friends who have advocated the claims of our Home Missions during the year; to those who have given valuable personal labour to our Home-Mission work; to the subscribers and collectors; and to those young persons and children who have so largely aided the Home-Mission Fund by Juvenile Associations.

Moved by the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference; seconded by Mr. Mason, of Newbury:

4. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to the Rev. J. W. Greeves and to Mr. John Vanner, the Treasurers; to the Rev. Charles Prest, the General Secretary; to the Rev. John Bond, the Secretary; and to the Committee of Management, for their valuable services during the year.

APPENDIX VIII.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF THE WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, ON THURSDAY, JULY 23RD, 1874.

PRESENT, the Rev. George T. Perks, M.A., the President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. John Rattenbury and Mr. John Napier, the Treasurers; the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, the Secretary; the Rev. Messrs. Luke H. Wiseman, M.A., W. Arthur, M.A., J. Farrar, J. Hall, C. Haydon, Dr. James, Dr. Osborn, C. Prest, Dr. Stamp; with Messrs. H. J. Atkinson, James Barlow, William M'Arthur, M.P., W. Mewburn, W. Bickford Smith, John B. Reynolds, and John Whitehead.

Resolved:—

Moved by the Rev. Luke H. Wiseman, M.A.; seconded by Mr. John B. Reynolds:

1. That this Committee has heard with much interest of the success with which the Rev. John Rattenbury has prosecuted his labours on behalf of this Fund, and of the generous response, in many instances, made to his appeals, and would earnestly commend this effort to the Christian sympathy and liberal support of the Connexion at large.

Moved by the Rev. W. Arthur, M.A.; seconded by Mr. John Whitehead:

2. That this Committee trusts that, by God's blessing on the efforts made to secure a permanent increase of the annual income of this Fund, the allowances made to the Supernumerary Ministers and Ministers' Widows may be speedily raised to a scale more adequate to their necessities, and more commensurate with their claims.

Moved by Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P.; seconded by Mr. H. J. Atkinson; and supported by Mr. William Mewburn:

3. That this Committee recommends to the Conference, that in all our Chapels where only one collection is made on behalf of the Theological Institution, on the same day a second collection should be made on behalf of the Auxiliary Fund, except where a collection for this object is already made.

Moved by the Rev. C. Prest; seconded by Mr. W. Bickford Smith:

4. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to Mr. John Napier and the Rev. John Rattenbury, the General Treasurers; to the Rev. Henry H. Chettle, the Secretary; and to the District Treasurers, and the Circuit Treasurers, for their services during the past year.

Moved by the Rev. J. Farrar; seconded by the Rev. J. H. James, D.D.:

5. That the cordial thanks of this Committee be presented to those friends who, during the past year, have generously aided this Fund by special donations, to those Executors who have paid sundry legacies to this Fund; and also to those Trustees who have contributed to it from their Chapel Income.

Moved by the Rev. C. Haydon; seconded by the Rev. W. W. Stamp, D.D.:

6. That the thanks of this Committee be presented to Mr. Walter Griffith and Mr. Greaves Walker, for their services as Auditors for the past year; and that they be appointed for the next year.

Moved by the Rev. J. Rattenbury; seconded by the Rev. Henry H. Chettle:

7. That the following Gentlemen be the Lay Members of this Committee for the next year:—Mr. H. J. Atkinson, Hull; Mr. E. M. Bainbridge, Newcastle; Mr. James S. Budgett, London; Mr. Isaac Holden, Oakworth; Mr. William M'Arthur, M.P., London; Mr. William Mewburn, Banbury; Mr. Thomas Pethick, Bristol; Mr. John Radmall, London; Mr. George Smith, Leeds; Mr. James Wood, B.A., Southport.

APPENDIX IX.

MEETING OF THE COMMITTEE OF REVIEW OF THE WESLEYAN THEOLOGICAL INSTITUTION,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, JULY 25TH, 1874.

The President of the Conference in the Chair.

THE Minutes of the Meetings of the General Committee were read by the Secretary.

Moved by the Rev. Thomas Llewellyn; seconded by Mr. Nicholas B. Downing, of Penzance; supported by Mr. W. K. Peace, of the Sheffield District:

1. That this Meeting is glad to find from the Reports of the Governors, Tutors, and Examiners of the three Branches of the Institution, that the work of the past year has been diligently and successfully prosecuted, and again offers its devout thanks to Almighty God for His continued blessing, while it gratefully acknowledges also the sustained liberality of the Methodist people.

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. T. P. Bunting, of London; supported by Mr. H. J. Atkinson, of London:

2. That, with a view to the continued and increased efficiency of this important Department of Methodism, and having regard to the demands of the Church for a duly qualified and competent Ministry, this Committee commends to the serious attention of the Conference the various matters referred to in the Minutes of the General Committee; viz., the importance of providing an Institution-training for all the Candidates for our Ministry; the expediency of extending the term of residence; the desirability of some preparatory instruction of those Candidates who may require it; the modification of the course of study; and the sufficiency of the Tutorial Staff.

Moved by the Rev. Oliver M'Cutcheon, one of the Representatives of the Irish Conference; seconded by Mr. Henry Swaffield, of the Second London District; supported by Mr. R. Clough, of the Halifax and Bradford District:

3. That this Committee recommends that the cordial thanks of the Conference be given to the Governors and Tutors of the several Branches, to the General and Local Treasurers and Secretaries, and to those Ministers and Gentlemen who have acted as Examiners, for their very efficient and acceptable services.

APPENDIX X.

MEETING OF THE EDUCATION COMMITTEE OF REVIEW,

HELD IN CAMBORNE, JULY 24TH, 1874.

PRESENT, the Rev. G. T. Perks, M.A., President of the Conference, in the Chair; the Rev. Gervase Smith, M.A., Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. L. H. Wiseman, M.A., Ex-President of the Conference; the Rev. Theophilus Woolmer and Mr. I. Hoyle, the Treasurers; the Rev. J. H. Rigg, D.D., and the Rev. G. W. Olver, B.A., Principals of the two Training Colleges; the Rev. John Clulow, Visitor of Day and Sunday Schools; the Rev. T. B. Stephenson, B.A., Principal of the Children's Home; the Rev. G. O. Bate, Secretary; and a large number of Ministers and laymen.

An abstract of the proceedings of the Committee during the year was read. Reported:—(1.) Training Colleges: Admissions, and appointment of Students to Schools, the completion of the Southlands College premises, and the enlargement of the School-Book Depôt premises at Westminster. (2.) Westminster Chapel: That all liabilities had been discharged; £2,861. 15*s.* 7*d.* having been advanced for this purpose by the Education Committee, promised Subscriptions amounting to £639 being unpaid. (3.) Education Fund: That the Treasurers had been authorized to simplify the General Balance-Sheet and to lessen the amount of interest annually payable, by appropriating to the reduction of the debt moneys previously invested or ready for investment; also that, as directed by the last Conference, attention had been given to the position of the Fund and means had been taken for its augmentation.

(4.) Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge; that this was duly held on March 7th; also that the Committee had resolved to add a Scripture subject in the examination of Candidates, to endeavour to simplify the course of Scripture study for Pupil-Teachers, and to adopt measures which may tend to sustain confidence in the fairness of the examination. (5.) The Code, and the Syllabus for Training Colleges for Male Students: suggestions for the improvement of these had been forwarded to the Committee of Council on Education. (6.) The Connexional Sunday-School Union: The scheme presented to the last Conference had been revised in harmony with the suggestions of the District Meetings, in September, 1873; it had also been considered, and further revised by a Special Committee of Ministers and laymen, in April, 1874, and the Education Committee had, in concert with the Book Committee, made arrangements for the completion of the scheme. (7.) School Transfers: In view of the Resolutions of the last Conference a Sub-Committee had been appointed to consider proposals of Managers and Trustees to transfer Wesleyan Day Schools to School Boards. (8.) Endowed Schools' Amendment Bill: The Committee had suggested to the President the propriety of submitting the measure to the consideration of the Committee of Exigency.

The following Statistics of Wesleyan Day and Sunday Schools were presented:—

The number of Day Schools under Local Committees is 886, an increase of 8; not under Local Committees, 20, a decrease of 14; Scholars 178,717, an increase of 7,345; average attendance, 116,332, an increase of 4,348.

The amount of Children's Pence during the year was £71,743, being an increase of £6,282; the amount of Government Annual Grants to Wesleyan Schools in 1873–4, was £66,518, being an increase on the previous year of £5,257; Subscriptions, etc., £22,452; increase £1,587. Total Income, £160,713; increase £13,126. The amount of Salaries, including payments to Assistants, Pupil-Teachers, etc., was £103,941; increase, £5,344; other expenses, £60,303; increase, £7,817. Total Cost, £164,244; increase, £13,161.

Thirteen new inspected Schools were opened during the year in New Buildings, and 30 were commenced in existing buildings. Thirty-nine Outfit Grants to 45 departments were paid, amounting to £1,423.

The number of Certificated Teachers employed in Wesleyan Schools on the 31st of December, 1873, was 927.

The number of Pupil-Teachers and Candidates returned in March last was 1,950, being an increase on the corresponding period of the previous year of 76. The Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious knowledge was held in accordance with the decision of the Conference. (See Minutes, 1873, pp. 263, 4.) 1,829 Pupil-Teachers and Candidates sat for Examination. The report of the Board of Examiners was presented to the General Education Committee in April last, and an abstract has since been published.

The number of Sunday-Schools is 5,787; increase, 98. Teachers and Officers, 110,123; increase, 1,677. Ditto in Society or on trial, 82,325; increase, 1,654. Scholars, 688,986; increase, 22,220. Ditto in Society or on trial, 45,709; increase, 3,653. In Select Classes, 21,913; decrease, 155. Young Persons in Bible-Classes, conducted by Ministers and others, 26,062; increase, 4,257. Number of Libraries, 2,364; increase, 63. Volumes, 615,864; increase, 24,447. Readers, 105,057; increase, 3,480. Schools in which the Catechisms are used, 4,602; increase, 48. Schools where children are regularly taken to Chapel, 5,021; increase, 71. Annual cost, £44,848.

The Treasurers presented a Financial Statement.

The Visitor of Day and Sunday Schools read an abstract of his Report.

The Principal of "The Children's Home" read a Report respecting that Institution.

The following Resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Moved by the Rev. William Arthur, M.A.; seconded

by Mr. Alderman M'Arthur, M.P.; supported by the Rev. Frederick E. Toyne:

1. That this Meeting hears with much satisfaction of the continued prosperity and extension of Methodist Day and Sunday Schools and of the Children's Home. While the Meeting highly values the services, both general and specific, which are rendered by the foregoing Institutions, and by the Sheffield and Taunton Colleges, it is of opinion that, in order to meet existing wants, and duly to complete the Educational arrangements of Methodism, it is not only desirable to provide for such Higher Education as is contemplated by the Cambridge Scheme, in harmony with the Resolutions of the last Conference, but also to promote the establishment, in various parts of the country, of Methodist Middle Class Schools, so organized as to furnish suitable instruction by the best methods and on moderate terms.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. James; seconded by Mr. Nicholas B. Downing; supported by the Rev. Joseph Bush:

2. That this Meeting is gratified to find that the proposal to establish a Connexional Sunday-School Union, which was sanctioned by the last Conference, has received the hearty approval of the Connexion generally, as expressed in the Financial District Meetings, and in the Special Meeting of Ministers and Laymen, convened by the President in April, to consider the scheme. The Meeting trusts that the arrangements for giving effect to the Scheme will prove satisfactory, and that it will be brought into operation during the ensuing year.

Moved by the Rev. John Bedford; seconded by Mr. William W. Pocock; supported by the Rev. J. Smith Spencer:

3. That while this Meeting is thankful for the increase of the Income of the Education Fund as reported, and is glad to find that a considerable balance has been available for the reduction of debt, it regards the present amount of debt as a serious burden, and strongly recommends its speedy liquidation. To effect this, and also to enable the Committee occasionally to render aid to specially necessitous Day-Schools, and to meet the additional charges consequent on the formation of the Connexional Sunday-School Union, the Meeting considers that a further augmentation of the Fund should be forthwith secured.

Moved by the Rev. Dr. Osborn; seconded by Mr. J. S. Sutcliffe; supported by Mr. H. Swaffield:

4. That the thanks of this Meeting be presented to the Rev. J. H. Rigg, D.D., Principal of Westminster Training College; the Rev. G. W. Olver, B.A., Principal of Southlands Training College; the Rev. T. Woolmer and Mr. I. Hoyle, the Treasurers; the Rev. G. O. Bate, the Secretary; the Rev. J. Clulow, Visitor of Day and Sunday Schools; the Rev. T. B. Stephenson, B.A., Principal of "The Children's Home;" and to the Membersof the Acting Committee, for their diligent and faithful services during the year.

APPENDIX XII.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO CONSIDER THE EXTENSION OF METHODISM IN GREAT BRITAIN.

After a careful consideration of numerous facts and figures, the Committee agreed to the following conclusions:—

1. That from the Returns obtained and reported, and from various Connexional documents, the Committee is gratified to observe that large and successful efforts have been made throughout the Connexion, both in towns and villages, since the census of 1851, to provide additional accommodation by the erection and enlargement of Methodist Chapels, and to extend Methodism by means of Home-Missions and other evangelistic agencies.

2. Nevertheless, considering the great increase of the population during that period, and the fact that in many instances, both in towns and villages, little or no accommodation for worship is yet provided by the Connexion; and that it is abundantly evident that without some special Connexional assistance adequate provision is not likely to be made for a considerable time to come, this Committee is deeply convinced that a speedy and general effort should be made to raise a Fund which shall supplement the ordinary Funds of the Connexion, and the local resources of the people, in part to sustain an additional number of Home-Missionary Ministers, whose duty it shall be to preach the Gospel in districts where Methodism does not now exist, and to facilitate the erection of Chapels where needed, and the enlargement of others which are at present insufficient.

3. At the same time the Committee is fully aware that any plan for the accomplishment of these purposes will necessarily involve the calling out and training of additional Ministers, and will entail, for a time, a serious charge upon the Home-Mission Fund, and upon the Fund of the Theological Institution; and therefore the Committee judges, that, whilst the larger part of the total sum to be thus specially raised should be employed to encourage and assist the erection and enlargement of Places of Worship in necessitous localities, a reasonable amount should, after careful consideration, be applied towards meeting the additional charges upon these Funds.

4. Having regard to all these considerations, the Committee is of opinion that the Conference should be recommended to appoint a large and influential Committee, to take steps as soon after the Conference as may be found convenient, with a view to carry into practical effect the proposed movement, by circulating information and instituting a general canvass throughout the Connexion: and, having regard to the importance of obtaining a vigorous and efficient conduct of the enterprise, this Committee unanimously and earnestly requests the Conference to appoint a Minister to act as Secretary to that Committee.

5. In the judgment of this Committee it is not expedient to establish any separate Department for the distribution in detail of this Fund; but, while it should be maintained and reported upon as a distinct Fund, the moneys raised should be administered through the existing Connexional Agencies, in such manner as to give special assistance to the objects before indicated, and in such proportions as may from time to time be found desirable.

6. This Committee is encouraged to urge these recommendations by the history of the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, which in twelve years has helped to provide accommodation for nearly 50,000 additional worshippers in Methodist Chapels; and by many facts in the records of the General Chapel Committee, and the Home-Missionary Committee, which show that if larger pecuniary resources were available, a great and much needed impulse would be given to local efforts for the extension of Methodism in many parts of the country where it now struggles to render service amidst serious disadvantages, and for its introduction into other places where it is now most earnestly desired.

COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

 The figures at the beginning of the lines mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; and those at the end of the lines denote his first, second, &c., annual appointment to his present Circuit.

N.B.—In cases in which a second name in brackets follows the name of the head of a Circuit in Great Britain, it is the postal direction for the head of such Circuit; as Bramley (Leeds); and where a residence other than the head of a Circuit is followed by a second name in brackets, or the two names are included in brackets, the second is, in like manner, the postal direction for such residence.
